AMERICAN SHIP

The Target for Seven Shots at Honduras.

THE CAPTAIN REFUSED TO SURRENDER A PASSENGER.

President Vasquez Threatened to Sink the Ship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald prints the following dispatch from La Libertad, Honduras: By the alleged orders of President Vasquez and by the express command of the commissioner of the port of Amapala, seven cannon shots were fired after the Pacific mail steamship Costa Rica, flying the stars and stripes, as she steamed away this (Monday) morning, because she refused to surrender one of her passengers to the Honduras government.

The passenger about whom the trouble arose is Policarpo Bonilla, who recently led the revolution in Honduras, but was defeated by General Vasquez. He then fled to Nicaragua, and with 300 of his coherents joined the army of President Sacasa, who was engaged in an Attempt to Quell the Rebellion.

Bonilla had decided to leave Nicaragua in order to relieve the government from all responsibility of harboring him. He therefore sailed from Corinto for Guatemala on Nov. 4 on the Costa Rica.

American Minister Baker and more than 100 persons were his fellow passengers. They arrived Sunday morning off Amapala, port of entry of Honduras, on the Pacific coast, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon Commander of the Port Villila demanded that Captain Dow should surrender Bonilla.

When this request was refused a threat was made to sink the ship, and it was asserted that President Vasquez had given strict orders to that effect. An official protest against the refusal to surrender Bonilla was presented to the captain at 6 o'clock, and clearance papers were only issued to the ship after nightfall, when it was too dark to leave the harbor with safety.

A government officer came on board at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning and stated that new orders had been received from the president insisting on the delivery of Bonilla or

The Bombardment of the Ship.

Captain Dow replied that the commander of the port would receive his answer in half an hour, but before that time had expired he steamed away. Seven shots were fired after the Costa Rica, although she flew the American flag.

None of the shots struck her, however, but it is feared the steamship City of Panama of the same line, which was lying in the port, may have been injured, because the firing continued for some time after the Costa Rica was out of range.

The congress of Honduras has conferred upon President Vasquez full power to make war upon Nicaragua whenever a revolution or an invasion of revolutionists from that republic occurs.

Escaped From Deer Island.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The temporary bridge across Shirley Gut from Winthrop to Deer Island, erected for use while the sewer is being laid this morning, proved to be an easy avenue of escape for two boys who were serving time at the island. Their names are Orlo Vanvolkingburg and Harry Hoyt. They are 15 and 16 years of age. Both lads belong in Lowell, but ran away from their homes in that city some six months ago.

Fitchburg Mills Booming.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Nov. 7.—Jerome Mossman's woodworking shop is now running full blast. He said yesterday that he had large orders conditional on the repeal of the silver purchase bill. The Bedi mills are running on full time again, with many orders and good prospects. The Baltic mills began running overtime the day after the repeal measure was passed, and at 10 p. m. has been the closing hour for a week.

Heavy Catch of Seals.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 7.—The statement of the North Pacific sealing catch, placing the total at 120,241, is not complete. Instead of 2748 skins, San Francisco schooners took 20,000 skins, but landed nearly all at Hakodate and Yokohama. The exact figures are not known, but it is believed the total will be in the neighborhood of 145,000 skins.

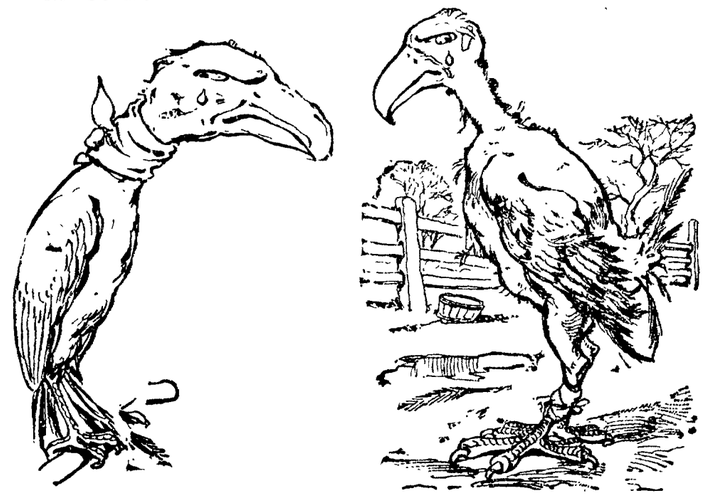
Jewelry Manufactory Scorched.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—The jewelry manufacturing building on Peck and Clifford streets, occupied by a dozen firms, was damaged to the extent of $5000 by fire at 4:30 o'clock this morning. The principal loser is George Baker, a gold and silver repairer. All the occupants were insured.

IT WILL BE GOV. GREENHALGE.

His Plurality Will Reach Old Time Figures.

Democratic Party Fought Nobly, But the Calamity Shouters Had Thoroughly Frightened the People into Voting the Ticket of the G. O. P.



Some Cold Facts Which Make Our Birds Feel Sad and Weary.

The election is over and the democratic party has been routed rank and file. From all sides and all cities north, east and west come the stories of a republican victory which is startling in its immensity.

Wise ones will say that it was an "off year" and accordingly a republican year, but the hard pan fact is that the calamity shouters succeeded in frightening the people to such an extent that they thought the country was going to the proverbial "bow wows." It looks almost like a stampede from the democratic banner in New York, and for a reason only time will develop.

To put into a few words the facts concerning the election—and facts which are hard for democratic digestion—is to say that the inflated reports as brought in by the wire show that the republicans have fairly swept New York, Iowa, Ohio and New Jersey.

And as for Massachusetts, Hon. F. T. Greenhalge will be the next governor, sweeping the state by a plurality, which, while only imperfectly completed yet will exceed 21,000.

Nearly all the cities and towns near Lowell have been heard from and the way the small majorities for Mr. Greenhalge came in makes the reading somewhat monotonous for the democrats.

For instance take Dracut which gave last year Russell 182; Haile, 109; this year gives Greenhalge, 224; Russell, 153.

Billerica—Greenhalge, 327; Russell, 148; Below is given a table of the larger towns and cities and those of greatest interest to Lowell readers:

One of the big surprises of the evening was the figures from Leicester, John E. Russell's home, Greenhalge carrying it by 346 to 268, while last year Haile beat W. E. Russell by only 13 votes, 321 to 308.

At midnight 280 cities and towns reported a net democratic loss of 17,360. Three minutes later 300 cities and towns reported a net loss to the democrats of 18,000, and it was predicted in Boston that Greenhalge would have a plurality exceeding 20,000.

NEW YORK STATE.

How the Landslide Swept Onward Out in That State.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

NEW YORK. The Herald bulletin says that the republicans now claim Brooklyn by 10,000; Maynard badly cut in Chatauqua Co., but he carries Chemung county by 350.

541 districts outside of New York city and Brooklyn give Palmer, r., 60,542; Myers dem., 45,838; same district in '91 gave O'Connor, dem., 62,887; Rice, rep., 56,334.

100 out of 201 districts in Erie county give Maynard a net loss of over 6000.

The World predicts that the entire republican ticket is elected by 30,000 majority. The Sun says that every return from the state shows big gains for the republicans, and the state has probably gone republican by 40,000 majority.

The republican city committee of Buffalo claims the city by a clean sweep, the democrats getting only an occasional alderman.

N. Y. Commercial Advertiser says the assembly is "horribly" republican; perhaps the senate also.

Chairman of republican city committee of Brooklyn claim the city by a clear 10,000.

1221 districts outside of New York and Brooklyn gives Palmer, rep., 136,169; Myers, dem., 114,675; in '91. O'Connor, dem., 145,410; Rice, rep., 135,855.

New York city complete, Myers, 147,256; Palmer, 79,867. Palmer beats Myers by 11,000 in Brooklyn, for secretary of state.

THE IOWA STRUGGLE.

It Looks as if Gov. Boies Will be Relieved from Duty.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

DES MOINES, Ia. Thirty precincts give a net loss for democrats of 2622, and this is indicative of reports throughout the state. Democrats do not believe they will lose the gubernatorial fight.

There's Solace in This.

The New York Times says that Virginia has gone democratic by 50,000 majority.

Despatches from Kentucky and Maryland show that the democrats have elected by big majorities.

The democrats have undoubtedly carried Chicago, but Gary, rep., for superior judge is elected, running way ahead of his ticket. Judge Gary presided at the anarchist trial.

OHIO'S PARALYZING MAJORITY.

It Goes Way Up Out of Sight for McKinley.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

CINCINNATI. Three hundred precincts at midnight, gave McKinley, rep., 48,022 and Neal, dem., 33,523 for governor.

CINCINNATI. 523 precincts give McKinley 89,314; Neal, 65,063.

Kansas Heard From.

TOPEKA, Kan. The republicans elect their entire ticket.

GOVERNOR

Mr. Greenhalge Gets a Grand Ovation.

Tremendous Cheering—Patriotic Speech by Mr. Greenhalge.

A worthy tribute to an honored son.

That was what Lowell bestowed upon Governor-Elect Greenhalge, last night. Probably he little expected when he left Boston at 11.20, the grand reception that awaited him when he arrived in this city at 12.23, this morning. It was a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm and brotherly feeling to one who had been chosen to the highest position within the gift of the people of the commonwealth.

Democrats and republicans turned out alike, but the parade was made up entirely of republicans.

At Huntington Hall.

Mr. Greenhalge's entrance to Huntington hall was the signal for frantic cheers. He was presented in front of hundreds on the stage and cheer after cheer went up for several minutes before he could obtain a hearing.

Mayor Pickman called for silence and said the great battle has been fought and Lowell's favorite son, Hon. F. T. Greenhalge has been elected governor of the commonwealth. (Tremendous cheers).

One name is subscribed on the banner of our city and that name is Hon. F. T. Greenhalge.

Such an event is unprecedented in the history of Lowell. It is an inspiring sight. I present the governor-elect Mr. Greenhalge.

Bedlam here broke loose and ten minutes were spent in the most uproarious cheering.

Mr. Greenhalge said: My friends this is not late Tuesday night but early Wednesday morning. I have only a single word to say. What can I say after such a demonstration as you have given me?

I said when leaving Lowell this morning that I would sacrifice 5000 votes in the state for the vote of my own city but now I am told I have the vote of my own people without sacrificing a single vote in the state. (cheers.)

What does it mean my friends, my neighbors, my brothers, if my election does not seem good to every mother's son of you, for I see no daughters here? (Laughter.) But I tell them what my election will be to Lowell. Despite the charge of being a partisan, despite what some newspapers have said of me, I have never been a bitter partisan. I have been a friend or tried to be a friend to every man. I have never been illiberal, I never tried to foster animosities but on the contrary tried to crush them out. I tried to bring people together, to bring men of this nationality and of that, of this and that religion all together and to remember that they were brothers. Of course we must differ, it would be a mighty dull country and a dull time if we did not differ. I would hate to live with anybody who agreed with me all the time.

Even my beautiful wife (sometimes differs with me. My son and daughter some times criticize what I say and think, but yet we are all one family, so I wish it may be in this city and state. If we differ in the city of Lowell, let us bring the matters up and discuss them in every aspect so as to arrive at right results.

I have tried to carry this campaign, but I have never struck a blow below the belt. I appreciate with my whole heart and soul this overwhelming greeting you have given me this morning. When we are making history for Lowell, I want my city to hold an honored place. I came here and here I stayed. I wanted to remain here among the men who toil for a living. I do not say this in order to win votes, and I may say now that I never asked a man for a vote in my life. (Loud cheers.)

I would rather lose an election than win it by the mean art of the politician. I am accused of being a yearling, but when elected to any office I endeavor to do my duty and let God and the people take care of the second term, (tremendous applause.)

Let us begin a new era in the history of Lowell the grandest industrial city in the world. Fall River may have more spindles, New Bedford may excel in some respects, but Lowell surpasses all. We have French, Irish, English, Scotch, Armenians and men of almost all nationalities in the world. The work of the statesman is to bring them under the grand rule of the commonwealth of the Pilgrim Fathers. Here every man can be a patriot under the stars and stripes.

We have fought a hot campaign and success is not due to my efforts but to the will of the people. They have condemned the policy of the party in power and I will bear their message. We can give a warning voice that we want the grand old policy of Benjamin Harrison to be sustained. You have followed my suggestion made to you a few days ago and my efforts will be to do my duty towards all parties and all citizens whether native or adopted.

After thanking the gathering for their noble and generous demonstration, he advised all to return to their homes as their families would blame him for keeping them out late. The large gathering then cheered again before dispersing.

They Kept Open House.

The Yorick club held "open house" all last night. The members were out in force and a gay time was had at the rooms of the club in Mansur block. Returns were received from all over the state and the club was also in communication with the republican state committee in Boston. When it became apparent that Greenhalge was elected, the affair took the form of a jollification meeting.

BRADY TO BE OUR SENATOR.

The Single "Brand Plucked From the Burning."

The Glorious Victory That Revived the Drooping Spirts of Our Birds.

It will be Senator Peter J. Brady after January first. He laid Senator Frederick Lawton on the shelf, after a contest which was not determined by figures until the last precincts were in.

Yes, Brady won, and Greenhalge carried the city and state.

From the battle the democrats have only the following successful candidates:

Peter J. Brady, senator, with a majority of 158.

Daniel J. Murphy, representative, from Ward One, re-elected.

Owen M. Donohoe, representative, from Ward Three.

Philip J. Farley, representative, Ward Six, re-elected.

Here is what the republicans got:

Hon. F. T. Greenhalge carries Lowell by 441 votes. J. Stuart Murphy barely wins the representative fight in Ward Two; re-elected E. S. Foss, re-elected, F. S. Bennett of Tyngsboro, elected representatives in the 24th district, with Rep. W. H. I. Hayes in doubt as he was fearfully cut throughout the district.

In the balance of the ticket the republicans win as usual, although W. A. Read, dem., for county commissioner ran ahead of his ticket but not so strongly as anticipated. It looks as if the republicans voted nearly straight giving Brady the preference in cutting.

Last year Gov. Russell carried Lowell by 781; the upheaval is something terrible.

Grand Demonstration.

The republican city committee had a full delegation in line and the Yorick club turned out to a man, and supplied the music, Post 42 G. A. R. band being at the head of their ranks. Besides these, there were numerous other republicans congregated from all parts of the city. Somehow or other the city committee got the wrong "end" and believed that the governor-elect would reach Lowell at 11.20. Accordingly they were prepared at the appointed time to meet him, but their hopes were disappointed and they were doomed to delay, for word was received that the governor-elect would not reach here until an hour later.

When finally the train rolled in bearing the new made hero, there was a mighty rush, a crush, and then sinking back as the man among men, made his appearance. But what a shout, rather a roar, a perfect bedlam. "Fred" bowed and tipped his brown fedora, and then when his eyes met the grand feast that awaited him, he was deeply affected.

It was a great night for "Fred," a greater night for Lowell. To imagine that a resident of Lowell—a candidate on the republican ticket—had been raised to the governorship, was sufficient to arouse the greatest enthusiasm on the part of our republican friends.

A carriage, decorated with miniature American flags; was held in waiting by Paul Butler, and attracted to it was a pair of fine horses but there was no need for them; "Fred's" admirers contended that they should draw the carriage and so they did; about 200 of them grabbing hold of the rope, which was attached to the pole. Ex-Mayor Palmer sat upon the drivers' box and looked as happy as he felt. Seated in the carriage beside Governor-Elect Greenhalge were His Honor Mayor Pickman and Larkin T. Trull. Among the body guard marching beside the carriage was Col. Dimon, who on Monday came out for Greenhalge.

The whole line of procession from the depot to Huntington hall was one continual blaze of red fire, in fact at times it seemed as though a large fire was in progress in our city. Charlie Hanson rode on head of the procession and supplied the boys with red fire. Roman candles, sky rockets and cannon crackers were fired off, and in fact everything conceivable was done to add to the enthusiasm of the occasion. At post office square the cheers were loud and hearty and the governor-elect was kept continually raising his hat in response to the grand ovation he was receiving.

Taken altogether Lowell did its duty in showing homage to one who has always been a loyal citizen and in recognizing the importance of the honor conferred upon him.

The Crowds on Merrimack Square.

The interest taken in the returns was phenomenal. There never was an election in which there was more uncertainty as to the outcome before the returns came in and hardly ever one in which the first returns were more clearly indicative of fin l results. Only a few country towns were heard from when it could be easily seen that Russell was running far behind and that Greenhalge would be the next governor of Massachusetts. The crowd multiplied in front of THE SUN office as town after town was heard from until the governorship and the senatorial contest was practically settled by the returns and cheer after cheer rent the air, but all or nearly all were republican cheers.

There were thousands of Mr. Brady's friends on the street and they cheered every report that showed him to be in the lead. The ardor of the democrats sank with their hopes of victory and after waiting to be assured of Mr. Brady's victory they dispersed for home. At 11 o'clock the streets were abandoned to the republicans who were awaiting the arrival of Mr. Greenhalge from Boston. The Big Twelve, the Yoricks, Miserables and other clubs kept open during the greater part of the night, all in excitement at the news of the great landslide all over the country. The democratic loss in this city, as in the state and all over the country was far greater than even republicans anticipated. It was a regular landslide a reversal of the republican defeat that followed the passage of the McKinley bill.

Everybody was surprised at the result and all agreed in attributing it to the hard times.

Senator-elect Brady's Reception.

As the Yorick club glorified in the election of Mr. Greenhalge, so did the Big 12 enthuse over Senator-elect Brady's success. The members of this organization have worked hard and well for Mr. Brady, and have done everything in their power to promote his interests. Last night the members received returns in their rooms and when it became apparent that Peter J. Brady was to be our next senator, their enthusiasm knew no bounds, and nothing was too good for their guests. Their liberality and genial disposition for entertaining is well known, but never has it been displayed to such an extent. Nothing was too good last night, and the club had many callers.

Le Cercle Canadien entertained friends during the evening and exulted over the election of Mr. Greenhalge.

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

EVERY DEMOCRAT was expected to do his duty yesterday, but did they?

THE SOUTH DAKOTA people have spoken and we bow to the fiat of their will.

NOW THAT the state election is over, the candidates for municipal offices will seek public attention.

THE WRITER is a good monthly magazine for the use of young people aspiring to the journalistic profession.

THERE IS a dark prospect before the strikers of Olneyville for the coming winter. No worse time could be chosen for a strike.

THE MURDER of Carter Harrison unprovoked as it was, will probably be a serious blow to the movement for the abolition of capital punishment. Who will say that hanging will be too severe a punishment for Prendergast?

SOME WOMEN in Indiana have adopted the methods inaugurated by Dr. Parkhurst of New York for exposing the dens of vice. They made a tour of the brothels and were so shocked at what they saw that they were cast into nervous prostration and obliged to stay abed. What use will they make of their experience?

IF ONE were to judge from the allegations of the Boston Journal, it would appear that the democrats could take the election returns of the city and add enough ballots to make a democratic majority. Such charges can only come from a desperate partisan that has lost all regard for truth and fairness.

THE DOG that refuses to bark out of respect to its sleeping owners while the house is being rifled is altogether too courteous. That democratic dog that barked vigorously in Huntington hall Saturday night in protest to what Mr. Goulding said on the Sherman law, was a different kind of an animal. If that highly trained dog did not care to give an alarm by barking, it might have used its teeth to prevent the thieves from carrying off their plunder.

WHEN GOVERNOR RUSSELL was speaking of Mr. Cleveland in Huntington hall last week, he used a quotation from the words of Seneca's pilot which were first applied to Cleveland in his presence at Harvard by James Russell Lowell. President Eliot relates that he saw the tears well up in the president's eyes when he heard the words used. They were: "O Neptune! Your may save me if you will; you may sink me if you will, but whatever you do I will keep my rudder true."

MR. GREENHALGE ELECTED.

Hon. F. T. Greenhalge has been chosen governor of Massachusetts. Richly endowed by nature with gifts of oratory and other brilliant talents, well trained as a lawyer and a legislator in the government of city, state and nation, he is particularly fitted to give the commonwealth a good business administration. If he eschews extreme partisanship and takes for his model the fair-minded, clear headed and sagacious Gov. Russell, he will satisfy the people and deserve a re-election at the hands of his party.

Although THE SUN opposed Mr. Greenhalge it did so decently and without descending to meanness. It defended him against the race issue and in its columns can be found some of the most appreciative notices of his oratorical ability and his liberality out side the domain of politics. Now that the contest is ended THE SUN has magnanimity enough to offer its congratulations to Mr. Greenhalge upon his success and to Lowell upon the honor of having the next governor as one of her citizens.

THE REFERENDUM.

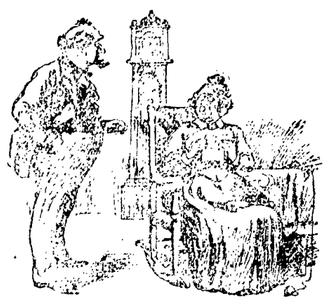
In the question of amending the constitution so as to provide for the payment of mileage the voters today have an illustration of the referendum in legislation. The referendum is simply a submission or reference to the people for decision of any proposed legislation. The people vote on the proposition and if a majority favors it the legislature enacts the law. The system will be new to the people of this community inasmuch as the referendum has been but seldom resorted to in this country and only when some radical legislation is proposed such as a change in the constitution of the United States, of an individual state or in the charter of a city. So little attention do the voters generally give such questions that it would appear they have a very poor appreciation of what the referendum means. When a proposition is thus submitted to the people not more than half usually vote upon it. If every important matter were so submitted, the people would have to pay closer attention to the affairs of state and be better posted upon the laws needed to promote the good government, the peace, happiness and prosperity of the state. Both political parties are now in favor of the referendum in legislation and it will soon be a fixed principle of legislation in this state. When the referendum shall have been properly introduced the initiative will soon follow because one is of but little account without the other. By the initiative a certain number of voters can have any desired legislation submitted to the people for their decision.

A Parents' Duty.

It is the duty of parents to see that their children get none but wholesome reading. They should also see that they have every opportunity to read about the current events of the world, that they may become intelligent and keep up with the procession. THE SUN is newsy; it is clean; it is always bright and truthful, but never vulgar. 25 cents a month secures its regular delivery to your house. Try it. You can't spend 25 cents that will do you and your family so much good.

SUNBEAMS.

Hard For George.



Fond Mother — Here's a letter from George. He says he hasn't much time to write on account of the severe head work he is doing. Poor boy! I'm afraid he'll study himself to death before he gets through college.

This is George in the striped Jersey doing some of the severe headwork aforementioned.—Puck.

A Woman's Heart.

She (coldly)—I am afraid I do not love you enough to be your wife, but I shall always be your friend and sincerely wish for your happiness.

He (moodily)—I know what I'll do.

She (anxiously)—You surely will not do yourself an injury?

He (calmly)—No, I will find happiness. I will marry some one else.

She—Horrors! Give me another day to consider, dear.—New York Weekly.

Villainous.

"John," said De Brest's wife, "I don't know what to do about the hired girl."

"Why don't you fire her?"

"I have, but I can't get rid of her."

"Hm. Well, I'll attend to that tomorrow morning."

"How?"

"I'll get up early and show her how to light the fire with kerosene. Then we'll let nature take it's course."—Washington Star.

Not Prepared to Say.

"You're from Oklahoma, are you?" said the long whiskered passenger on his way to a Populist convention. "Well, what seems to be the situation out there?"

"I couldn't find any," replied the passenger with the frazzled trousers. And the conversation lagged.—Chicago Tribune.

The Strain Soon Over.

"Now, lady, look beautiful and happy," said a William street photographer to the young woman. "So. That's it. There, I have you. Now you may resume your natural expression."—Buffalo Courier.

The Five Great Powers.

Some one asked Prince G——, "Which are the great powers of Europe?"

He answered, straight off the reel, "England, Germany, France, Russia and woman."—Couteur du Vaudois.

Good Advice.

Toper—What shall I take, doctor, to remove the redness of my nose?

Doctor—Take nothing—for three months!—Italio.

Accomplishments.

"I can dress myself!" bragged Willie.

"And I," said Bobbie proudly, "I can wipe my own nose!"—Brooklyn Life.

At His Word.

A one eyed man with cork soled shoes was vociferously offering to sell 12 lead pencils for a nickel without appreciable effect upon the ebb and flow of trade.

A youth just budding into manhood with every indication of an arrested development turned to the maiden at his side and said:

"Miss Undergore, the least expected always happens."

To which she replied:

"Thank you, Mr. Letherhed. I will take ice cream soda with raspberry flavor, if you please."

There was a quaver in the voice of the one eyed party with the cork soled shoes.

Exit. Likewise men came and went as before.—Detroit Tribune.

KIDNEY TROUBLE AND Rheumatism Cured!!

Read this following wonderful statement from David K. Hill, Newburyport, Mass.

"I was taken with 'La Grippe' one year ago last January, and had been sick about two months when I began using and in a few days after I began I had a good appetite and could eat. I gained in flesh. In three weeks I was able to walk from 160 to 204 pounds. I was troubled with Rheumatism in the shoulders and legs, and found the trouble left me as fast as I gained in flesh. I am entirely cured of the effects of 'La Grippe,' Kidney Troubles and Rheumatism by the use of DANA'S SARSAPARILLA."

For the benefit of those who contemplate house-keeping, whether on a large or small scale, we have prepared a set of Plans so arranged in goods and prices as to be adapted to the wants of all classes, and which will be found of the greatest assistance to beginners and others who aim to get the best possible results for their money, and which combine the greatest possible usefulness with the least possible expenditure. These Plans will be known as

and are the outcome of our very extensive dealings with the public and our thorough knowledge of their requirements. We claim for them the following essential elements, on which we base their success:

ORIGINALITY. BECAUSE no house in our business has ever proposed or adopted any such plans for securing to the purchaser such benefits as these afford, and because no matter what competitors may promise or hold out in copying these plans as they undoubtedly will, they must fall far short of the quality, even if the quantity and prices are the same. On this particular point you get our guarantee.

FEASIBILITY. BECAUSE these plans have been originated and prepared by us, not merely for an advertisement, but are intended as a positive benefit to the purchaser in helping him to secure such goods as will give the greatest satisfaction in every respect. AND WE GUARANTEE that the goods set forth in either plan, if taken altogether, shall be found from $5 to $50 cheaper than they can be bought for elsewhere.

POPULARITY. BECAUSE all intending purchasers can find in these plans the realization of their ideas, and because no matter which you accept, you will find it is just exactly as if you had framed it yourself.

To All Whom It May Concern.

There are undoubtedly many people who feel at some time or another unwell, not really sick but very indisposed. Now, what such persons need at such times, is not medicine, nor high-priced prescriptions, but what is needed is some gentle, but sure stimulant, something to assist and at the same time enrich the blood; nature will do the rest. And the best medical authorities agree there is nothing better than pure wine.

In a Common Grave Lie the Victims.

OF THE TERRIBLE SENTANDERS EXPLOSION DISASTER.

Over 1000 Persons Killed by the Shock.

MADRID, Nov. 7.—The latest details concerning the terrible disaster at Santander on Friday last show that the number of dead, missing and wounded is fully 1000. The people have not yet recovered from the effects of the catastrophe, and are entirely apathetic, paying no attention to business, but standing about the streets discussing the awful calamity that has befallen the city.

Men and women living near the water front who providentially escaped from the wrecking of their homes, can be seen in numbers standing near the huge masse of debris that fill the streets, waiting to recover the bodies of those that are known to be under the ruins.

The scenes everywhere in the vicinity of where the destruction was wrought by the exploding dynamite are sad in the extreme, and whenever beyond recognition, is removed from the ruins a heartrending wail goes up from the women, who fear that the shapeless mass of flesh may be all that remains of one of their loved ones. There is no doubt that many of the dead will never be identified.

Senor Gamazo, minister of finance, who at once proceeded from Madrid to Santander when the extent of the calamity became known, is doing everything in his power to awaken the authorities to the fact that they must arouse themselves and set about repairing the damage the city has sustained. As soon as he arrived he summoned the town officials and expressed to them the sympathy of the government. He also assured them the

When Senor Gamazo saw how helpless the authorities were in the crisis confronting them, he in a great measure took the administration of affairs in his own hands. He telegraphed to Valladolid, ordering that medical stores, nurses and other helpers be at once sent to Santander.

A subscription for the relief of the sufferers was started, Senor Gamazo heading it with a gift of $5000 on behalf of the government.

Many of the dead were buried yesterday. Among the bodies interred was the

of the Marquis de Pomba. The services were attended by large crowds of people, and many distressing scenes were witnessed. Many of the fragments of bodies found in the vicinity of the quay were buried in a common grave.

The divers who were employed to recover the bodies in the bay have been so appalled in the number of the dead and gruesome appearance of the corpses that they have refused to continue their work.

SERVICE INEFFICIENT.

People of Madrid Clamor For News, but Messages Will Not Be Sent.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Times' correspondent in Madrid complains thus of the utter inefficiency of the Spanish telegraph service:

The telegraph service fails in a most miserable state whenever a slight extra strain is put upon it. We still are without really trustworthy details of the Santander disaster.

The public besiege the offices begging for news, but the officials sternly refuse to receive or deliver private messages, declaring that the lines are partially blocked or are needed for official messages. A similar state of things has lasted for weeks in connection with events at Melilla.

WANTS HIS MONEY BACK.

Advertised For a Wife and Is Fleeced Out of $680 In Cash.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Paul Hearn, 67 years of age, living in Bergen county, N. J., received from the government several months ago about $1700 back pension money and thought he would advertise for a wife.

One of the many replies he received was signed "Catherine Harrington," and seemed to please the old man. The writer said she was 35 years old, a blonde plump in figure, thoroughly domestic in habits and religiously inclined.

The old man had a personal interview and was instantly enthralled. He invited Catherine to visit his place. She was charmed with everything, and at his request remained several days to arrange the interior of the house, preparatory to the marriage.

The old man received a note from the woman last week saying that she soon would be up and bring her "brother" along with her. When the couple appeared the "brother" said to the farmer:

"We might as well settle this business at once. You've been making love to my wife and trying to steal her from me and I want $1000.

When the dazed old man began to protest the "brother" became violent, and so frightened the old man that he gave up $680.

Old Farmer Hearn now wants to know if there is any way of getting his money back without exposing the fact that he had made "a darn fool of himself."

CUP FOR ISELIN.

No Challenge For America's Cup Expected From England in 1894.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Ex Commodore Smith, the chairman of the American cup committee, said today that he hardly expected a challenge from England for an international race in 1894, but that it might come before Jan. 1, the limit of time in the present deed of gift.

The next event of interest in connection with the recent international yacht races will be the presentation of a handsome cup to C. Oliver Iselin, by the cup committee, on behalf of the New York Yacht club as an evidence of the club's appreciation of Mr. Iselin's work in building and preparing Vigilant for the trial and the international races

An order has been given for the cup, which will be completed in about a fortnight. It will be a very handsome and elaborate cup, and a banquet will probably be given when it is presented to Mr. Iselin.

Print Works on Full Time.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—The Clyde print works, one of the largest concerns in the Pawtuxet valley, which have been on short time since last July, have started up on full time.

A Collector, but He Fails.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 7.—William H. Saxton, jeweler, has failed. Mr. Saxton is collector of the port of New London, having been appointed by President Harrison.

SUPREME COURT DEFIED.

Supervisor McKane Locks Up Its Bearer Others Brutally Assaulted.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 7.—There is a good deal of excitement at Gravesend today. Armed with the order issued by Justice Barnard of the supreme court compelling Supervisor McKane to allow the Republican inspectors to watch the voting a party of William J. Gaynor's supporters left the latter's house in Brooklyn at 4:30 this morning, under the leadership of Colonel Alex S. Bacon. The party numbered about 30, and proceeded in carriages to Gravesend.

They carried with them the order issued by Justice Barnard and entered Gravesend from four different directions, and found McKane and his police force drawn up around the court house. They had marked a line 300 feet away from the court house. The injunction of the supreme court was set at defiance.

Colonel Bacon tried to serve an injunction on Chief McKane. He told them he had an injunction of the supreme court and was there under its authority. Chief McKane directed officers to seize Colonel Bacon and take him to a cell, where he was locked up. Nearly all of the men who went down were assaulted in the most brutal manner.

Herbert S. Worthly, a young man who was among them, was struck a violent blow on the mouth. His face is swollen so that he is scarcely recognizable. Dr. Marshall had his whiskers torn off. Rev. Robert J. Kent, who was also one of the watchers, was knocked down and trampled upon, and is missing. Peter Rosenbeck is also missing. The other men got away after being brutally beaten.

Mr Grout was seized and thrown against the carriage and was severely hurt. Another one had his head cut. All of them have bruises of one kind or another. They were told by McKane to get out of the town as soon as possible. They were hustled and thrown out into the road, and were obliged to take their carriages and go back to Brooklyn. All of these men were volunteers. There were among them two doctors, one clergyman and three lawyers.

BENNETT APPEALED TO.

Tramway Strikers In Marseilles Want the American's Aid.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 7.—A committee from the Tramway company held a conference with the municipal authorities last evening. The committee hinted that the city government sympathized with the strikers and had provoked the riots to bring the company to terms. The municipal councilors used strong language in denying that they had exerted any influence up n the men. A violent quarrel ensued and the mayor left the room in a pet. The conference broke up without reaching any decision. The strikers have addressed an appeal to James Gordon Bennett, begging him to aid them as he once aided the Paris cabmen.

The mayor will prosecute M Beatmiche, director of the Tramway company, for having accused him slanderously of abetting the rioters. The strikers did much damage yesterday afternoon and evening. Fifty cars were partly destroyed, a great quantity of harness was cut and many horses have been crippled. A car driver who refused to strike was beaten severely and lies unconscious. Sixty-two strikers have been arrested. The men held a tumultuous meeting last evening. Violent speeches were cheered wildly, and the strikers resolved unanimously never to go back to work unless the company should concede their demands.

A LITERARY CURIOSITY.

Peculiar Document Filed In Pension Bureau by Georgia Physician.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The following literary curiosity, purporting to be a certificate of examination by a Georgia physician, was received at the pension bureau yesterday morning:

"I treated him in his last illnes and his deth woz cased bi thee deazes been drown a pension four sum time. He deazed November 1 a nobel man whu luved thee Onion chused to pas awa frum pine and sorer and has gorn to whear thee wiked cees frum trublin and the weecrey are at wiest."

LOVING LETTERS.

Boston Physician Mixed Up In an Actress' Divorce Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The younger of the two Blaucke sisters, now playing in Sol Smith Russell's "A Poor Relation" company at Daly's theater, is defendant to a suit for absolute divorce brought by her husband, James Francis Neil, an actor.

The case was tried before Justice Ingraham, in the supreme court, yesterday. The defendant, who, by the way, did not defend, is known on the stage as Nannan Blaucke. Her real name is Annie Helen Neil.

The co-respondent in the case is Dr. D. Forest W. Chase, said to be a son of Dr. Horace Chase of Boston.

Mrs. Wilson, sister of the defendant, identified a lot of letters said to have been sent by Dr. Chase to her sister. These letters were very loving in tone and be in with "My own Darling Nanna," or "My own Darling Nan."

One of these epistles reads as follows: "Dear Little Girl—I wonder what I would not give if I could only see you a moment tonight. O, darling, I love you so much, little woman, I do not feel like doing anything but while the time away that will bring you back to me again."

The other letters were written in much the same strain. Several photographs of Miss Neil were he , one in her night gown and bare feet.

Justice Ingraham said these letters and photographs were all very well, but were no evidence of infidelity. He therefore gave the plaintiff another week to introduce more evidence.

DOWN IN BRAZIL.

Governments of England and France Declare They Will Be Neutral.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald's Rio dispatch says: President Peixoto has received word that the governments of England and France have informed the government of the United States that they will maintain positions of strict neutrality with regard to Brazilian affairs, and not interfere in any way with the progress of the revolution.

President Peixoto's recently promulgated decree regarding foreigners regulates their entrance upon Brazilian territory, their residence there, and their expulsion during the continuation of martial law in the republic. Beggars and vagrants and persons suffering from contagious diseases are prohibited from entering the country. Foreigners may be expelled who, by their individual acts or through the press, ignore or defy the law, incite to insurrection or civil war, stir up ill feeling against the authorities or instigate acts of violence which in any manner endanger the permanence of public tranquillity.

The same rule applies to those who instigate the commission of crimes against the freedom of labor, thus causing obstruction to public business and social affairs. The government may change the decree of expulsion to one of imprisonment if it sees fit.

STAGING GAVE WAY.

Three Men Fall Thirty Feet and One of Them Is Killed.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—A staging on which three painters were standing while painting the house 149 Marion street, East Boston, gave away at 11:45 o'clock this forenoon and the men were thrown a distance of 30 feet to the ground. They were: Charles Dickinson, 35 years of age, of 21 Dudley street; William Donovan, 21 New street; Robert Capelo, 166 Brooks street.

Dickinson received severe injuries, which caused his death about 15 minutes after the accident occurred. Donovan grasped a blind in the fall, and by clinging to that escaped serious injury. Capelo was but slightly injured. Donovan and Capelo were taken to their home. After Dickinson's body had been viewed by the medical examiner it was taken to his late home.

MADE GOOD HAULS.

Burglars Successfully Pull Houses In Framingham Centre.

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., Nov. 7.—Burglars entered the houses of Deacon George W. Bigelow and Dr E. H. Bigelow, on Pleasant street, Framingham Centre, at an early hour this morning. At the doctor's house they secured watches and valuable jewelry. They carried most of Mr. Bigelow's clothes into the kitchen, but failed to find his money, which was in a coat pocket.

At Deacon Bigelow's house the thieves secured a pocketbook belonging to George D. Bigelow, a Boston lawyer, and a watch and jewelry belonging to Miss Fanny Bigelow. Here the thieves were frightened away by the inmates.

HORNBLOWER'S CASE.

President May Not Reappoint Him—The Hawaiian Question.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Your correspondent asked a prominent Democratic orator, who is a close friend of President Cleveland, whether he would reappoint Judge Hornblower as associate justice. He replied that he did not think the president would. The refusal of the senate to act in his case was paramount to rejection therefore, the senator could not see how President Cleveland could conscientiously reappoint him.

WILLIAM B. HORNBLOWER.

Judge Hornblower's friends, however, insist that he shall be reappointed. They assert that he is eminently qualified for the position, and that the non-action of the Democratic members of the senate judiciary was solely on account of Hornblower's politics, he being an anti snapper and still in full sympathy with that organization.

The representatives of the Hawaiian provisional government here are very much discouraged on account of the delay on the part of President Cleveland in the Hawaiian affairs. One of the main troubles that confront the president now is that the condition of affairs on the island does not correspond with the representations made by Commissioner Blount.

That gentleman assured the president that the provisional government did not represent the respectable people on the island. Reliable information, however, is in possession of the government here which completely refutes that submitted by Blount. The action of the president through the secretary of the navy, in relieving Admiral Skerritt from his command there, who was on excellent terms with the members of the provisional government, is looked upon as being unfriendly to that government.

PRESIDENT CONCERNED.

Wants Democratic Victory In New York and All Along the Line.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Secretary Lamont who arrived from Washington last night registered from the Victoria hotel, and voted early this morning. He told friends last night that he would vote the straight Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

It was ascertained further from Secretary Lamont that President Cleveland is much concerned over the result today and that in a conversation with Speaker Crisp and others in Washington, on Friday last he expressed an earnest hope for a Democratic victory all along the line.

Quality, Not Quantity.

THE SIZE Of a newspaper is no guarantee of its excellence. The public wants quality, not quantity, in a newspaper. OUR REPRESENTATIVE.

WHO WILL REPRESENT LOWELL UNDER THE GOLDEN DOME.

Sketches of the Political Careers of the Representatives From the Several Wards —Owen M. Donohoe and F. S. Bennett the New Men.

Representative Daniel J. Murphy of the 21st district, who has been reelected to the General court, was born in County Cork, Ireland, Sept. 15, 1843 He received his education in the schools of his native country and came to this city in 1867. He was employed successively by the Lowell Foundry and the Locks & Canals company and afterwards opened a grocery store at the corner of Broadway and Suffolk street. He was a member of the common council in '83, '84, '87 and '88, and while a member of this body he was noted for his keen foresight and the excellent judgment he displayed in all matters pertaining to the interest of his constituents. This year he made an excellent record in the legislature, and was particularly interested in all labor measures. Mr. Murphy has a strong hold upon the people of his ward as was shown by the large vote he has always received whenever he declared himself a candidate for the suffrages of the people. This year Mr. Murphy will serve the interests of his constituents in a praiseworthy manner, as he has done in the past.

The 25th. District.

Philip J. Farley Esq., who was re-elected yesterday to represent the 25th district in the great and general court is a native of this city, having been born in that section of the city, known as Belvidere in 1864. He is a graduate of the Moody and Lowell High schools, and was chosen to deliver the salutatory address when he graduated from the latter institution in 1880. Again in 1884 he was called upon to deliver the salutatory address as a member of the graduating class of 1884 Upon receiving his degree from Boston College, Mr. Farley entered Boston Law school and also studied in the office of Thomas Flatly of Boston. In 1888 he began to practice his profession in this city and has met with the greatest success in the pursuit of it.

Mr. Farley has also acquired a reputation as an orator and for several years was pressed into service in different parts of the state by the Democratic State committee.

He, at present, occupies the position of chairman of the democratic city committee and has proven an excellent leader, his timely counsel aiding much in steering the cause of democracy in the proper channel. The democrats of the 25th. district do well in entrusting their interests to such a bright young man and they may rest assured that Mr. Farley's action as a member of the house will give them no cause to regret the choice they have made.

The 23d District.

Owen M. Donohue, Ward Three's representative to the general court for next year is a native of Lowell and is the son of the late James Donohue, one of Lowell's most prosperous business men, and the brother of ex-Alderman Peter H. Donohue. He is 32 years of age. He received his education in the public schools of the city, graduating from them with honors. For the past fifteen years has been engaged in business meeting with great success

In 1878 Mr. Donohue entered the field of politics and was elected to the common council from Ward Three. During his term he proved himself to be a straightforward democrat and was in 1889 re-elected to the council by a fine majority.

In 1890 he gained the nomination and was elected to the legislature and during his term there was ever to be found working in the interests of democracy and the laboring classes although his friends wished him to continue in politics he retired for a few years and when this fall he announced his intention of again seeking the seat in the legislature he received the nomination without much effort and as may be seen was elected.

In private life Mr. Donohue is very popular and has a host of friends, being possessed of the disposition and quality essential to win friends. He is a member of the Hibernians, Foresters and several other social and political clubs.

Total Gifts of Nearly $250,000.

MIDDLEBURY, Vt., Nov. 7.—Charles J Starr, who died in New York last Thursday, bequeathed $150,000 to the institution. Last year he had handed the college treasurer a check for $60,000, and before that he had given liberally, so that his total gifts have not been far from $250,000.

Attleboro Fair a Success.

NORTH ATTLEBORO, Mass., Nov. 7.—Reports made at the annual meeting of the Attleboro Agricultural association showed that the annual fair last month was a success and cleared $1100. It was voted to hold the next fair Oct. 2, 3 and 4, 1894, and have one day set apart for firemen's contests.

Burned to Death.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Martha Wainwright, 40 years of age, was burned to death in her tenement, at 9 Gilman street, this morning. She was alive at the time, and is supposed to have dropped her lamp. She was suffocated and her body was fearfully burned.

SOME POLICE NEWS.

How the Day Was Passed by the Blue Coats.

The election passed off quietly in police circles.

Two repeaters, presumably republicans, were arrested in precinct two of Ward Six, where they had attempted to vote more than once.

They gave their names as Daniel Shea and Thomas F. Burns, both of this city.

Burns is said to have voted on his own name and on that of his brother.

Shea is supposed to have voted on the name of a man who was buried but a day or two since.

Both will be arraigned in the police court, charged with illegal voting.

Yesterday afternoon the employes of the Bon Marche noticed a woman making trips to and from the store and acting in a suspicious manner. They notified the police and Inspectors Laflamme and Allen went to the store and watched the woman.

Outside the store she had left a baby carriage in which was a small child. She was accompanied by two other children who walked by her side.

The officers found that her scheme was to go into the store and put some article of dry goods under her shawl and bringing it out deposit it in the baby carriage.

When the officers arrested her she had a number of pairs of stockings in her possession.

It was a pitable sight to see the poor woman leading her children to the police station in company with the inspectors while the little ones trotted gleefully along, not realizing their mother's unfortunate position.

At the police station the woman gave her name as Margaret H. Horne, and upon her were found 15 pairs of stockings, a dozen or more undershirts, a child's hood and some other small articles.

Mrs. Horne has never been arrested before, and has many friends to testify to her previous good character. It is thought by them that the woman through the results of hard times was driven to the act.

She was booked for shoplifting, and was bailed out.

The arrests for drunkenness yesterday were very few, and showed that the day was remarkably dry.

ALLEGED REPEATERS CAUGHT.

THREE MEN TAKEN INTO CUSTODY FROM WARD SIX.

Alleged Voting on the Name of a Man Who Has Just Been Laid Away in the Cemetery—Two Men Belong in Lowell.

Dennis Shea, aged 27 years years, and Thomas Burns, aged 25 years, were arrested yesterday afternoon for alleged repeating.

Shea says that he resides on Fenwick street, but it is said that he is here today and in Boston tomorow, spending his time between the two cities. It is true, however, that his parents reside on Fenwick street in this city. Burns lives with his folks on Fayette street.

It was a fooolish piece of business on the part of these men, if the story is true to attempt to vote on the names of the men they did, inasmuch as the men whose nam were given were very well known throout Ward Six, and the repeaters themselves were well known to the police, and the election officers.

Burns made his appearance in the polling booth on East Merrimack street at 8.30 yesterday morning and gave his name as Bernard Burns, 59 High street. The precinct officers doubted if this was his name, but allowed him to pass. Sometime after the proper Bernard Burns came along and attempted to vote, but found that his name had been voted upon. He insisted that he had not voted and then the precinct officers began to see that their suspicions in the case of Burns No. 1 were well grounded. Bernard Burns was not allowed to vote. Had Thomas contented himself with one vote he would have been all right, but he made a second visit to the polling booth and voted upon his own name. Nothing was said to him by the warden, and he was allowed to depart. After he went, however, a controversy arose between the precinct officers and Officer Lennon, the former alleging that the latter was at fault in allowing Burns to depart, whereas in reality the warden was to blame. Officer Lennon, however, caught Burns later in the day over on Fayette street. Burns run into a house but the officer followed him and captured him. Burns is a brother to the man on whose name he attempted to vote.

Shea was caught in the High street precinct. The police officers over there knew him well, when he came up and gave the name of Matthew Mulvaney, 37 Concord street. Now it happens that Mr. Mulvaney died last Sunday at his residence and was buried yesterday morning. There was no better known man in the ward than the late Mr. Mulvaney and it is no wonder that the man who attempted to vote on his name was caught.

Triple Tragedy at Halifax.

HALIFAX, Nov. 7.—Richard Savage came here from New York last evening, and this morning visited his wife, whom he had left some months ago, and shot her and her 3-year-old daughter and then himself. The child is dead and the others cannot recover.

Burlington Grocer Assigns.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Nov. 7.—Henry W. Simonds, groceries, of this city, has made a voluntary assignment. Liabilities, about $11 600; assets, $6000 to $7000.

Alix Starts For Boston.

Cheap Railroad Rates.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The new passenger rates made by the Canadian Pacific, applying in both directions between the Atlantic seaboard and San Francisco, went into effect yesterday. The first-class rates between San Francisco and Chicago are $40.40; St Paul and Minneapolis, $30; New York, $49; Toronto, $40.80; and Boston, $50.50.

BOSTON MARKET

Recent Cold Snap Had Perceptible Effect..

FIRMER TONE, BUT RECEIPTS ARE LESSENED.

Very Good in Some Lines of Business.

BOSTON, Nov. 7 —Almost every line of Boston's produce market has been more or less affected by the recent cold snap. A long continued open fall, with scarcely any killing frosts has enabled the farmer to come to market with his products without fear of neglecting farm work These conditions overstocked the market and prices were consequently lower The late changes in the weather conditions have obliged the farmer to devote his immediate attention to protecting what crops are still in the fields, and consequently there has been a falling off of receipts at Boston and a firmer tone must be noted.

Dealers in the common varieties of vegetables report a good trade, but in the fancy lines where the greater profits are made, business does not seem as active as usual. Perhaps the wealthy are not spending so much money on the vegetable as is customary, owing to the hard financial times they are experiencing.

Some prices for the fine varieties of vegetables are: Cucumbers, $6 to $6.50 a hundred; cauliflower, $6 to $7 a box; green beans of native growth, $2.50 to $3 per box lettuce, 15 to 20 cents per dozen; radishes, 75 cents per dozen bunches; sprouts, $4 to $4.50 a box; green peppers, 75 cents to $1 bushel; wate cress, 30 to 35 cents a dozen bunches; egg plant, $1 50 to $2 a dozen Boston market celery, $4 to $5 a box, other varieties, $1 75 to $2 per box; mushrooms $1 to $1.25 per pound; and oyster plant, 75 cents a dozen bunches.

Some prices for the staple winter vegetables are Hubbard squash $30 per ton Turban $15 to $20 in same quantity; ripe tomatoes range from $1 50 to $3 50 for the few that remain; green tomatoes are worth from 65 to 75 cents per bushel pumpkins sell but poorly at $1 a barrel carrots bring 40 cents per box; onions $1.75 to $2 in barrels; beets, 40 to 50 cents a bushel; cabbage, 60 to 75 cents a barrel rutabaga turnips, 60 to 75 cents a barrel smooth flat turnips, 20 to 40 cents a bushel, and spinach goes at 15 cents per bushel.

The Potato Trade

reports large receipts and a firmer feeling The cold weather has put an end to fear of rot, and growers are ready to send the stock, confident of its arrival in good condition. Fine Aroostook hebrons are higher this week, 65 and 70 cents a bushel being the prevailing quotation New York and Vermont white stock bring 58 to 60 cents.

The Fruit Market

remains about the same as last week. Traders in apples are not doing their usual business on account of the short crop, and prices are naturally high. Good Baldwins are now quoted at $2 50 to $3 a barrel; greenings about the same, and Hubbardstons, $2 50. The Nova Scotia graven steins, which were in such great favor a short while ago, are falling off in quality as the season advances, and this week bring hardly more than $3 50 a barrel.

The Cranberry Trade

continues to be very unsatisfactory. It is reported that a great portion of the crop is being held back waiting for better prices. When the holiday poultry trade begins it is hoped that cranberries will take a new start. From $4 to $4.25 a barrell is about all good cranberries will bring at the present time. Pears are doing well. Boxes bring $4 for the best, and Anjous and Sheldons $2 to $3. Grapes are very plenty. In five-pound baskets, Concords bring 11 to 13 cents; Catawbas, 11 to 13 cents; Niagaras, 14 to 15 cents; Delawares, 18 to 20 cents; and Salems, 15 cents.

Butter.

Prices in the butter market are: Fresh western stock, 27 1-2 to 28 cents; northern creamery, 28 cents; dairy lots from Vermont, 23 to 25 cents; cold stored stock, 26 to 27 cents.

The Quotations.

HAY—Hay is fairly firm, with the market at quotations as previously noted. Straw is quiet and steady, with rye straw at $13 50@14 Bran is firm, with a good trade, for the reason that the close of navigation is soon expected and everybody is pressing for the shipment of bran. Sack spring, to arrive, $16 25; sack winter, $17 75@18; sack spring middlings $17 25; sack winter, $1950.

BEEF—The beef market is pretty firm, with the quotations as: Choice fancy steers, 8¼@9c prime, 7½@8¼c; good, 7@7½c; light, 5@6½c extra heavy hinds, 12½@10c; good, 9@10c; light 7@8c; heavy fores, 5¼@6½c; light, 4@4½c backs, 5@7½c; rattles, 4¼@5½c; chucks, 4@6c rounds, 5@8c; rumps, 8@10c; rumps and loins 9@17c; short ribs, 7½@17½ loins, 8@19c.

MUTTONS AND LAMBS—The mutton market continues quiet, with the full supply. Choice to fancy lambs, 7@7½c; common to good, 6@6½c; poor and ordinary, 4@5c; Brightons, 7½@8c; yearlings, 6@7c; muttons, 6@6½c; poor to 4@5c; choice heavy Brightons, 7@7½c; choice eastern veals, 9@10½c; common to good, 5@7c Brightons and fancy, 10@11c.

POULTRY—Some dry packed northern and western turkeys are being received, but in small quantities. They are selling at 15@20c as to quality. The market is quoted at Northern turkeys, 15@20c; chickens, 15@18c western chickens, 8@10½c; fowls, 7@10c western iced turkeys, 12@14c; live fowls, 13c chickens, 9½@12c.

MEAL—Cornmeal is quiet, with the market steady. Oatmeal is fairly active: Kiln dried cornmeal for export, $2 20 per bbl: bag meal 98c@$1; yellow granulated, $2 85@3; ground and rolled oatmeal. $4 50@4 65 per bbl; cut oat meal, $4 75@4 90 per bbl; rye, 65@67c per bushel for dealers, and at 70c for job lots; rye flour $3 50@4 per bbl.

CORN—Corn is a shade easier, on corn to arrive, with Chicago No. 2 yellow at 51c, and with No. 3 yellow at 50¼c. New high mixed is quoted at 48½c. But the spot market is fairly firm, with the offerings not very heavy: No 2 yellow, 51c; steamer yellow, 50¾@51c; steamer mixed, 49¼@50c.

POTATOES—Potatoes are firm, with a good demand: Houlton and Aroostook hebrons, 70@75c: Houlton and Aroostook rose, 63@65; New York stars and burbanks, 60@65c; Virginia cloth heads, extras, $1 75; Jersey bulk, $1 75@1 87½c; double heads, $2 25@2 50.

OATS—Oats are fairly firm, with Chicago clipped, to arrive, quoted at 38¼c, and with fancy at 39c. The spot market is dull, with the quotations at: Clipped, 38@38¼c; fancy, 39c; No. 2 white, 37¾c; No. 3 white, 36½@37c mixed, 36@37c.

CHEESE—Cheese is very steady, with the market at; Northern full creams and twins 11½@12½c; fair to good, 9@10½c; western choice, 10@11½c: fair to good, 8@9c; sage, 13@13½c. Liverpool is quoted at 55s.

Got $17,000 by Forgery.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—A. F. B. Crofton alias C. S. Butler, is charged with forging a number of drafts on the Bank of Montreal at Toronto, one of which, for $17,000, was presented at the First National bank, Chicago. The money was turned over to Butler, who left this city. Later the forgery was discovered and Butler was arrested in Texas.

BREAK FOR LIBERTY.

Two Lowell Boys Escape From Deer Island To-Day.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

BOSTON, Nov. 7. The temporary bridge across Shirley from Winthrop to Deer Island and erected for use while the sewer is being laid, this morning, proved to be an avenue of escape for two boys who were serving time at the island.

Their names are Orlo Vanvolkingberg and Harry Holt. They are 15 and 16 years of age.

Both boys belong in Lowell, but ran away from their homes in that city some 6 months ago.

On Oct. 26 last they were arrested in this city while they were in the act of picking pockets on Winter street.

Inspector Knox was surprised to find how cleverly they worked, and investigation showed that they had been operating at the fairs that had been held in the adjoining suburbs during the summer and fall.

The boys were convicted in court and were delegated to spend their time until their majority was reached at the house of reformation on the island.

Hadly had they begun their work this morning before they slowly edged away from the others toward the bridge, and then breaking into a run made their escape over the bridge.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Drunken Man Kills His Wife, Her Cousin and Himself.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

ELYRIA, O., Nov. 7. Charles Manning last night shot and killed his wife and her cousin, Mrs. W. R. White, and then killed himself.

Manning had been sued for divorce, and was drunk at the time of the crime. The deed was premeditated, as he left a card for publication.

IN SERIOUS PREDICAMENT.

Princeton Students Indicted by the Grand Jury.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

TRENTON, Nov. 7. The Princeton students, who recently hazed Robert T. Leopold of Washington, were indicted yesterday, and they will have to stand trial here.

The hazers, who were all members of the sophomore class are David F. Edwards of Jersey City, Wm. H. Fulper of Flemington, N. J; Anselm E. Scaff of New York city; Micajah W. Pope of Annapolis, Md; Harry M. Anderson of Charlestown, S. C; Gordon Johnson of Birmingham, Ala., and Herbert M. Fitzgerald.

They are indicted for assault and battery. Prosecutor Stockton will communicate with them by mail, and if they fail to respond bench warrants will be issued.

Canadian Pacific's New Rates.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7—The new passenger rates made by the Canadian Pacific, applying in both directions between the Atlantic seaboard and San Francisco, went into effect yesterday. The first class rates between San Francisco and Chicago are $40.50; St. Paul and Minneapolis, $30; New York, $49; Toronto, $40.80 and Boston, $50.50.

Many "Seals" Lost Their Skins.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

VICTORIA, Nov. 7.—The statement of the North Pacific sealing catch placing the total at 120,241 is not complete. Instead of 2748 skins, San Francisco took 20,000 skins, but landed nearly all at Hakodate, Yokohama. The exact figures are not known, but it is believed the total will be in the neighborhood of 145,000 skins.

Voting in New York.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6. The election is going along quietly and the indications are those of the usual democratic majority.

MR. LENTHIER'S NAME.

Again Used in a Long Despatch to Hurt His Chances.

Below is given a Washington despatch to the Advertiser relating to Consul Lenthier: Josiah Quincy has got Mr. Cleveland to send to the senate again the name of Benjamin Lenthier, whom he tried so hard to put into the consular berth at Sherbrooke, Quebec. The senate has adjourned without confirming Lenthier, but he is put in for the interval, at any rate. Early last spring, Lenthier's name was sent to the senate and the Lowell man straightway began making preparations for consular service in Canada. But the senate refused to confirm him. It was one of Mr. Quincy's own appointments and the power of the administration was brought to bear upon the side of confirmation. But even then the senate refused to confirm Mr. Quincy's man.

"After the senate adjourned, Mr. Cleveland was prevailed upon by Mr. Quincy to send in Lenthier's name again, and the Lowell editor was given a commission to commence his consular duties until the senate met again. The senate met again, and has been in session three months, but Mr. Lenthier was not confirmed. It is understood that his name cannot be favorably reported upon nor can his nomination receive confirmation at the hands of the senate.

"Now that the senate has adjourned, Lenthier's name is promptly sent in again, as if the president wished him to act as consul.

"It will be interesting to see how long Mr. Quincy can get Mr. Cleveland to uphold his political friend Lenthier in the face of a determined and successful opposition in the senate."

A Point on Winter Cloaks.

When a woman goes to a store for Hair Pins she does not care to see a great assortment of hair pins are but hair pins. But when she wants a cloak it is different. She wants the largest possible assortment to choose from. There is some one in a large lot that suits her better than all the rest and that one garment is the one she wants. It follows that a woman can make the best choice where the largest variety and latest designs are shown and that is at the Beaver Cloak Co.'s new store in the P. O. block. Ladies, misses', and children's garments of all kinds and prices way down.

THE LATEST FIGURES.

Which Show the Plurality of Greenhalge Over Russell.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

BOSTON, Nov. 8. The complete returns show that Hon. F. T. Greenhalge received 186,008 votes; Russell, 153,506; Banks, 5,058; a plurality for Greenhalge of 32,353.

SOME COMPETENT OPINIONS.

Ex-Mayor Palmer of Lowell.—I have always held that the personal magnetism of Mr. Greenhalge would be a powerful factor and have believed that he would be the choice of the people whenever placed before them as a candidate for governor. The result is even better than I expected.

For the first time in the history of the commonwealth of Massachusetts a man of foreign birth was elected governor yesterday. The fact that Mr. Greenhalge was born in England does not seem to have worked to his disadvantage.—Herald.

In an interview, Mr. Greenhalge says: I venture to predict that democratic rule is broken in this state for many years to come.

"The result is a fitting rebuke to democratic tariff principles, the mere threat of whose enforcement has brought such distress to our workingmen and paralysis to business. In my opinion the voice of this state will have much weight with the tariff framers in the next congress.

"The weak-kneed policy of the democratic majority at Washington in regard to silver and money had its influence, too, in yesterday's voting. The people endorsed the policy that made repeal possible. I may say in conclusion that the democratic attempts to bring personal issues to bear in this campaign failed utterly."

HYMENEAL.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Mrs. Louisa Calef, at 154 Merrimack street, last evening. Her daughter, Charlotte Louisa, was married to Mr. Edward Harvey Loverin of Buffalo, Rev. Dr. Gordon performing the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Sarah, as maid of honor, and Miss May Calef, Miss Agnes and Miss Swan, bridesmaids. The bride was gowned in white satin and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The maid of honor wore a yellow silk gown and the bridesmaids white crepe de chine. The groomsman was Mr. Horace Reed of Buffalo. The room was a chrysanthemum wedding, yellow and white prevailing. The American orchestra played the marches from Tannhauser and Lohengrin.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Loverin of Tilton, N. H., assisted in receiving. The ushers were Mr. J. B. Keyes, Mr. Arthur Prince and Mr. W. G. Preston of Buffalo. Mr. and Mrs. Loverin will live in Buffalo.

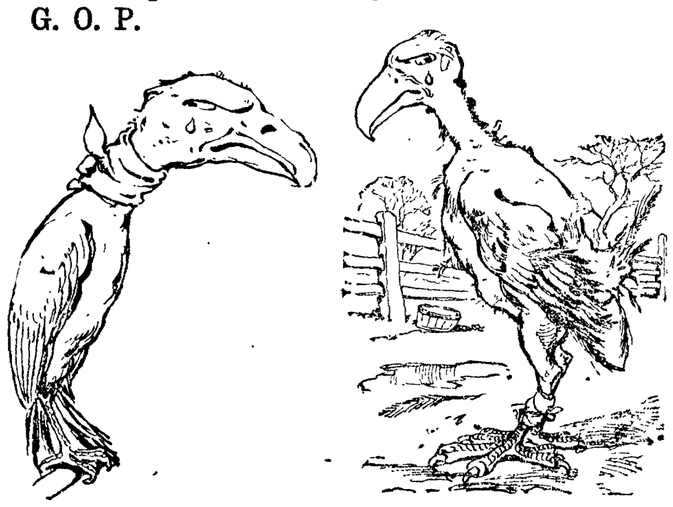
IT WILL BE GOV. GREENHALGE.

His Plurality Will Reach Old Time Figures.

Democratic Party Fought Nobly, But the Calamity Shouters Had Thoroughly Frightened the People into Voting the Ticket of the G. O. P.



Some Cold Facts Which Make Our Birds Feel Sad and Weary.

The election is over and the democratic party has been routed rank and file. From all sides and all cities north, east and west come the stories of a republican victory which is startling in its immensity.

Wise ones will say that it was an "off year" and accordingly a republican year, but the hard pan fact is that the calamity shouters succeeded in frightening the people to such an extent that they thought the country was going to the proverbial "bow wows." It looks almost like a stampede from the democratic banner in New York, and for a reason only time will develop.

To put into a few words the facts concerning the election—and facts which are hard for democratic digestion—is to say that the inflated reports as brought in by the wire show that the republicans have fairly swept New York, Iowa, Ohio and New Jersey.

And as for Massachusetts, Hon. F. T. Greenhalge will be the next governor, sweeping the state by a plurality, which, while only imperfectly completed yet will exceed 21,000.

Nearly all the cities and towns near Lowell have been heard from and the way the small majorities for Mr. Greenhalge came in makes the reading somewhat monotonous for the democrats.

For instance take Dracut which gave last year Russell 182; Haile, 109; this year gives Greenhalge, 224; Russell, 153.

Billerica—Greenhalge, 327; Russell, 148; Below is given a table of the larger towns and cities and those of greatest interest to Lowell readers:

One of the big surprises of the evening was the figures from Leicester, John E. Russell's home. Greenhalge carrying it by 346 to 268, while last year Haile beat W. E. Russell by only 13 votes, 321 to 308.

At midnight 280 cities and towns reported a net democratic loss of 17,360. Three minutes later 300 cities and towns reported a net loss to the democrats of 18,000, and it was predicted in Boston that Greenhalge would have a plurality exceeding 20,000.

The Prohibition vote did not differ materially from last year's figures, but the Popup'ists managed to increase their total 100 per cent. The Socialist-Labor vote was insignificant.

Hon. John E. Russell retired early in the evening on hearing the news, and declined to be interviewed on the result. He refused all cards.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8—Returns indicate the election of Republican senators, 18; Democrat senators, 14; Republican assemblymen, 74; Democratic assemblymen, 54; Republican majority in senate, 4; in house, 20; on joint ballot, 24.

One of the most peculiar campaigns in the history of the state was closed at sundown last evening, and it is safe to say that the Democratic managers are not more surprised at the result than are the Republicans. The dominant issue in all portions of the state has been ring rule, and the Republicans in New York city, Brooklyn, Albany and Buffalo have been greatly assisted by the organized efforts of independent Democrats.

Isaac H. Maynard, the candidate on the Democratic ticket for judge of the court of appeals, against whom the independent Democrats have waged most bitter and unrelenting war, has been surprisingly and overwhelmingly defeated. In New York city he ran 35,000 behind his ticket, in Brooklyn over 18,000 and in Erie county several thousands. Almost without exception the returns from every part of the state show that he was heavily scratched; even 10 of "Boss" McKane's retainers at Coney Island scratched him.

The result seems to be that he has been defeated by a plurality close in the neighborhood of 100,000. Practically complete returns from many of the counties of the state and scattering returns from the others indicate that the Republicans have elected their entire state ticket and that they will have a good working majority in the next legislature.

In Brooklyn the local campaign was fought most bitterly. Mayor Boody, who was renominated by the Democrats, was opposed by the Young Men's Independent Democratic club in Brooklyn most fiercely. Candidate Schieren was endorsed with the result that the Democratic majority of 29,000 at the last election has absolutely overturned and a Republican mayor elected by about 15,000.

William J. Gaynor, the prominent Democrat who for the past two years has led in the fight against Boss McLaughlin and his wing, was nominated by the Republicans for supreme court judge in the Second district, with the result of a 20,000 majority in his favor.

The local contest in New York city was very uninteresting, the Republicans making but small effort in behalf of their local ticket. The complete returns for the city show the election of the entire Tammany ticket by majorities ranging between 67,000 and 68,000.

IOWA.

DES MOINES, Nov. 8.—The election in this state closed without any trouble or excitement so far as heard from at either headquarters. Chairman Blythe of the Republican and Chairman Fuller of the Democratic committee are both here. Both Republican and Democratic losses are shown, but the latter is in larger ratio than the former. Jackson (Rep.) has defeated Boies (Dem.) by about 30,000.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

YANKTON, S. D., Nov. 8.—Information received here from the headquarters of the Republican and Democratic central committees assure the election of all Republican candidates for judgeships upon the Republican ticket. The vote cast will be about one-half, or 40,000, of which the Republican candidates will receive 65 per cent. Actual figures will not be available until tonight.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—The latest figures indicate that Governor McKinley's majority over Neal will be, at the lowest estimate, 60,000. The Republicans held jollification meetings here last night in honor of their great victory. Headquarters were turned into pandemonium, and red fire burned with all its usual accompaniments. In a speech here Doliver eulogized McKinley as the man of destiny. Morrison said they had elected McKinley governor and had nominated him for president. Kemple said that Ohio had recorded herself for protection and the champion of protection, and West Virginia would fall in with her. Bonfires and cannon followed the speaking.

KANSAS.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 8.—Meager returns from Kansas indicate a great falling off in the Populist vote. Cherokee county, which gave 1700 majority for the Populists in 1892, and Sumner county, another Populist stronghold, have been carried by the Republicans. Crowley county, in which the vote was very close in 1892, also has gone Republican.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, Nov. 8.—Returns from the state are coming in slowly. The scattering vote indicates Republican losses on the head of the ticket and Populist gains. The battle between Harris (Rep.) and Holcomb (Pop.) will be very close. The result in this county will determine the outcome in the state, and the vote here will not be counted before this afternoon.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 8.—Advices from the state at large indicate that the usual Democratic majority in the legislature will be slightly increased. In western Kentucky, where the Populists were strongest last year, the Democrats have made gains. The election passed off quietly.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Nov. 8.—O'Ferrall's majority will probably reach 40,000, according to the ratio of Democratic gains on the remainder of the ticket. There is no doubt that Democrats have carried at least 20 out of the 25 senators and have elected eight of the 10 of the house of delegates.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, Nov. 8.—The contest between Griffin (Dem.) and Stone (Rep.) for congress in the First district, as successor to the late J. Logan Chipman, is very close. Fifty-six out of 95 precincts give Griffin 6892; Stone, 9552.

NEW JERSEY.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 8.—The Republicans will surely have a majority in the legislature. Last year the Democrats had a two-thirds majority in the house.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—The Democrats have carried the election in this state by about 20,000.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—The Republicans have carried the state by 75,000 majority.

Quarter of a Mile In 26 2-5s.

HARTFORD, Nov. 8.—The Banker brothers on a tandem broke the record for the quarter-mile flying start, doing it in 26 2-5s. The previous record was held by McDuffie and Clark, 27s. flat, made at Springfield, Mass.

He Left the Window Open.

Triple Tragedy at Halifax.

HALIFAX, Nov. 7.—Richard Savage came here from New York last evening, and this morning visited his wife, whom he had left some months ago, and shot her and her 3-year-old daughter and then himself. The child is dead and the others cannot recover.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Tenney gives the entertainment at the Women's branch of the People's club, Saturday evening.

They Kept Open House.

The Yorick club held "open house" all last night. The members were out in force and a gay time was had at the rooms of the club in Mansur block. Returns were received from all over the state and the club was also in communication with the republican state committee in Boston. When it became apparent that Greenhalge was elected, the affair took the form of a jollification meeting.

This continued during the whole evening and the members celebrated Governor Elect Greenhalge's victory in grand style.

CLEVER CATCH

GREAT HAUL OF BOOTY IN THE FORM OF VALUABLES.

Men Hail From Different Cities of the East.

Over in Inspectors Laflamme and Allen's office at the police station there is sufficient jewelry to carry on a first class jewelry store.

It is a haul made by the two inspectors about 11.30 this morning, and the capture they made is from all indications an important one. At 9.30 this morning Arthur Staples of the firm of Staples Bros. sent word to the police station that one of his hired men, upon entering his barn on School street this morning found three colored silk scarfs, a fine pair of field glasses and a guitar.

Inspectors Laflamme and Allen went up to Mr. Staples' place, and after taking a view of the surroundings decided and see if any one would turn up and claim the goods. Of course, from the time the inspectors heard of the discovery in the barn, they made up their minds that the booty belonged to some parties who had slept in the barn during the night and had placed the goods there, supposing the barn to be a good hiding place, until they could return and take the articles along with them. At any rate the inspectors were not far off in the judgment, for they had scarcely taking a view of the surroundings when they saw two fellows walking toward the barn. They watched them to see what they might do The fellows walked along, little thinking, what awaited them. Suddenly one of them caught sight of the inspectors and the two started to run with the inspectors in pursuit. The inspectors watched where their men went and tracked them to the red bridge down back of the Lamson store service company's works. They saw them go along down toward the bridge, and join six more men. Laflamme and Allen then took a roundabout course and coming upon the men from an unsuspected passageway, succeeded in capturing three of them.

These three men were taken to the police station, and the others escaped for the time being, but among the number the inspectors recognized one of the men whom they had seen coming towards the barn.

When the captured men were safely landed at the police station a search was begun for the remainder of the crowd. The two inspectors followed the Stony Brook tracks which cross over the red bridge and run through Middlesex village. On the way Officer Buchanan joined in the hunt, and when the party reached Middlesex village they saw their quarry. The much wanted men were walking along the tracks just as the officers thought they would be. Before they knew it the officers were on top of them and had four of them securely handcuffed, and started with them to the nearest signal box. The fifth man escaped. At the station the men were booked as follows: James Hines, Providence, R. I., Thomas Clarke, Springfield, Mass., James Burke, residence unknown, Henry W. Byrnes, Chicago, Timothy McCarthy, Fenwick street, Lowell, Patrick Cassidy, Providence, R. I. Their ages vary from 17 to 30 years. McCarthy claims that he knows nothing about the crowd, but simply met them and went with them.

was found on their persons.

Hines, who was one of the first brought in, had a cameo pin, solid gold hair pin, several bunches of keys, containing about 40 keys, several stub tickets on the Boston & Maine road, pair of ladies' garters, two pairs of spectacles, two butterfly pins set with rubies and sapphires, large pin set with brilliants and opal, gold scarf pin, silver cross with ruby settings, a bug pin, with body set with about 30 brilliants, pair of tweezers, candles, box of cartridges, alarm clock.

In Clarke's pockets were found a chaste ring marked "Edward to Flora," amethyst ring with flower leaf setting, one marked "P," gold ring marked "E. to F., Dec. 25, 1881," gold bracelet, alarm clock, brass key, marked "Palace, 1889," two revolvers knife, souvenir spoon, from Kiko House, Moosehead Lake, Me., and oxidized silver receptacle with gold lining, two small pieces of ivory.

Byrne had in his possession a lock of hair, comb and case, three bladed knife with pearl setting, watch with Columbus movement, razor marked "Byrnes," admission ticket to the World's Fair on Chicago day, fee card issued to D. Wilson, Buffalo Typographical union, No. 993, typewritten letter and a letter to Henry W. Byrnes, Syracuse, N. Y., enclosing a deed of a lot of land, from the W. J. Dolan estate of Syracuse, N. Y., pair of gaiters, books and small scraps of paper.

Some of the men wore two pairs of trousers.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The funeral of Mary M. Graham took place this afternoon from her late home, 58 Willie street and was largely attended. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

Total Gifts of Nearly $250,000.

MIDDLEBURY, Vt., Nov. 7.—Charles J Starr, who died in New York last Thursday, bequeathed $150,000 to the institution. Last year he had handed the college treasurer a check for $60,000, and before that he had given liberally, so that his total gifts have not been far from $250,000.

Attleboro Fair a Success.

NORTH ATTLEBORO, Mass., Nov. 7.—Reports made at the annual meeting of the Attleboro Agricultural association showed that the annual fair last month was a success and cleared $1100. It was voted to hold the next fair Oct. 2, 3 and 4, 1894, and have one day set apart for firemen's contests.

Burned to Death.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Martha Wainwright, 40 years of age, was burned to death in her tenement, at 9 Gilman street, this morning. She was alive at the time, and is supposed to have dropped the lamp. She was suffocated and her body was fearfully burned.

Le Cercle Canadien entertained friends during the evening and exulted over the election of Mr. Greenhalge.

BRADY TO BE OUR SENATOR.

The Single "Brand Plucked From the Burning."

The Glorious Victory That Revived the Drooping Spirts of Our Birds.

It will be Senator Peter J. Brady after January first. He laid Senator Frederick Lawton on the shelf, after a contest which was not determined by figures until the last precincts were in.

Yes, Brady won, and Greenhalge carried the city and state.

From the battle the democrats have only the following successful candidates:

Peter J. Brady, senator, with a majority of 158.

Daniel J. Murphy, representative, from Ward One, re-elected.

Owen M. Donohoe, representative, from Ward Three.

Philip J. Farley, representative, Ward Six, re-elected.

Here is what the republicans got:

Hon. F. T. Greenhalge carries Lowell by 441 votes. J. Stuart Murphy barely wins the representative fight in Ward Two; re-elected E. S. Foss, re-elected, F. S. Bennett of Tyngsboro, elected representatives in the 24th district, with Rep. W. H. I. Hayes in doubt as he was fearfully cut throughout the district.

In the balance of the ticket the republicans win as usual, although W. A. Read, dem., for county commissioner ran ahead of his ticket but not so strongly as anticipated. It looks as if the republicans voted nearly straight giving Brady the preference in cutting.

Last year Gov. Russell carried Lowell by 781; the upheaval is something terrible.

Below will be found the vote by wards and precincts for the entire city.

Hard For George.

Fond Mother — Here's a letter from George. He says he hasn't much time to write on account of the severe head work he is doing. Poor boy! I'm afraid he'll study himself to death before he gets through college.

This is George in the striped jersey doing some of the severe head work aforementioned.—Puck.

A Woman's Heart.

She (gently)—I am afraid I do not love you enough to be your wife, but I shall always be your friend and sincerely wish for your happiness.

He (moodily)—I know what I'll do.

She (anxiously)—You surely will not do yourself an injury?

He (calmly)—No, I will find happiness. I will marry some one else.

She—Horrors! Give me another day to consider, dear.—New York Weekly.

Villainous.

"John," said De Broet's wife, "I don't know what to do about the hired girl."

"Why don't you fire her?"

"I have, but I can't get rid of her."

"H'm. I'll attend to that tomorrow morning."

"How?"

"I'll get up early and show her how to light the fire with kerosene. Then we'll let nature take it's course."—Washington Star.

Not Prepared to Say.

"You're from Oklahoma, are you?" said the long whiskered passenger on his way to a Populist convention. "Well, what seems to be the situation out there?"

"I couldn't find any," replied the passenger with the frazzled trousers. And the conversation lagged.—Chicago Tribune.

The Strain Soon Over.

"Now, lady, look beautiful and happy," said a William street photographer to the young woman. "So. That's it. There, I have you. Now you may resume your natural expression."—Buffalo Courier.

The Five Great Powers.

Some one asked Prince G——, "Which are the great powers of Europe?"

He answered, straight off the reel, "England, Germany, France, Russia and woman."—Conteur du Vendois.

Good Advice.

Toper—What shall I take, doctor, to remove the redness of my nose?

Doctor—Take nothing—for three months!—Hallo.

Accomplishments.

"I can dress myself!" bragged Willie.

"And I," said Bobbie proudly, "I can wipe my own nose!"—Brooklyn Life.

At His Word.

A one eyed man with cork soled shoes was vociferously offering to sell 12 lead pencils for a nickel without appreciable effect upon the ebb and flow of trade.

A youth just budding into manhood with every indication of an arrested development turned to the maiden at his side and said:

"Miss Undergore, the least expected always happens."

To which she replied:

"Thank you, Mr. Letherhed. I will take ice cream soda with raspberry flavor, if you please."

There was a quaver in the voice of the one eyed party with the cork soled shoes.

KIDNEY TROUBLE AND Rheumatism Cured!!

Read the following wonderful statement from David K. Hill, Newburyport, Mass.

"I was taken with 'La Grippe' one year ago last February, and had been sick about two weeks when I began using and in four days after I began I had a good appetite and commenced gaining in flesh. In the month of December I weighed from 160 to 204 pounds. I was also troubled with rheumatism affecting my hips so that I would be unable to step at times, and I am happy to say, gentlemen, that I am entirely cured of the effects of 'La Grippe', Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism by the use of DANA'S SARSAPARILLA."

THE TEST RATE

Just What is Meant By $3 a Month.

Drs. Pearson and Carroll Have Extended the Offer of Last Month to Give the Public an Absolutely Fair Opportunity of Judging Between Them and Other Doctors—No Larger Fee Than $3 Per Month Will be accepted in Any Case Before Dec. 1.

Here is the proposition:

All patients applying during November will receive treatment and medicine for a full month of 30 days from date of application for the one fee of $3 and will be entitled to continue at this rate until cured. This applies to all old patients renewing as well as to new patients. It includes medicines and daily attention—everything necessary to a thorough course of treatment.

Dr. Pearson and his associates determined that the public should have an absolutely fair opportunity of judging between them and other doctors. Hence this liberal offer was made and has been maintained since the first of last month. During this time no patient has been permitted to pay more than $3 for a full month's treatment and medicines, no matter what the disease.

Let this one thing be fully understood. The offer is for a limited time only. It will apply to all who begin treatment before Dec. 1.

Dr. Pearson now extends to every man, woman and child in Lowell an opportunity to test for themselves the superiority of their skill. The newspaper columns have demonstrated the truth of what they say, and under the test rate the public will demonstrate the skill of what they do. The offer as printed above is so plain that no one can possibly misunderstand it. There is now not the least obstacle in the way of anyone, and Dr. Pearson feels that the renewal of the liberal test offer for another month will afford even a more general and more complete demonstration of the superiority of his work.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Drs. Pearson and Carroll will not move into their new offices tomorrow, the 9th, but will remain at their present location, 161 Central Street, until further notice. This change is necessary as the new building is not quite ready. Ample notice of the date of their removal will be given.

RESULTS THAT TELL.

There is No Uncertain Sound to Mr. Norcross' Testimony.

It is from people whom the community know, and know well, that comes this testimony as to the superiority of Dr. Pearson's work. It is from people that men and women of standing and self-respect may go and consult. Note the significance in the following interview from Mr. A. G. Norcross of 38 Stackpole street. Mr. Norcross is a prominent member of the G. A. R., and has a wide circle of friends in this city. It is the testimony of good men and worthy citizens that marks beyond question the character of this work that distinguishes it in its value to mankind.

A. G. NORCROSS, 38 Stackpole street.

It was no trifling or ordinary form of catarrhal trouble from which Mr. Norcross suffered. He says that the disease had extended to his throat, chest and stomach, and at last developed into bronchial catarrh with alarming symptoms. In speaking of his cure by Drs. Pearson and Carroll Mr. Norcross says: "I had been affected for 6 or 8 years and had spent a good deal of money for remedies and physicians, but had got no relief until I came to Drs. Pearson and Carroll. Under their skillful treatment I have steadily improved until now the alarming symptoms are all gone. My head is clear and free from obstruction. The troublesome cough has left me. I do not have those sharp pains or any tightness in my chest. I have a good appetite, rest well at night and feel stronger and better than I have for years. Drs. Pearson and Carroll have given me such wonderful relief that I am more than glad to have an opportunity of testifying to the skill of these physicians. I will verify in person every word I say in print."

To All Whom It May Concern.
There are undoubtedly many people who feel at some time or another unwell, not really sick but very indisposed. Now, what such persons need at such times, is not medicine, nor high-priced prescriptions, but what is needed is some gentle, but sure stimulant, something to assist and at the same time enrich the blood; nature will do the rest. And the best medical authorities agree there is nothing better than pure wine.
Therefore no family should be without it when it can be bought at such low prices as the following. Size of bottle, 5 to a gallon, Port or Sherry.

LAKE HURON DISASTER.

BY IT TWENTY-FIVE LIVES ARE SENT TO ETERNITY.

Freight Boats Come in Collision During a Very Heavy Fog - Both Go Down in a Very Short Time.

SAND BEACH, Mich., Nov. 8.—The propeller Albany of the Western Transit Company, loaded with grain, and the propeller Philadelphia of the Anchor line, loaded with coal and general merchandise, two of the largest freight boats on the lakes, collided off Point Aux Barques, in a dense fog, and both sank shortly afterward in 200 feet of water.

The Philadelphia struck the Albany head on forward of No. 2 gangway. All hands got on board the Philadelphia and she towed the Albany half an hour, when the latter vessel sunk. The Philadelphia went down 30 minutes later.

Both crews got away in two small boats. The second small boat, containing 25 men from both crews, capsized and all were lost.

Life saving crews were out and found boat No 2 upside down. They picked up 11 bodies with life preservers on, and it is supposed that the whole crew of 24 men are drowned, eight of the Albany's crew and the balance of the Philadelphia's crew.

The Albany was bound from Chicago to Buffalo with grain and general merchandise, and the Philadelphia was bound from Buffalo to Duluth with a miscellaneous cargo. Both were steel steamers. The Albany was built in Detroit in 1881, and was worth $180,000, and is believed to be partially insured. The Philadelphia was built by David Bell at Buffalo in 1887, and was valued at $80,000.

Eighteen Perished.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—By the burning of the steamer Frazer yesterday on Lake Nipissing, 18 persons lost their lives. The disaster occurred near Goose Island, and in spite of the most strenuous efforts to save life the above number perished. Only the most meager particulars are obtainable.

LASTERS LEAVE AUBURN.

They Had Just Been Engaged to Take Places of Strikers.

AUBURN, Me., Nov. 8.—There was a ripple of excitement in the shoe trouble yesterday caused by the arrival on the morning train of George G Heath, superintendent of the Monroes, Packard & Lincoln shop, with a crew of 25 men from Boston.

The men were taken from the train to the shop, where they worked to the noon hour. Immediately after dinner they were persuaded to go up to the Lasters' union hall, where they had a conference with the union men.

The men claimed that they were induced to come here by the representatives of the manufacturers, who assured them that there was no trouble here, and that everything was quiet. As the result of the conference with the union, 19 of them returned home last night.

Swedenborgian Leader Dead

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Rev. Chauncy Giles, the leader of the New Jerusalem society in this country, died in West Philadelphia. The reputation of Dr. Giles as a writer on religious subjects is world-wide, his discourses having been translated into nearly every language. He was born at Charlemont, Mass., 1813. In 1857 he was elected president of the general convention of the Church of the New Jerusalem in the United States, and this office he held up to the time of his death.

Prominent Bostonians Dead.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—General Samuel James Bridge died at the Norfolk House, in his 85th year, after a brief illness. He was born in Dresden, Me., June 1, 1809. He was never married.

Hon. Alvah A. Burrage, a prominent merchant of this city, an ex-alderman and former member of the state senate, is dead. He was born in North Leominster May 30, 1823.

Captured In Ohio.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Captain Cain last evening received a dispatch from the police authorities of Springfield, O., telling him to send a man to bring back Antonio Sacco, who shot and killed James Squire in this city, May 28. The police have been searching for Sacco most industriously ever since and hope that the man arrested in Ohio is the murderer.

Canada Looks Toward Australia.

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—The Dominion government has cabled Hon McKenzie Bowell, Canadian minister of trade and commerce, who is now in Australia, that they will be glad to arrange for a conference in Canada with representatives of Australian colonies to discuss the question of better trade relations between the two countries.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The North Pacific sealing catch amounts to 145,000 skins.

There is doubt about the reappointment of Judge Hornblower as associate justice.

It is now said that the dead, missing and injured in the Santander disaster number 1000.

Hon James M. Shute, at one time member of the governor's council, died at Boston.

A conspiracy to rob the United States mails at Robert E Lee, Tex., was unearthed.

A forger got $1500 from the Flower City Bank, Rochester, but was captured at Covington.

Two men were killed and two fatally injured by a boiler explosion at Sand Mountain, Ala.

France and England informed the United States that they will not interfere in Brazil's quarrel.

Industrial depression will probably result in reduced help and diminished train service on the Consolidated road.

A passenger train over the Boston and Maine railroad struck and killed an unknown man near Tyngsboro, Mass.

Charles Martin, a young man of wealth, shot Patty Cole three times at Dallas, killing her. He then committed suicide.

English mine owners' proposals were rejected by the miners, and resolutions adopted that all miners should at once quit work.

Arlo Van Volkingburgh and Harry Hoyt, confined at Deer Island (Boston) for picking pockets, walked past the guards and escaped.

The treasury department decided that James Ingraham, detained at Boston as a contract laborer, must be returned to Newfoundland.

Herbert Culjoe, a boy who was trying to steal a ride on a New England road freight train at Hawleyville, Mass., was run over and killed.

Must Stand For Trial.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 8.—Peter Mulvey was yesterday arraigned for the murder of his father, in accordance with the finding of the inquest upon his father's death, and was bound over to the higher court.

AMERICAN SHIP

President Vasquez Threatened to Sink the Ship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald prints the following dispatch from La Libertad, Honduras: By the allied orders of President Vasquez and by the express command of the commissioner of the port of Amapala, seven cannon shots were fired after the Pacific mail steamship Costa Rica, flying the stars and stripes, as she steamed away this (Monday) morning, because she refused to surrender one of her passengers to the Honduras government.

The passenger about whom the trouble arose is Policarpo Bonilla, who recently led the revolution in Honduras, but was defeated by General Vasquez. He then fled to Nicaragua, and with 300 of his comrades joined the army of President Sacasa, who was engaged in an Attempt to Quell the Rebellion.

Bonilla had decided to leave Nicaragua in order to relieve the government from all responsibility of harboring him. He therefore sailed from Corinto for Guatemala on Nov 4 on the Costa Rica.

American Minister Baker and more than 100 persons were his fellow passengers. They arrived Sunday morning off Amapala, port of entry of Honduras, on the Pacific coast, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon Commander of the Port Villiers demanded that Captain Dow should surrender Bonilla.

When this request was refused a threat was made to sink the ship, and it was asserted that President Vasquez had given strict orders to that effect. An official protest against the refusal to surrender Bonilla was presented to the captain at 6 o'clock, and clearance papers were only issued to the ship after nightfall, when it was too dark to leave the harbor with safety.

A government officer came on board at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning and stated that new orders had been received from the president insisting on the delivery of Bonilla or

The Bombardment of the Ship.

Captain Dow replied that the commander of the port would receive his answer in half an hour, but before that time had expired he steamed away. Seven shots were fired after the Costa Rica, although she flew the American flag.

None of the shots struck her, however, but it is feared the steamship City of Panama of the same line, which was lying in the port, may have been injured, because the firing continued for some time after the Costa Rica was out of range.

The congress of Honduras has conferred upon President Vasquez full power to make war upon Nicaragua whenever a revolution or an invasion of revolutionists from that republic occurs.

Escaped From Deer Island.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The temporary bridge across Shirley Gut from Winthrop to Deer Island, erected for use while the sewer is being laid this morning, proved to be an easy avenue of escape for two boys who were serving time at the island. Their names are Orlo Vanvolkingburg and Harry Hoyt. They are 15 and 16 years of age. Both lads belong in Lowell, but ran away from their homes in that city some six months ago.

Fitchburg Mills Booming.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Nov. 7.—Jerome Mossman's woodworking shop is now running full blast. He said yesterday that he had large orders conditional on the repeal of the silver purchase bill. The Beoli mills are running on full time again, with many orders and good prospects. The Baltic mills began running overtime the day after the repeal measure was passed, and at 10 p. m. has been the closing hour for a week.

Heavy Catch of Seals.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov 7.—The statement of the North Pacific sealing catch, placing the total at 120,241, is not complete. Instead of 2718 skins, San Francisco schooners took 30,000 skins, but landed nearly all at Hakodate and Yokohama. The exact figures are not known, but it is believed the total will be in the neighborhood of 145,000 skins.

Johnson's Latest.

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., Nov. 8.—Johnson yesterday made an effort to lower the world's flying start mile bicycle record. He covered the distance in 1.55 3-5, beating Windle's record one fifth of a second. He also beat his standing start record by going a mile in 2.02 1-5. His flying start record is now represented by the same figures as his fast mile here last year, which was not accepted as a record.

Supreme Court Defied.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 8.—There was a good deal of excitement at Gravesend yesterday. Armed with the order issued by Justice Barnard of the supreme court compelling Supervisor McKane to allow the Republican inspectors to watch the voting, a party of William J. Gaynor's supporters left the latter's house in Brooklyn at 4:30 this morning, under the leadership of Colonel Alex S. Bacon. The party numbered about 50, and proceeded in carriages to Gravesend.

They carried with them the order issued by Justice Barnard and entered Gravesend from four different directions, and found McKane and his police force drawn up around the courthouse. They had marked a line 300 feet away from the courthouse. The injunction of the supreme court was set at defiance.

Colonel Bacon tried to serve an injunction on Chief McKane. He told them he had an injunction of the supreme court, and was there under its authority. Chief McKane directed officers to seize Colonel Bacon and take him to a cell, where he was locked up. Nearly all of the men who went down were assaulted in the most brutal manner.

Herbert S. Worthly, a young man who was among them, was struck a violent blow on the mouth. His face is swollen so that he is scarcely recognizable. Dr. Marshall had his whiskers torn off. Rev. Robert J. Kent, who was also one of the watchers, was knocked down and trampled upon, and is missing. Peter Rosenbeck is also missing. The other men got away after being brutally beaten.

Mr. Grout was seized and thrown against the carriage and was severely hurt. Another one had his head cut. All of them have bruises of one kind or another. They were told by McKane to get out of the town as soon as possible. They were hustled and thrown out into the road, and were obliged to take their carriages and go back to Brooklyn. All of these men were volunteers. There were among them two doctors, one clergyman and three lawyers.

BENNETT APPEALED TO.

Tramway Strikers In Marseilles Want the American's Aid.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 7.—A committee from the Tramway company held a conference with the municipal authorities last evening. The committee hinted that the city government sympathized with the strikers and had provoked the riots to bring the company to terms. The municipal councilors used strong language in denying that they had exerted any influence upon the men. A violent quarrel ensued and the mayor left the room in a pet. The conference broke up without reaching any decision. The strikers have addressed an appeal to James Gordon Bennett, begging him to aid them as he once aided the Paris cabmen.

The mayor will prosecute M Beatmiche, director of the Tramway company, for having accused him slanderously of abetting the rioters. The strikers did much damage yesterday afternoon and evening. Fifty cars were partly destroyed, a great quantity of harness was cut and many horses have been crippled. A car driver who refused to strike was beaten severely and lies unconscious. Sixty two strikers have been arrested. The men held a tumultuous meeting last evening. Violent speeches were cheered wildly, and the strikers resolved unanimously never to go back to work unless the company should concede their demands.

A LITERARY CURIOSITY.

Peculiar Document Filed In Pension Bureau by Georgia Physician.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The following literary curiosity, purporting to be a certificate of examination by a Georgia physician, was received at the pension bureau yesterday morning:

"I treeted him in his last illnes and his deth woz cased bi thee deazes been drown a pension four sum time. He deazed November 1 a nobel man whu luved thee Onion chused to pas awa frum pane and sorr and has gorn to whear thee wiked cees frum trublin and the weeerey are at wiest."

LOVING LETTERS.

Boston Physician Mixed Up In an Actress' Divorce Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The younger of the two Blanche sisters, now playing in Sol Smith Russell's "A Poor Relation" company at Daly's theater, is defendant to a suit for absolute divorce brought by her husband, James Francis Neil, an actor.

The case was tried before Justice Ingraham, in the supreme court, yesterday. The defendant, who, by the way, did not defend, is known on the stage as Nannan Blanche. Her real name is Annie Helen Neil.

The correspondent in the case is Dr. Dr Forest W. Cause, said to be a son of Dr Horace Chase of Boston.

Mrs. Wilson, sister of the defendant, identified a lot of letters said to have been sent by Dr. Chase to her sister. These letters were very loving in tone and be in with "My own Darling Nanua," or "My own Darling Nan."

One of these epistles reads as follows: "Dear Little Girl—I wonder what I would not give if I could only see you a moment tonight. O, darling, I love you so much, little woman, I do not feel like doing anything but while the time away that will bring you back to me again."

The other letters were written in much the same strain. Several photographs of Mrs. Neil were shown, one in her night gown and bare feet.

Justice Ingraham said these letters and photographs were all very well, but were no evidence of infidelity. He therefore gave the plaintiff another week to introduce more evidence.

DOWN IN BRAZIL.

Governments of England and France Declare They Will Be Neutral.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald's Rio dispatch says: President Peixoto has received word that the governments of England and France have informed the government of the United States that they will maintain positions of strict neutrality with regard to Brazilian affairs, and not interfere in any way with the progress of the revolution.

President Peixoto's recently promulgated decree regarding foreigners regulates their entrance upon Brazilian territory, their residence there, and their expulsion during the continuation of martial law in the republic. Beggars and vagrants and persons suffering from contagious diseases are prohibited from entering the country. Foreigners may be expelled who, by their individual acts or through the press, ignore or defy the law, incite to insurrection or civil war, stir up ill feeling against the authorities or instigate acts of violence which in any manner endanger the permanence of public tranquillity.

The same rule applies to those who instigate the commission of crimes against the freedom of labor, thus causing obstruction to public business and social affairs. The government may change the decree of expulsion to one of imprisonment if it sees fit.

STAGING GAVE WAY.

Three Men Fall Thirty Feet and One of Them Is Killed.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—A staging on which three painters were standing while painting the house 149 Marion street, East Boston, gave away at 11:45 o'clock this forenoon and the men were thrown a distance of 30 feet to the ground. They were: Charles Dickinson, 35 years of age, of 21 Dudley street; William Donovan, 21 New street; Robert Capelo, 106 Brooks street.

Dickinson received severe injuries, which caused his death about 15 minutes after the accident occurred. Donovan grasped a hand in the fall, and by clinging to that escaped serious injury. Capelo was but slightly injured. Donovan and Capelo were taken to their home. After Dickinson's body had been viewed by the medical examiner it was taken to his late home.

MADE GOOD HAULS.

Burglars Successfully Raid Houses In Framingham Centre.

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., Nov. 7.—Burglars entered the houses of Deacon George W Bigelow and Dr. E. H. Bigelow, on Pleasant street, Framingham Centre, at an early hour this morning. At the doctor's house they secured watches and valuable jewelry. They carried most of Mr. Bigelow's clothes into the kitchen, but failed to find his money, which was in a coat pocket.

At Deacon Bigelow's house the thieves secured a pocketbook belonging to George D. Bigelow, a Boston lawyer, and a watch and jewelry belonging to Miss Fanny Bigelow. Here the thieves were frightened away by the inmates.

HORNBLOWER'S CASE.

President May Not Reappoint Him—The Hawaiian Question.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Your correspondent asked a prominent Democratic orator, who is a close friend of President Cleveland, whether he would reappoint Judge Hornblower as associate justice. He replied that he did not think the president would. The refusal of the senate to act in his case was paramount to rejection therefore, the senator could not see how President Cleveland could conscientiously reappoint him.

WILLIAM B. HORNBLOWER.

Judge Hornblower's friends, however, insist that he shall be reappointed. They assert that he is eminently qualified for the position, and that the non-action of the Democratic members of the senate judiciary was solely on account of Hornblower's politics, he being an anti-snapper and still in full sympathy with that organization.

The representatives of the Hawaiian provisional government here are very much discouraged on account of the delay on the part of President Cleveland in the Hawaiian affairs. One of the main troubles that confront the president now is that the condition of affairs on the island does not correspond with the representations made by Commissioner Blount.

That gentleman assured the president that the provisional government did not represent the respectable people on the island. Reliable information, however, is in possession of the government here which completely refutes that submitted by Blount. The action of the president through the secretary of the navy, in relieving Admiral Skerritt from his command there, who was on excellent terms with the members of the provisional government, is looked upon as being unfriendly to that government.

PRESIDENT CONCERNED.

Wants Democratic Victory In New York and All Along the Line.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Secretary Lamont who arrived from Washington last night registered from the Victoria hotel, and voted early this morning. He told friends last night that he would vote the straight Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

It was ascertained further from Secretary Lamont that President Cleveland is much concerned over the result today and that in a conversation with Speaker Crisp and others in Washington, on Friday last he expressed an earnest hope for a Democratic victory all along the line.

Unknown Man Killed.

An unknown man supposed to be a tramp was killed by a northern train near Tyngsborough, last night.

SOME POLICE NEWS.

How the Day Was Passed by the Blue Coats.

The election passed off quietly in police circles.

Two repeaters, presumably republicans, were arrested in precinct two of Ward Six, where they had attempted to vote more than once.

They gave their names as Daniel Shea and Thomas F. Burns, both of this city.

Burns is said to have voted on his own name and on that of his brother.

Shea is supposed to have voted on the name of a man who was buried but a day or two since.

Both will be arraigned in the police court, charged with illegal voting.

Yesterday afternoon the employes of the Bon Marche noticed a woman making trips to and from the store and acting in a suspicious manner. They notified the police and Inspectors Lallamme and Allen went to the store and watched the woman.

Outside the store she had left a baby carriage in which was a small child. She was accompanied by two other children who walked by her side

The officers found that her scheme was to go into the store and put some article of dry goods under her shawl and bringing it out deposit it in the baby carriage.

When the officers arrested her she had a number of pairs of stockings in her possession.

It was a pitable sight to see the poor woman leading her children to the police station in company with the inspectors while the little ones trotted gleefully along, not realizing their mother's unfortunate position.

At the police station the woman gave her name as Margaret H. Horne, and upon her were found 15 pairs of stockings, a dozen or more undershirts, a child's hood and some other small articles.

Mrs. Horne has never been arrested before, and has many friends to testify to her previous good character. It is thought by them that the woman through the results of hard times was driven to the act.

She was booked for shoplifting, and was bailed out.

The arrests for drunkenness yesterday were very few, and showed that the day was remarkably dry.

ALLEGED REPEATERS CAUGHT.

THREE MEN TAKEN INTO CUSTODY FROM WARD SIX.

Alleged Voting on the Name of a Man Who Has Just Been Laid Away in the Cemetery—Two Men Belong in Lowell.

Dennis Shea, aged 27 years years, and Thomas Burns, aged 25 years, were arrested yesterday afternoon for alleged repeating.

Shea says that he resides on Fenwick street, but it is said that he is here today and in Boston tomorow, spending his time between the two cities. It is true, however, that his parents reside on Fenwick street in this city. Burns lives with his folks on Fayette street.

It was a foolish piece of business on the part of these men, if the story is true to attempt to vote on the names of the men they did, inasmuch as the men whose names were given were very well known throughout Ward Six, and the repeaters themselves were well known to the police, and the election officers.

Burns made his appearance in the polling booth on East Merrimack street at 8.30 yesterday morning and gave his name as Bernard Burns, 59 High street. The precinct officers doubted if this was his name, but allowed him to pass. Sometime after the proper Bernard Burns came along and attempted to vote, but found that his name had been voted upon. He insisted that he had not voted and then the precinct officers began to see that their suspicions in the case of Burns No. 1 were well grounded. Bernard Burns was not allowed to vote. Had Thomas contented himself with one vote he would have been all right, but he made a second visit to the polling booth and voted upon his own name. Nothing was said to him by the warden, and he was allowed to depart. After he went, however, a controversy arose between the precinct officers and Officer Lennon, the former alleging that the latter was at fault in allowing Burns to depart, whereas in reality the warden was to blame. Officer Lennon, however, caught Burns later in the day over on Fayette street. Burns run into a house but the officer followed him and captured him. Burns is a brother to the man on whose name he attempted to vote.

Shea was caught in the High street precinct. The police officers over there knew him well, when he came up and gave the name of Matthew Mulvaney, 37 Concord street. Now it happens that Mr. Mulvaney died last Sunday at his residence and was buried yesterday morning. There was no better known man in the ward than the late Mr. Mulvaney and it is no wonder that the man who attempted to vote on his name was caught.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Mr. Greenhalge Gets a Grand Ovation.

Tremendous Cheering—Patriotic Speech by Mr. Greenhalge.

A worthy tribute to an honored son.

That was what Lowell bestowed upon Governor-Elect Greenhalge, last night. Probably be little expected when he left Boston at 11.20, the grand reception that awaited him when he arrived in this city at 12.23, this morning. It was a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm and brotherly tesling to one who had been chosen to the highest position within the gift of the people of the commonwealth.

Democrats and republicans turned out alike, but the parade was made up entirely of republicans.

At Huntington Hall.

Mr. Greenhalge's entrance to Huntington hall was the signal for frantic cheers. He was presented in front of hundreds on the stage and cheer after cheer went up for several minutes before he could obtain a hearing.

Mayor Pickman called for silence and said the great battle has been fought and Lowell's favorite son, Hon. F. T. Greenhalge has been elected governor of the commonwealth. (Tremendous cheers).

One name is subscribed on the banner of our city and that name is Hon. F. T. Greenhalge.

Such an event is unprecedented in the history of Lowell. It is an inspiring sight. I present the governor-elect Mr. Greenhalge.

Bedlam here broke loose and ten minutes were spent in the most uproarious cheering.

Mr. Greenhalge said: My friends this is not late Tuesday night but early Wednesday morning. I have only a single word to say. What can I say after such a demonstration as you have given me?

I said when leaving Lowell this morning that I would sacrifice 5000 votes in the state for the vote of my own city but now I am told I have the vote of my own people without sacrificing a single vote in the state. (cheers.)

What does it mean my friends, my neighbors, my brothers, if my election does not seem good to every mother's son of you, for I see no daughters here? (Laughter.) But tell them what my election will be to Lowell. Despite the charge of being a partisan, despite what some newspapers have said of me, I have never been a bitter partisan. I have been a friend or tried to be a friend to every man. I have never been illiberal, I never tried to foster animosities but on the contrary tried to crush them out. I tried to bring people together, to bring men of this nationality and of that, of this and that religion all together and to remember that they were brothers. Of course we must differ, it would be a mighty dull country and a dull time if we did not differ. I would hate to live with anybody who agreed with me all the time.

Even my beautiful wife sometimes differs with me. My son and daughter some times criticize what I say and think, but yet we are all one family, so I wish it may be in this city and state. If we differ in the city of Lowell, let us bring the matters up and discuss them in every aspect so as to arrive at right results.

I have tried to carry this campaign, but I have never struck a blow below the belt. I appreciate with my whole heart and soul this overwhelming greeting you have given me this morning. When we are making history for Lowell, I want my city to hold an honored place. I came here and here I staved. I wanted to remain here among the men who toil for a living. I do not say this in order to win votes, and I may say now that I never asked a man for a vote in my life. (Loud cheers.)

I would rather lose an election than win it by the mean art of the politician. I am accused of being a yearling, but when elected to any office I endeavor to do my duty and let God and the people take care of the second term, (tremendous applause.)

Let us begin a new era in the history of Lowell the grandest industrial city in the world. Fall River may have more spindles, New Bedford may excel in some respects, but Lowell surpasses all. We have French, Irish, English, Scotch, Armenians and men of almost all nationalities in the world. The work of the statesman is to bring them under the grand rule of the commonwealth of the Pilgrim Fathers. Here every man can be a patriot under the stars and stripes.

We have fought a hot campaign and success is not due to my efforts but to the will of the people. They have condemned the policy of the party in power and I will bear their message. We can give a warning voice that we want the grand old policy of Benjamin Harrison to be sustained. You have followed my suggestion made to you a few days ago and my efforts will be to do my duty towards all parties and all citizens whether native or adopted.

After thanking the gathering for their noble and generous demonstration, he advised all to return to their homes as their families would blame him for keeping them out late. The large gathering then cheered again before dispersing.

Grand Demonstration.

The republican city committee had a full delegation in line and the Yorick club turned out to a man, and supplied the music, Post 42 G. A. R. band being at the head of their ranks. Besides these, there were numerous other republicans congregated from all parts of the city. Somehow or other the city committee got the wrong "cue" and believed that the governor-elect would reach Lowell at 11.20. Accordingly they were prepared at the appointed time to meet him, but their hopes were disappointed and they were doomed to delay, for word was received that the governor-elect would not reach here until an hour later.

When finally the train rolled in bearing the new made hero, there was a mighty rush, a crush, and then sinking back as the man among men, made his appearance. But what a shout, rather a roar, a perfect bedlam. "Fred" bowed and tipped his brown fedora, and then when his eyes met the grand feast that awaited him, he was deeply affected.

It was a great night for "Fred," a greater night for Lowell. To imagine that a resident of Lowell—a candidate on the republican ticket—had been raised to the governorship, was sufficient to arouse the greatest enthusiasm on the part of our republican friends.

A carriage, decorated with miniature American flags; was held in waiting by Paul Butler, and attracted to it was a pair of fine horses but there was no need for them: "Fred's" admirers contended that they should draw the carriage and so they did; about 200 of them grabbing hold of the rope, which was attached to the pole. Ex-Mayor Palmer sat upon the drivers' box and looked as happy as he felt. Seated in the carriage beside Governor-Elect Greenhalge were His Honor Mayor Pickman and Larkin T. Trull. Among the body guard marching beside the carriage was Col. Dimon, who on Monday came out for Greenhalge.

The whole line of procession from the depot to Huntington hall was one continual blaze of red fire, in fact at times it seemed as though a large fire was in progress in our city. Charlie Hanson rode on head of the procession and supplied the boys with red fire. Roman candles, sky rockets and cannon crackers were fired off, and in fact everything conceivable was done to add to the enthusiasm of the occasion. At post office square the cheers were loud and hearty and the governor-elect was kept continually raising his hat in response to the grand ovation he was receiving.

Taken altogether Lowell did its duty in showing homage to one who has always been a loyal citizen and in recognizing the importance of the honor conferred upon him.

The Crowds on Merrimack Square.

The interest taken in the returns was phenomenal. There never was an election in which there was more uncertainty as to the outcome before the returns came in and hardly ever one in which the first returns were more clearly indicative of final results. Only a few country towns were heard from when it could be easily seen that Russell was running far behind and that Greenhalge would be the next governor of Massachusetts. The crowd multiplied in front of THE SUN office as town after town was heard from until the governorship and the senatorial contest was practically settled by the returns and cheer after cheer rent the air, but all or nearly all were republican cheers.

There were thousands of Mr. Brady's friends on the street and they cheered every report that showed him to be in the lead. The ardor of the democrats sank with their hopes of victory and after waiting to be assured of Mr. Brady's victory they dispersed for home. At 11 o'clock the streets were abandoned to the republicans who were awaiting the arrival of Mr. Greenhalge from Boston. The Big Twelve, the Yorucks, Miserables and other clubs kept open during the greater part of the night, all in excitement at the news of the great landslide all over the country. The democratic loss in this city, as in the state and all over the country was far greater than even republicans anticipated. It was a regular landslide a reversal of the republican defeat that followed the passage of the McKinley bill.

Everybody was surprised at the result and all agreed in attributing it to the hard times.

AMERICAN SHIP

President Vasquez Threatened to Sink the Ship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald prints the following dispatch from La Libertad, Honduras: By the alleged orders of President Vasquez and by the express command of the commissioner of the port of Amapala, seven cannon shots were fired after the Pacific mail steamship Costa Rica, flying the stars and stripes, as she steamed away this (Monday) morning, because she refused to surrender one of her passengers to the Honduras government.

The passenger about whom the trouble arose is Policarpo Bonilla, who recently led the revolution in Honduras, but was defeated by General Vasquez. He then fled to Nicaragua, and with 300 of his coherents joined the army of President Sacasa, who was engaged in an Attempt to Quell the Rebellion.

Bonilla had decided to leave Nicaragua in order to relieve the government from all responsibility of harboring him. He therefore sailed from Corinto for Guatemala on Nov. 4 on the Costa Rica.

American Minister Baker and more than 100 persons were his fellow passengers. They arrived Sunday morning off Amapala, port of entry of Honduras, on the Pacific coast, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon Commander of the Port Villila demanded that Captain Dow should surrender Bonilla.

When this request was refused a threat was made to sink the ship, and it was asserted that President Vasquez had given strict orders to that effect. An official protest against the refusal to surrender Bonilla was presented to the captain at 6 o'clock, and clearance papers were only issued to the ship after nightfall, when it was too dark to leave the harbor with safety.

A goverament officer came on board at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning and stated that new orders had been received from the president insisting on the delivery of Bonilla or

The Bombardment of the Ship.

Captain Dow replied that the commander of the port would receive his answer in half an hour, but before that time had expired he steamed away. Seven shots were fired after the Costa Rica, although she flew the American flag.

None of the shots struck her, however, but it is feared the steamship City of Panama of the same line, which was lying in the port, may have been injured, because the firing continued for some time after the Costa Rica was out of range.

The congress of Honduras has conferred upon President Vasquez full power to make war upon Nicaragua whenever a revolution or an invasion of revolutionists from that republic occurs.

Escaped From Deer Island.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The temporary bridge across Shirley Gut from Winthrop to Deer Island, erected for use while the sewer is being laid this morning, proved to be an easy avenue of escape for two boys who were serving time at the island. Their names are Otto Vanvolkingburg and Harry Hoyt. They are 15 and 16 years of age. Both lads belong in Lowell, but ran away from their homes in that city some six months ago.

Fitchburg Mills Booming.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Nov. 7.—Jerome Mossman's woodworking shop is now running full blast. He said yesterday that he had large orders conditional on the repeal of the silver purchase bill. The Booli mills are running on full time again, with many orders and good prospects. The Baltic mills began running overtime the day after the repeal measure was passed, and at 10 p. m. has been the closing hour for a week.

Heavy Catch of Seals.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 7.—The statement of the North Pacific sealing catch, placing the total at 120,241, is not complete. Instead of 2748 skins, San Francisco schooners took 20,000 skins, but landed nearly all at Hakodate and Yokohama. The exact figures are not known, but it is believed the total will be in the neighborhood of 145,000 skins.

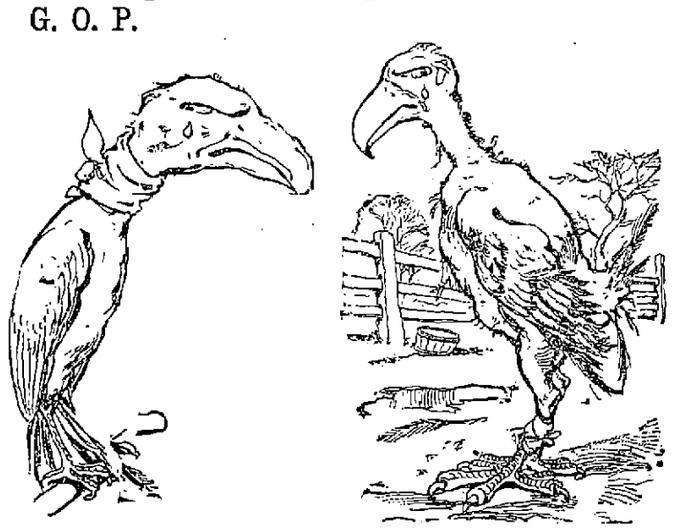
Jewelry Manufactory Scorched.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—The jewelry manufacturing building on Peck and Clifford streets, occupied by a dozen firms, was damaged to the extent of $5000 by fire at 4:30 o'clock this morning. The principal loser is George Baker, a gold and silver repairer. All the occupants were insured.

IT WILL BE GOV. GREENHALGE.

His Plurality Will Reach Old Time Figures.

Democratic Party Fought Nobly, But the Calamity Shouters Had Thoroughly Frightened the People into Voting the Ticket of the G. O. P.



Some Cold Facts Which Make Our Birds Feel Sad and Weary.

The election is over and the democratic party has been routed rank and file. From all sides and all cities north, east and west come the stories of a republican victory which is startling in its immensity.

Wise ones will say that it was an "off year" and accordingly a republican year, but the hard pan fact is that the calamity shouters succeeded in frightening the people to such an extent that they thought the country was going to the proverbial "bow wows." It looks almost like a stampede from the democratic banner in New York, and for a reason only time will develop.

To put into a few words the facts concerning the election—and facts which are hard for democratic digestion—is to say that the inflated reports as brought in by the wire show that the republicans have fairly swept New York, Iowa, Ohio and New Jersey.

And as for Massachusetts, Hon. F. T. Greenhalge will be the next governor, sweeping the state by a plurality, which, while only imperfectly completed yet will exceed 21,000.

Nearly all the cities and towns near Lowell have been heard from and the way the small majorities for Mr. Greenhalge came in makes the reading somewhat monotonous for the democrats.

For instance take Dracut which gave last year Russell 182; Haile, 199; this year gives Greenhalge, 224; Russell, 153.

Billerica—Greenhalge, 327; Russell, 148; Below is given a table of the larger towns and cities and those of greatest interest to Lowell readers:

One of the big surprises of the evening was the figures from Leicester, John E. Russell's home, Greenhalge carrying it by 346 to 208, while last year Haile beat W. E. Russell by only 13 votes, 321 to 308.

At midnight 280 cities and towns reported a net democratic loss of 17,360.

Three minutes later ,300 cities and towns reported a net loss to the democrats of 18,000, and it was predicted in Boston that Greenhalge would have a plurality exceeding 20,000.

NEW YORK STATE.

How the Landslide Swept Onward Out in That State.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

NEW YORK. The Herald bulletin says that the republicans now claim Brooklyn by 10,000; Maynard badly cut in Chatauqua Co., but he carries Chemung county by 350.

100 out of 201 districts in Erie county give Maynard a net loss of over 6000.

The World predicts that the entire republican ticket is elected by 30,000 majority. The Sun says that every return from the state shows big gains for the republicans, and the state has probably gone republican by 40,000 majority.

The republican city committee of Buffalo claims the city by a clean sweep, the democrats getting only an occasional alderman.

N. Y. Commercial Advertiser says the assembly is "horribly" republican; perhaps the senate also.

Chairman of republican city committee of Brooklyn claim the city by a clear 10,000.

New York city complete, Myers, 147,256; Palmer, 79,867. Palmer beats Myers by 11,000 in Brooklyn, for secretary of state.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

DES MOINES, Ia. Thirty precincts give a net loss for democrats of 2622, and this is indicative of reports throughout the state. Democrats do not believe they will lose the gubernatorial fight.

There's Solace in This.

The New York Times says that Virginia has gone democratic by 50,000 majority.

Despatches from Kentucky and Maryland show that the democrats have elected by big majorities.

The democrats have undoubtedly carried Chicago, but Gary, rep., for superior judge is elected, running way ahead of his ticket. Judge Gary presided at the anarchist trial.

OHIO'S PARALYZING MAJORITY.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

CINCINNATI. Three hundred precincts at midnight, gave McKinley, rep., 48,022 and Neal, dem., 33,523 for governor.

CINCINNATI. 523 precincts give McKinley 89,314; Neal, 65,063.

Mr. Greenhalge Gets a Grand Ovation.

A worthy tribute to an honored son.

That was what Lowell bestowed upon Governor-Elect Greenhalge, last night. Probably be little expected when he left Boston at 11.20, the grand reception that awaited him when he arrived in this city at 12.28, this morning. It was a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm and brotherly feeling to one who had been chosen to the highest position within the gift of the people of the commonwealth.

Democrats and republicans turned out alike, but the parade was made up entirely of republicans.

At Huntington Hall.

Mr. Greenhalge's entrance to Huntington hall was the signal for frantic cheers. He was presented in front of hundreds on the stage and cheer after cheer went up for several minutes before he could obtain a hearing.

Mayor Pickman called for silence and said the great battle has been fought and Lowell's favorite son, Hon. F. T. Greenhalge has been elected governor of the commonwealth. (Tremendous cheers).

One name is subscribed on the banner of our city and that name is Hon. F. T. Greenhalge.

Such an event is unprecedented in the history of Lowell. It is an inspiring sight. I present the governor-elect Mr. Greenhalge.

Bedlam here broke loose and ten minutes were spent in the most uproarious cheering.

Mr. Greenhalge said: My friends this is not late Tuesday night but early Wednesday morning. I have only a single word to say. What can I say after such a demonstration as you have given me?

I said when leaving Lowell this morning that I would sacrifice 5000 votes in the state for the vote of my own city but now I am told I have the vote of my own people without sacrificing a single vote in the state. (cheers.)

What does it mean my friends, my neighbors, my brothers, if my election does not seem good to every mother's son of you, for I see no daughters here? (Laughter.) But, tell them what my election will be to Lowell. Despite the charge of being a partisan, despite what some newspapers have said of me, I have never been a bitter partisan. I have been a friend or tried to be a friend to every man. I have never been illiberal, I never tried to foster animosities but on the contrary tried to crush them out. I tried to bring people together, to bring men of this nationality and of that, of this and that religion all together and to remember that they were brothers. Of course we must differ, it would be a mighty dull country and a dull time if we did not differ. I would hate to live with anybody who agreed with me all the time.

Even my beautiful wife sometimes differs with me. My son and daughter some times criticize what I say and think, but yet we are all one family, so I wish it may be in this city and state. If we differ in the city of Lowell, let us bring the matters up and discuss them in every aspect so as to arrive at right results.

I have tried to carry this campaign, but I have never struck a blow below the belt. I appreciate with my whole heart and soul this overwhelming greeting you have given me this morning. When we are making history for Lowell, I want my city to hold an honored place. I came here and here I stayed. I wanted to remain here among the men who toil for a living. I do not say this in order to win votes, and I may say now that I never asked a man for a vote in my life. (Loud cheers.)

I would rather lose an election than win it by the mean art of the politician. I am accused of being a yearling, but when elected to any office I endeavor to do my duty and let God and the people take care of the second term, (tremendous applause.)

Let us begin a new era in the history of Lowell the grandest industrial city in the world. Fall River may have more spindles, New Bedford may excel in some respects, but Lowell surpasses all. We have French, Irish, English, Scotch, Armenians and men of almost all nationalities in the world. The work of the statesman is to bring them under the grand rule of the commonwealth of the Pilgrim Fathers. Here every man can be a patriot under the stars and stripes.

We have fought a hot campaign and success is not due to my efforts but to the will of the people. They have condemned the policy of the party in power and I will bear their message. We can give a warning voice that we want the grand old policy of Benjamin Harrison to be sustained. You have followed my suggestion made to you a few days ago and my efforts will be to do my duty towards all parties and all citizens whether native or adopted.

After thanking the gathering for their noble and generous demonstration, he advised all to return to their homes as their families would blame him for keeping them out late. The large gathering then cheered again before dispersing.

They Kept Open House.

The Yorick club held "open house" all last night. The members were out in force and a gay time was had at the rooms of the club in Mansur block. Returns were received from all over the state and the club was also in communication with the republican state committee in Boston. When it became apparent that Greenhalge was elected, the affair took the form of a jollification meeting.

BRADY TO BE OUR SENATOR.

The Single "Brand Plucked From the Burning."

The Glorious Victory That Revived the Drooping Spirts of Our Birds.

It will be Senator Peter J. Brady after January first. He laid Senator Frederick Lawton on the shelf, after a contest which was not determined by figures until the last precincts were in.

Yes, Brady won, and Greenhalge carried the city and state.

From the battle the democrats have only the following successful candidates:

Peter J. Brady, senator, with a majority of 158.

Owen M. Donohoe, representative, from Ward Three.

Philip J. Farley, representative, Ward Six, re-elected.

Here is what the republicans got:

Hon. F. T. Greenhalge carries Lowell by 441 votes. J. Stuart Murphy barely wins the representative fight in Ward Two; re-elected E. S. Foss, re-elected, F. S. Bennett of Tyngsboro, elected representatives in the 24th district, with Rep. W. H. I. Hayes in doubt as he was fearfully cut throughout the district.

In the balance of the ticket the republicans win as usual, although W. A. Read, dem., for county commissioner ran ahead of his ticket but not so strongly as anticipated. It looks as if the republicans voted nearly straight giving Brady the preference in cutting.

Last year Gov. Russell carried Lowell by 781; the upheaval is something terrible.

Grand Demonstration.

The republican city committee had a full delegation in line and the Yorick club turned out to a man, and supplied the music, Post 42 G. A. R. band being at the head of their ranks. Besides these, there were numerous other republicans congregated from all parts of the city. Somehow or other the city committee got the wrong "cue" and believed that the governor-elect would reach Lowell at 11.20. Accordingly they were prepared at the appointed time to meet him, but their hopes were disappointed and they were doomed to delay, for word was received that the governor-elect would not reach here until an hour later.

When finally the train rolled in bearing the new made hero, there was a mighty rush, a crush, and then sinking back as the man among men, made his appearance. But what a shout, rather a roar, a perfect bedlam. "Fred" bowed and tipped his brown fedora, and then when his eyes met the grand feast that awaited him, he was deeply affected.

It was a great night for "Fred," a greater night for Lowell. To imagine that a resident of Lowell—a candidate on the republican ticket—had been raised to the governorship, was sufficient to arouse the greatest enthusiasm on the part of our republican friends.

A carriage, decorated with miniature American flags; was held in waiting by Paul Butler, and attracted to it was a pair of fine horses but there was no need for them; "Fred's" admirers contended that they should draw the carriage and so they did; about 200 of them grabbing hold of the rope, which was attached to the pole. Ex-Mayor Palmer sat upon the drivers' box and looked as happy as he felt. Seated in the carriage beside Governor-Elect Greenhalge were His Honor Mayor Pickman and Larkin T. Trull. Among the body guard marching beside the carriage was Col. Dimon, who on Monday came out for Greenhalge.

The whole line of procession from the depot to Huntington hall was one continual blaze of red fire, in fact at times it seemed as though a large fire was in progress in our city. Charlie Hanson rode on head of the procession and supplied the boys with red fire. Roman candles, sky rockets and cannon crackers were fired off, and in fact everything conceivable was done to add to the enthusiasm of the occasion. At post office square the cheers were loud and hearty and the governor-elect was kept continually raising his hat in response to the grand ovation he was receiving.

Taken altogether Lowell did its duty in showing homage to one who has always been a loyal citizen and in recognizing the importance of the honor conferred upon him.

The Crowds on Merrimack Square.

The interest taken in the returns was phenomenal. There never was an election in which there was more uncertainty as to the outcome before the returns came in and hardly ever one in which the first returns were more clearly indicative of final results. Only a few country towns were heard from when it could be easily seen that Russell was running far behind and that Greenhalge would be the next governor of Massachusetts. The crowd multiplied in front of THE SUN office as town after town was heard from until the governorship and the senatorial contest was practically settled by the returns and cheer after cheer rent the air, but all or nearly all were republican cheers.

There were thousands of Mr. Brady's friends on the street and they cheered every report that showed him to be in the lead. The ardor of the democrats sank with their hopes of victory and after waiting to be assured of Mr. Brady's victory they dispersed for home. At 11 o'clock the streets were abandoned to the republicans who were awaiting the arrival of Mr. Greenhalge from Boston. The Big Twelve, the Yoricks, Miserables and other clubs kept open during the greater part of the night, all in excitement at the news of the great landslide all over the country. The democratic loss in this city, as in the state and all over the country was far greater than even republicans anticipated. It was a regular landslide a reversal of the republican defeat that followed the passage of the McKinley bill.

Everybody was surprised at the result and all agreed in attributing it to the hard times.

Senator-elect Brady's Reception.

As the Yorick club glorified in the election of Mr. Greenhalge, so did the Big 12 enthuse over Senator-elect Brady's success. The members of this organization have worked hard and well for Mr. Brady, and have done everything in their power to promote his interests. Last night the members received returns in their rooms and when it became apparent that Peter J. Brady was to be our next senator, their enthusiasm knew no bounds, and nothing was too good for their guests. Their liberality and genial disposition for entertaining is well known, but never has it been displayed to such an extent. Nothing was too good last night, and the club had many callers.

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

EVERY DEMOCRAT was expected to do his duty yesterday, but did they?

THE SOVEREIGN people have spoken and we bow to the fiat of their will.

NOW THAT the state election is over, the candidates for municipal offices will seek public attention.

THE WRITER is a good monthly magazine for the use of young people aspiring to the journalistic profession.

THERE is a dark prospect before the strikers of Olneyville for the coming winter. No worse time could be chosen for a strike.

THE MURDER of Carter Harrison unprovoked as it was, will probably be a serious blow to the movement for the abolition of capital punishment. Who will say that hanging will be too severe a punishment for Prendergast?

SOME WOMEN in Indiana have adopted the methods inaugurated by Dr. Parkhurst of New York for exposing the dens of vice. They made a tour of the brothels and were so shocked at what they saw that they were cast into nervous prostration and obliged to stay abed. What use will they make of their experience?

IF ONE were to judge from the allegations of the Boston Journal, it would appear that the democrats could take the election returns of the city and add enough ballots to make a democratic majority. Such charges can only come from a desperate partisan that has lost all regard for truth and fairness.

THE DOG that refuses to bark out of respect to his sleeping owners while the house is being rifled is altogether too courteous. That democratic dog that barked vigorously in Huntington Hall Saturday night in protest to what Mr. Goulding said on the Sherman law, was a different kind of an animal. If that highly trained dog did not care to give an alarm by barking, it might have used its teeth to prevent the thieves from carrying off their plunder.

WHEN GOVERNOR RUSSELL was speaking of Mr. Cleveland in Huntington hall last week, he used a quotation from the words of Seneca's pilot which were first applied to Cleveland in his presence at Harvard by James Russell Lowell. President Eliot relates that he saw the tears well up in the president's eyes when he heard the words used. They were: "O Neptune! You may save me if you will; you may sink me if you will, but whatever you do I will keep my rudder true."

MR. GREENHALGE ELECTED.

Hon. F. T. Greenhalge has been chosen governor of Massachusetts. Richly endowed by nature with gifts of oratory and o her brilliant talents, well trained as a lawyer and a legislator in the government of city, state and nation, he is particularly fitted to give the commonwealth a good business administration. If he eschews extreme partisanship and takes for his model the fair-minded, clear headed and sagacious Gov. Russell, he will satisfy the people and deserve a re-election at the hands of his party.

Although THE SUN opposed Mr. Greenhalge it did so decently and without descending to meanness. It defended him against the race issue and in its columns can be found some of the most appreciative notices of his oratorical ability and his liberality outside the domain of politics. Now that the contest is ended THE SUN has magnanimity enough to offer its congratulations to Mr. Greenhalge upon his success and to Lowell upon the honor of having the next governor as one of her citizens.

THE REFERENDUM.

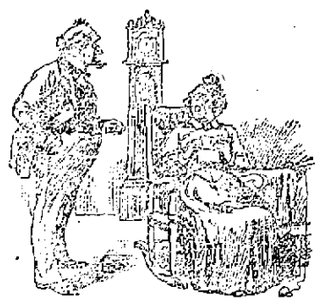
In the question of amending the constitution so as to provide for the payment of mileage the voters today have an illustration of the referendum in legislation. The referendum is simply a submission or reference to the people for decision of any proposed legislation. The people vote on the proposition and if a majority favors it the legislature enacts the law. The system will be new to the people of this community inasmuch as the referendum has been but seldom resorted to in this country and only when some radical legislation is proposed such as a change in the constitution of the United States, of an individual state or in the charter of a city. So little attention do the voters generally give such questions that it would appear they have a very poor appreciation of what the referendum means. When a proposition is thus submitted to the people not more than half usually vote upon it. If every important matter were so submitted, the people would have to pay closer attention to the affairs of state and be better posted upon the laws needed to promote the good government, the peace, happiness and prosperity of the state. Both political parties are now in favor of the referendum in legislation and it will soon be a fixed principle of legislation in this state. When the referendum shall have been properly introduced the initiative will soon follow because one is of but little account without the other. By the initiative a certain number of voters can have any desired legislation submitted to the people for their decision.

A Parents' Duty.

It is the duty of parents to see that their children get none but wholesome reading. They should also see that they have every opportunity to read about the current events of the world, that they may become intelligent and keep up with the procession. THE SUN is newsy; it is clean; it is always bright and truthful, but never vulgar. 25 cents a month secures its regular delivery to your house. Try it. You can't spend 25 cents that will do you and your family so much good.

SUNBEAMS.

Hard For George.



Fond Mother — Here's a letter from George. He says he hasn't much time to write on account of the severe head work he is doing. Poor boy! I'm afraid he'll study himself to death before he gets through college.

This is George in the striped Jersey doing some of the severe headwork aforementioned.—Puck.

A Woman's Heart.

She (gently)—I am afraid I do not love you enough to be your wife, but I shall always be your friend and sincerely wish for your happiness.

He (moodily)—I know what I'll do.

She (anxiously)—You surely will not do yourself an injury?

He (calmly)—No, I will find happiness. I will marry some one else.

She—Horrors! Give me another day to consider, dear.—New York Weekly.

Villainous.

"John," said De Broot's wife, "I don't know what to do about the hired girl."

"Why don't you fire her?"

"I have, but I can't get rid of her."

"How?"

"I'll get up early and show her how to light the fire with kerosene. Then we'll let nature take it's course."—Washington Star.

Not Prepared to Say.

"You're from Oklahoma, are you?" said the long whiskered passenger on his way to a Populist convention. "Well, what seems to be the situation out there?"

"I couldn't find any," replied the passenger with the frazzled trousers. And the conversation lagged.—Chicago Tribune.

The Strain Soon Over.

"Now, lady, look beautiful and happy," said a William street photographer to the young woman. "So. That's it. There, I have you. Now you may resume your natural expression."—Buffalo Courier.

The Five Great Powers.

Some one asked Prince G——, "Which are the great powers of Europe?"

He answered, straight off the reel, "England, Germany, France, Russia and woman."—Conteur du Vaudois.

Good Advice.

Toper—What shall I take, doctor, to remove the redness of my nose?

Doctor—Take nothing—for three months!—Hallo.

Accomplishments.

"I can dress myself!" bragged Willie.

"And I," said Bobbie proudly, "I can wipe my own nose!"—Brooklyn Life.

At His Word.

A one eyed man with cork soled shoes was vociferously offering to sell 12 lead pencils for a nickel without appreciable effect upon the ebb and flow of trade.

A youth just budding into manhood with every indication of an arrested development turned to the maiden at his side and said:

"Miss Undergore, the least expected always happens."

To which she replied:

"Thank you, Mr. Letherhed. I will take ice cream soda with raspberry flavor, if you please."

There was a quaver in the voice of the one eyed party with the cork soled shoes.

But otherwise men came and went as before.—Detroit Tribune.

For the benefit of those who contemplate house-keeping, whether on a large or small scale, we have prepared a set of Plans so arranged in goods and prices as to be adapted to the wants of all classes, and which will be found of the greatest assistance to beginners and others who aim to get the best possible results for their money, and which combine the greatest possible usefulness with the least possible expenditure. These Plans will be known as

and are the outcome of our very extensive dealings with the public and our thorough knowledge of their requirements. We claim for them the following essential elements, on which we base their success:

ORIGINALITY. BECAUSE no house in proposed or adopted any such plans for securing to the purchaser such benefits as these afford, and because no matter what competitors may promise or hold out in copying these plans (as they undoubtedly will) they must fall far short of the quality, even if the quantity and prices are the same. On this particular point you get our guarantee.

FEASIBILITY. BECAUSE these plans have been originated and prepared by us, not merely for an advertisement, but are intended as a positive benefit to the purchaser in helping him to secure such goods as will give the greatest satisfaction in every respect. AND WE GUARANTEE that the goods set forth in either plan, if taken altogether, shall be found from $15 to $50 cheaper than they can be bought for elsewhere.

POPULARITY. BECAUSE all intending purchasers can find in these plans the realization of their ideas, and because no matter which you accept, you will find it is just exactly as if you had planned it yourself.

To All Whom It May Concern.

There are undoubtedly many people who feel at some time or another unwell, not really sick but very indisposed. Now, what such persons need at such times, is not medicine, nor high-priced prescriptions, but what is needed is some gentle, but sure stimulant, something to assist and at the same time enrich the blood; nature will do the rest. And the best medical authorities agree there is nothing better than pure wine.

Therefore no family should be without it when it can be bought at such low prices as the following. Size or bottle, 5 to a gallon, Port or Sherry.

ALL INTERRED

OF THE TERRIBLE SENTANDERS EXPLOSION DISASTER.

Over 1000 Persons Killed by the Shock.

MADRID, Nov. 7.—The latest details concerning the terrible disaster at Santander on Friday last show that the number of dead, missing and wounded is fully 1000. The people have not yet recovered from the effects of the catastrophe, and are entirely apathetic, paying no attention to business, but standing about the streets discussing the awful calamity that has befallen the city.

Men and women living near the water front who providentially escaped from the wrecking of their homes, can be seen in numbers standing near the huge masses of debris that fill the streets, waiting to recover the bodies of those that are known to be under the ruins.

beyond recognition, is removed from the ruins a heartrending wail goes up from the women, who fear that the shapeless mass of flesh may be all that remains of one of their loved ones. There is no doubt that many of the dead will never be identified.

Senor Gamazo, minister of finance, who at once proceeded from Madrid to Santander when the extent of the calamity became known, is doing everything in his power to awaken the authorities to the fact that they must arouse themselves and set about repairing the damage the city has sustained. As soon as he arrived he summoned the town officials and expressed to them the sympathy of the government. He also assured them the

When Senor Gamazo saw how helpless the authorities were in the crisis confronting them, he in a great measure took the administration of affairs in his own hands. He telegraphed to Valladolid, ordering that medical stores, nurses and other helpers be at once sent to Santander.

A subscription for the relief of the sufferers was started, Senor Gamazo heading it with a gift of $5000 on behalf of the government.

Many of the dead were buried yesterday. Among the bodies interred was the

of the Marquis de Pomba. The services were attended by large crowds of people, and many distressing scenes were witnessed. Many of the fragments of bodies found in the vicinity of the quay were buried in a common grave.

The divers who were employed to recover the bodies in the bay have been so appalled in the number of the dead and gruesome appearance of the corpses that they have refused to continue their work.

SERVICE INEFFICIENT.

People of Madrid Clamor For News, but Messages Will Not Be Sent.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Times' correspondent in Madrid complains thus of the utter inefficiency of the Spanish telegraph service:

The telegraph service fails in a most miserable state whenever a slight extra strain is put upon it. We still are without really trustworthy details of the Santander disaster.

The public besiege the offices begging for news, but the officials sternly refuse to receive or deliver private messages, declaring that the lines are partially blocked or are needed for official messages. A similar state of things has lasted for weeks in connection with events at Melilla.

WANTS HIS MONEY BACK.

Advertised For a Wife and Is Fleeced Out of $680 In Cash.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Paul Hearn, 65 years of age, living in Bergen county, N. J., received from the government several months ago about $1700 back pension money and thought he would advertise for a wife.

One of the many replies he received was signed "Catherine Harrington," and seemed to please the old man. The writer said she was 35 years old, a blonde plump in figure, thoroughly domestic in habits and religiously inclined.

The old man had a personal interview and was instantly enthralled. He invited Catherine to visit his place. She was charmed with everything, and at his request remained several days to arrange the interior of the house, preparatory to the marriage.

The old man received a note from the woman last week saying that she soon would be up and bring her "brother" along with her. When the couple appeared the "brother" said to the farmer:

"We might as well settle this business at once. You've been making love to my wife and trying to steal her from me and I want $1000.

When the dazed old man began to protest the "brother" became violent, and so frightened the old man that he gave up $680.

Old Farmer Hearn now wants to know if there is any way of getting his money back without exposing the fact that he had made "a darn fool of himself."

CUP FOR ISELIN.

No Challenge For America's Cup Expected From England In 1894.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Ex-Commodore Smith, the chairman of the American cup committee, said today that he hardly expected a challenge from England for an international race in 1894, but that it might come before Jan. 1, the limit of time in the present deed of gift.

The next event of interest in connection with the recent international yacht races will be the presentation of a handsome cup to C. Oliver Iselin, by the cup committee, on behalf of the New York Yacht club as an evidence of the club's appreciation of Mr. Iselin's work in building and preparing Vigilant for the trial and the international races.

An order has been given for the cup, which will be completed in about a fortnight. It will be a very handsome and elaborate cup, and a banquet will probably be given when it is presented to Mr. Iselin.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—The Clyde print works, one of the largest concerns in the Pawtuxet valley, which have been on short time since last July, have started up in full time.

A Collector, but He Fails.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 7.—William H. Saxton, jeweler, has failed. Mr. Saxton is collector of the port of New London, having been appointed by President Harrison.

SUPREME COURT DEFIED.

Supervisor McKane Locks Up Its Bearer Others Brutally Assaulted.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 7.—There is a good deal of excitement at Gravesend today. Armed with the order issued by Justice Barnard of the supreme court compelling Supervisor McKane to allow the Republican inspectors to watch the voting a party of William J. Gaynor's supporters left the latter's house in Brooklyn at 4:30 this morning, under the leadership of Colonel Alex S. Bacon. The party numbered about 30, and proceeded in carriages to Gravesend.

They carried with them the order issued by Justice Barnard and entered Gravesend from four different directions, and found McKane and his police force drawn up around the court house. They had marked a line 300 feet away from the court house. The injunction of the supreme court was set at defiance.

Colonel Bacon tried to serve an injunction on Chief McKane. He told them he had an injunction of the supreme court and was there under its authority. Chief McKane directed officers to seize Colonel Bacon and take him to a cell, where he was locked up. Nearly all of the men who went down were assaulted in the most brutal manner.

Herbert S. Worthly, a young man who was among them, was struck a violent blow on the mouth. His face is swollen so that he is scarcely recognizable. Dr. Marshall had his whiskers torn off. Rev. Robert J. Kent, who was also one of the watchers, was knocked down and trampled upon, and is missing. Peter Rosenbeck is also missing. The other men got away after being brutally beaten.

Mr. Grant was seized and thrown against the carriage and was severely hurt. Another one had his head cut. All of them have bruises of one kind or another. They were told by McKane to get out of the town as soon as possible. They were hustled and thrown out into the road, and were obliged to take their carriages and go back to Brooklyn. All of these men were volunteers. There were among them two doctors, one clergyman and three lawyers.

BENNETT APPEALED TO.

Tramway Strikers In Marseilles Want the American's Aid.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 7.—A committee from the Tramway company held a conference with the municipal authorities last evening. The committee hinted that the city government sympathized with the strikers and had provoked the riots to bring the company to terms. The municipal councilors used strong language in denying that they had exerted any influence up n the men. A violent quarrel ensued and the mayor left the room in a pet. The conference broke up without reaching any decision. The strikers have addressed an appeal to James Gordon Bennett, begging him to aid them as he once aided the Paris cabmen.

The mayor will prosecute M. Bentmiche, director of the Tramway company, for having accused him slanderously of abetting the rioters. The strikers did much damage yesterday afternoon and evening. Fifty cars were partly destroyed, a great quantity of harness was cut and many horses have been crippled. A car driver who refused to strike was beaten severely and lies unconscious. Sixty-two strikers have been arrested. The men held a tumultuous meeting last evening. Violent speeches were cheered wildly, and the strikers resolved unanimously never to go back to work unless the company should concede their demands.

A LITERARY CURIOSITY.

Peculiar Document Filed In Pension Bureau by Georgia Physician.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The following literary curiosity, purporting to be a certificate of examination by a Georgia physician, was received at the pension bureau yesterday morning:

"I treated him in his last illnes and his deth was cused bi thee deazes been drown a pension four sum time. He deazed November 1 a nobel man who lived thee Onion cluseed to pas uwa fram pane and sorer and has gorn to whear thee wiked cees fram trublin and the weereey are at wrest."

LOVING LETTERS.

Boston Physician Mixed Up In an Actress' Divorce Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The younger of the two Blanche sisters, now playing in Sol Smith Russell's "A Poor Relation" company at Daly's theater, is defendant to a suit for absolute divorce brought by her husband, James Francis Neil, an actor.

The case was tried before Justice Ingraham, in the supreme court, yesterday. The defendant, who, by the way, did not defend, is known on the stage as Nannan Blancks. Her real name is Annie Helen Neil.

The corespondent in the case is Dr. D. Forest W. Chase, said to be a son of Dr. Horace Chase of Boston.

Mrs. Wilson, sister of the defendant, identified a lot of letters said to have been sent by Dr. Chase to her sister. These letters were very loving in tone and be in with "My own Darling Nanna," or "My own Darling Nan."

One of these epistles reads as follows: "Dear Little Girl—I wonder what I would not give if I could only see you a moment tonight. O, darling, I love you so much, little woman, I do not feel like doing anything but while the time away that will bring you back to me again."

The other letters were written in much the same strain. Several photographs of Mrs. Neil were shown, one in her nightgown and bare feet.

Justice Ingraham said these letters and photographs were all very well, but were no evidence of infidelity. He therefore gave the plaintiff another week to introduce more evidence.

DOWN IN BRAZIL.

Governments of England and France Declare They Will Be Neutral.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald's Rio dispatch says: President Peixoto has received word that the governments of England and France have informed the government of the United States that they will maintain positions of strict neutrality with regard to Brazilian affairs, and not interfere in any way with the progress of the revolution.

President Peixoto's recently promulgated decree regarding foreigners regulates their entrance upon Brazilian territory, their residence there, and their expulsion during the continuation of martial law in the republic. Beggars and vagrants and persons suffering from contagious diseases are prohibited from entering the country. Foreigners may be expelled who, by their individual acts or through the press, ignore or defy the law, incite to insurrection or civil war, stir up ill feeling against the authorities or instigate acts of violence which in any manner endanger the permanence of public tranquility.

The same rule applies to those who instigate the commission of crimes against the freedom of labor, thus causing obstruction to public business and social affairs. The government may change the decree of expulsion to one of imprisonment if it sees fit.

STAGING GAVE WAY.

Three Men Fell Thirty Feet and One of Them Is Killed.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—A staging on which three painters were standing while painting the house 149 Marion street, East Boston, gave away at 11:45 o'clock this forenoon and the men were thrown a distance of 30 feet to the ground. They were: Charles Dickinson, 35 years of age, of 21 Dudley street; William Donovan, 21 New street; Robert Capelo, 166 Brooks street.

Dickinson received severe injuries, which caused his death about 15 minutes after the accident occurred. Donovan grasped a blind in the fall, and by clinging to that escaped serious injury. Capelo was but slightly injured. Donovan and Capelo were taken to their home. After Dickinson's body had been viewed by the medical examiner it was taken to his late home.

MADE GOOD HAULS.

Burglars Successfully Raid Houses In Framingham Centre.

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., Nov. 7.—Burglars entered the houses of Deacon George W. Bigelow and Dr. E. H. Bigelow, on Pleasant street, Framingham Centre, at an early hour this morning. At the doctor's house they secured watches and valuable jewelry. They carried most of Mr. Bigelow's clothes into the kitchen, but failed to find his money, which was in a coat pocket.

At Deacon Bigelow's house the thieves secured a pocketbook belonging to George D. Bigelow, a Boston lawyer, and a watch and jewelry belonging to Miss Fanny Bigelow. Here the thieves were frightened away by the inmates.

HORNBLOWER'S CASE.

President May Not Reappoint Him—The Hawaiian Question.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Your correspondent asked a prominent Democratic senator, who is a close friend of President Cleveland, whether he would reappoint Judge Hornblower as associate justice. He replied that he did not think the president would. The refusal of the senate to act in his case was paramount to rejection therefore, the senator could not see how President Cleveland could conscientiously reappoint him.

WILLIAM B. HORNBLOWER.

Judge Hornblower's friends, however, insist that he shall be reappointed. They assert that he is eminently qualified for the position, and that the non-action of the Democratic members of the senate judiciary was solely on account of Hornblower's politics, he being an anti-snapper and still in full sympathy with that organization.

The representatives of the Hawaiian provisional government here are very much discouraged on account of the delay on the part of President Cleveland in the Hawaiian affairs. One of the main troubles that confront the president now is that the condition of affairs on the island does not correspond with the representations made by Commissioner Blount.

That gentleman assured the president that the provisional government did not represent the respectable people on the island. Reliable information, however, is in possession of the government here which completely refutes that submitted by Blount. The action of the president through the secretary of the navy, in relieving Admiral Skerritt from his command there, who was on excellent terms with the members of the provisional government, is looked upon as being unfriendly to that government.

PRESIDENT CONCERNED.

Wants Democratic Victory In New York and All Along the Line.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Secretary Lamont who arrived from Washington last night registered from the Victoria hotel, and voted early this morning. He told friends last night that he would vote the straight Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

It was ascertained further from Secretary Lamont that President Cleveland is much concerned over the result today, and that in a conversation with Speaker Crisp and others in Washington, on Friday last he expressed an earnest hope for a Democratic victory all along the line.

OUR REPRESENTATIVE.

Sketches of the Political Careers of the Representatives From the Several Wards —Owen M. Donohoe and F. S. Bennett the New Men.

Representative Daniel J. Murphy of the 21st district, who has been reelected to the General court, was born in County Cork, Ireland, Sept. 15, 1843. He received his education in the schools of his native country and came to this city in 1867. He was employed successively by the Lowell Foundry and the Locks & Canals company and afterwards opened a grocery store at the corner of Broadway and Suffolk street. He was a member of the common council in '82, '84, '87 and '88, and while a member of this body he was noted for his keen foresight and the excellent judgment he displayed in all matters pertaining to the interest of his constituents. This year he made an excellent record in the legislature, and was particularly interested in all labor measures. Mr. Murphy has a strong hold upon the people of his ward as was shown by the large vote he has always received whenever he declared himself a candidate for the suffrages of the people. This year Mr. Murphy will serve the interests of his constituents in a praiseworthy manner, as he has done in the past.

The 25th. District.

Philip J. Farley Esq., who was re-elected yesterday to represent the 25th district in the great and general court is a native of this city, having been born in that section of the city, known as Belvidere in 1864. He is a graduate of the Moody and Lowell High schools, and was chosen to deliver the salutatory address when he graduated from the latter institution in 1880. Again in 1884 he was called upon to deliver the salutatory address as a member of the graduating class of 1884. Upon receiving his degree from Boston College, Mr. Farley entered Boston Law school and also studied in the office of Thomas Flatly of Boston. In 1888 he began to practice his profession in this city and has met with the greatest success in the pursuit of it.

Mr. Farley has also acquired a reputation as an orator and for several years was pressed into service in different parts of the state by the Democratic State committee.

He, at present, occupies the position of chairman of the democratic city committee and has proven an excellent leader, his timely counsel aiding much in steering the cause of democracy in the proper channel. The democrats of the 25th. district do well in entrusting their interests to such a bright young man and they may rest assured that Mr. Farley's action as a member of the house will give them no cause to regret the choice they have made.

The 22d District.

Owen M. Donohue, Ward Three's representative to the general court for next year is a native of Lowell and is the son of the late James Donohue, one of Lowell's most prosperous business men, and the brother of ex-Alderman Peter H. Donohue. He is 32 years of age. He received his education in the public schools of the city, graduating from them with honors. For the past fifteen years has been engaged in business meeting with great success.

In 1878 Mr. Donohue entered the field of politics and was elected to the common council from Ward Three. During his term he proved himself to be a straightforward democrat and was in 1880 re-elected to the council by a fine majority.

In 1890 he gained the nomination and was elected to the legislature and during his term there was ever to be found working in the interests of democracy and the laboring classes although his friends wished him to continue in politics he retired for a few years and when this fall he announced his intention of again seeking the seat in the legislature he received the nomination without much effort and as may be seen was elected.

In private life Mr. Donohue is very popular and has a host of friends, being possessed of the disposition and quality essential to win friends. He is a member of the Hibernians, Foresters and several other social and political clubs.

Total Gifts of Nearly $250,000.

MIDDLEBURY, Vt., Nov. 7.—Charles J Starr, who died in New York last Thursday, bequeathed $150,000 to the institution. Last year he had handed the college treasurer a check for $63,000, and before that he had given liberally, so that his total gifts have not been far from $250,000.

Attleboro Fair a Success.

NORTH ATTLEBORO, Mass., Nov. 7.—Reports made at the annual meeting of the Attleboro Agricultural association showed that the annual fair last month was a success and cleared $1100. It was voted to hold the next fair Oct. 2, 3 and 4, 1894, and have one day set apart for firemen's contests.

Burned to Death.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Martha Wainwright, 40 years of age, was burned to death in her tenement, at 9 Gilman street, this morning. She was alive at the time, and is supposed to have dropped her lamp. She was suffocated and her body was fearfully burned.

SOME POLICE NEWS.

How the Day Was Passed by the Blue Coats.

The election passed off quietly in police circles.

Two repeaters, presumably republicans, were arrested in precinct two of Ward Six, where they had attempted to vote more than once.

They gave their names as Daniel Shea and Thomas F. Burns, both of this city.

Burns is said to have voted on his own name and on that of his brother.

Shea is supposed to have voted on the name of a man who was buried but a day or two since.

Both will be arraigned in the police court, charged with illegal voting.

Yesterday afternoon the employes of the Bon Marche noticed a woman making trips to and from the store and acting in a suspicious manner. They notified the police and Inspectors Lafiamme and Allen went to the store and watched the woman.

Outside the store she had left a baby carriage in which was a small child. She was accompanied by two other children who walked by her side.

The officers found that her scheme was to go into the store and put some article of dry goods under her shawl and bringing it out deposit it in the baby carriage.

When the officers arrested her she had a number of pairs of stockings in her possession.

It was a pitable sight to see the poor woman leading her children to the police station in company with the inspectors while the little ones trotted gleefully along, not realizing their mother's unfortunate position.

At the police station the woman gave her name as Margaret H. Horne, and upon her were found 15 pairs of stockings, a dozen or more undershirts, a child's hood and some other small articles.

Mrs. Horne has never been arrested before, and has many friends to testify to her previous good character. It is thought by them that the woman through the results of hard times was driven to the act.

She was booked for shoplifting, and was bailed out.

The arrests for drunkenness yesterday were very few, and showed that the day was remarkably dry.

ALLEGED REPEATERS CAUGHT.

THREE MEN TAKEN INTO CUSTODY FROM WARD SIX.

Alleged Voting on the Name of a Man Who Has Just Been Laid Away in the Cemetery—Two Men Belong in Lowell.

Dennis Shea, aged 27 years years, and Thomas Burns, aged 25 years, were arrested yesterday afternoon for alleged repeating.

Shea says that he resides on Fenwick street, but it is said that he is here today and in Boston tomorow, spending his time between the two cities. It is true, however, that his parents reside on Fenwick street in this city. Burns lives with his folks on Fayette street.

It was a foolish piece of business on the part of these men, if the story is true to attempt to vote on the names of the men they did, inasmuch as the men whose names were given were very well known throughout Ward Six, and the repeaters themselves were well known to the police, and the election officers.

Burns made his appearance in the polling booth on East Merrimack street at 8.30 yesterday morning and gave his name as Bernard Burns, 59 High street. The precinct officers doubted if this was his name, but allowed him to pass. Sometime after the proper Bernard Burns came along and attempted to vote, but found that his name had been voted upon. He insisted that he had not voted and then the precinct officers began to see that their suspicions in the case of Burns No. 1 were well grounded. Bernard Burns was not allowed to vote. Had Thomas contented himself with one vote he would have been all right, but he made a second visit to the polling booth and voted upon his own name. Nothing was said to him by the warden, and he was allowed to depart. After he went, however, a controversy arose between the precinct officers and Officer Lennon, the former alleging that the latter was at fault in allowing Burns to depart, whereas in reality the warden was to blame. Officer Lennon, however, caught Burns later in the day over on Fayette street. Burns run into a house but the officer followed him and captured him. Burns is a brother to the man on whose name he attempted to vote.

Shea was caught in the High street precinct. The police officers over there knew him well, when he came up and gave the name of Matthew Mulvaney, 37 Concord street. Now it happens that Mr. Mulvaney died last Sunday at his residence and was buried yesterday morning. There was no better known man in the ward than the late Mr. Mulvaney and it is no wonder that the man who attempted to vote on his name was caught.

He Left the Window Open.

Triple Tragedy at Halifax.

HALIFAX, Nov. 7.—Richard Savage came here from New York last evening, and this morning visited his wife, whom he had left some months ago, and shot her and her 3-year-old daughter and then himself. The child is dead and the others cannot recover.

Burlington Grocer Assigns.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Nov. 7.—Henry W. Simonds, groceries, of this city, has made a voluntary assignment. Liabilities, about $11,000; assets, $6000 to $7000.

Alix Starts For Boston.

Cheap Railroad Rates.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The new passenger rates made by the Canadian Pacific, applying in both directions between the Atlantic seaboard and San Francisco, went into effect yesterday. The first-class rates between San Francisco and Chicago are $40.40; St Paul and Minneapolis, $30; New York, $49; Toronto, $40.80; and Boston, $50.50.

BOSTON MARKET

Recent Cold Snap Had Perceptible Effect.

Very Good in Some Lines of Business.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Almost every line of Boston's produce market has been more or less affected by the recent cold snap. A long continued open fall, with scarcely any killing frosts has enabled the farmer to come to market with his products without fear of neglecting farm work These conditions overstocked the market and prices were consequently lower. The late changes in the weather conditions have obliged the farmer to devote his immediate attention to protecting what crops are still in the fields, and consequently there has been a falling off of receipts at Boston and a firmer tone must be noted.

Dealers in the common varieties of vegetables report a good trade, but in the fancy lines where the greater profits are made, business does not seem as active as usual. Perhaps the wealthy are not spending so much money on the vegetable as is customary, owing to the hard financial times they are experiencing.

Some prices for the fine varieties of vegetables are: Cucumbers, $6 to $6.50 a hundred; cauliflower, $6 to $7 a box; green beans of native growth, $2.50 to $3 per box; lettuce, 15 to 20 cents per dozen; radishes, 75 cents per dozen bunches; sprouts, $4 to $4.50 a box; green peppers, 75 cents to $1 a bushel; watercress, 30 to 35 cents a dozen bunches; egg plant, $1.50 to $2 a dozen. Boston market celery, $4 to $5 a box; other varieties, $1.75 to $2 per box; mushrooms, $1 to $1.25 per pound; and oyster plant, 75 cents a dozen bunches.

Some prices for the staple winter vegetables are Hubbard squash $30 per ton Turban $15 to $20 in same quantity; ripe tomatoes range from $1.50 to $3.50 for the few that remain; green tomatoes are worth from 65 to 75 cents per bushel pumpkins sell but poorly at $1 a barrel carrots bring 40 cents per box; onions $1.75 to $2 in barrels; beets, 40 to 50 cents a bushel; cabbage, 60 to 75 cents a barrel rutabaga turnips, 60 to 75 cents a barrel smooth flat turnips, 20 to 40 cents a bushel, and spinach goes at 15 cents per bushel.

reports large receipts and a firmer feeling The cold weather has put an end to fear of rot, and growers are ready to send the stock, confident of its arrival in good condition. Fine Aroostook hebrons are higher this week, 65 and 70 cents a bushel being the prevailing quotation. New York and Vermont white stock bring 58 to 60 cents.

The Fruit Market

remains about the same as last week. Traders in apples are not doing their usual business on account of the short crop, and prices are naturally high. Good Baldwins are now quoted at $2 50 to $3 a barrel; greenings about the same, and Hubbardstons, $2 50. The Nova Scotia gravensteins, which were in such great favor a short while ago, are falling off in quality as the season advances, and this week bring hardly more than $3 50 a barrel.

The Cranberry Trade

continues to be very unsatisfactory. It is reported that a great portion of the crop is being held back waiting for better prices. When the holiday poultry trade begins it is hoped that cranberries will take a new start. From $4 to $4.25 a barrell is about all good cranberries will bring at the present time. Pears are doing well. Box bring $4 for the best, and Anjous and Sheldons $2 to $3. Grapes are very plenty. In five-pound baskets, Concords bring 11 to 13 cents; Catawbas, 11 to 12 cents; Niagaras, 14 to 15 cents; Delawares, 18 to 20 cents; and Salems, 15 cents.

Butter.

Prices in the butter market are: Fresh western stock, 27 1-2 to 28 cents; northern creamery, 28 cents; dairy lots from Vermont, 23 to 25 cents; cold stored stock, 26 to 27 cents.

The Quotations.

HAY—Hay is fairly firm, with the market at quotations as previously noted. Straw is quiet and steady, with rye straw at $13 50@14 Bran is firm, with a good trade, for the reason that the close of navigation is soon expected and everybody is pressing for the shipment of bran. Sack spring, to arrive, $16 25; sack winter, $17 75@18; sack spring middlings $17 25; sack winter, $19 50.

BEEF—The beef market is pretty firm, with the quotations as: Choice fancy steers, 9¾@9¾c prime, 7¼@8¼c; good, 7@7¼c; light, 5@6¼c extra heavy hinds, 13½@10c; good, 9@10c; light 7@8c; heavy fores, 5½@6½c; light, 4@4½c backs, 5@7½c; rattles, 4½@5½c; chucks, 4@6c rounds, 5@8c; rumps, 8@8c; rumps and loins 9@17c; short ribs, 7½@17c; loins, 8@10c.

MUTTONS AND LAMBS—The mutton market continues quiet, with the full supply. Choice to fancy lambs, 7@7½c; common to good, 6@6½c; poor and ordinary, 4@5c; Brightons, 7½@8c; yearlings, 6@7c; muttons, 6@6½c; poor to 4@5c; choice heavy Brightons, 7@7½c; choice eastern veals, 9@10½c; common to good, 5@7c Brightons and fancy, 10@11c.

POULTRY—Some dry packed northern and western turkeys are being received, but in small quantities. They are selling at 15@20c as to quality. The market is quoted at Northern turkeys, 15@20c; chickens, 15@18c western chickens, 8@10½c; fowls, 7@10c western iced turkeys, 12@14c; live fowls, 10c chickens, 9½@12c.

MEAL—Cornmeal is quiet, with the market steady. Oatmeal is fairly active: Kiln dried cornmeal for export, $2 20 per bbl: bag meal, 98c@$1; yellow granulated, $2 85@3: ground and rolled oatmeal, $4 50@4 65 per bbl; cut oat meal, $4 75@4 90 per bbl; rye, 65@67c per bushel for dealers, and at 70c for job lots; rye flour $3 50@4 per bbl.

CORN—Corn is a shade easier, on corn to arrive, with Chicago No. 2 yellow at 51c, and with No. 3 yellow at 50½c. New high mixed is quoted at 48½c. But the spot market is fairly firm, with the offerings not very heavy: No 2 yellow, 51c; steamer yellow, 50¾@51c; steamer mixed, 49½@50c.

POTATOES—Potatoes are firm, with a good demand; Houlton and Aroostook hebrons, 70@75c; Houlton and Aroostook rose, 63@65; New York stars and burbanks, 60@65c; Virginia cloth heads, extras, $1 75; Jersey bulk, $1 75@1 87½c; double heads, $2 25@2 50.

OATS—Oats are fairly firm, with Chicago clipped, to arrive, quoted at 88½c, and with fancy at 89c. The spot market is dull, with the quotations as: Clipped, 88@88½c; fancy, 89c; No. 2 white, 87½c; No. 3 white, 86½@87c mixed, 86@87c.

CHEESE—Cheese is very steady, with the market at: Northern full creams and twins 11¼@12½c; fair to good, 9@10½c; western choice, 10@11½c; fair to good, 8@9c; sage, 13@13½c. Liverpool is quoted at 55s.

Got $17,000 by Forgery.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—A. F. B. Crofton alias C. S. Butler, is charged with forging a number of drafts on the Bank of Montreal at Toronto, one of which, for $17,000, was presented at the First National bank, Chicago. The money was turned over to Butler, who left this city. Later the forgery was discovered and Butler was arrested in Texas.

Two Lowell Boys Escape From Deer Island To-Day.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

BOSTON, Nov. 7. The temporary bridge across Shirley from Winthrop to Deer Island and erected for use while the sewer is being laid, this morning, proved to be an avenue of escape for two boys who were serving time at the island.

Their names are Orlo Vanvolkingberg and Harry Holt. They are 15 and 16 years of age.

Both boys belong in Lowell, but ran away from their homes in that city some 6 months ago.

On Oct. 26 last they were arrested in this city while they were in the act of picking pockets on Winter street.

Inspector Knox was surprised to find how cleverly they worked, and investigation showed that they had been operating at the fairs that had been held in the adjoining suburbs during the summer and fall.

The boys were convicted in court and were delegated to spend their time until their majority was reached at the house of reformation on the island.

Hadly had they begun their work this morning before they slowly edged away from the others toward the bridge, and then breaking into a run made their escape over the bridge.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Drunken Man Kills His Wife, Her Cousin and Himself.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

ELYRIA, O., Nov. 7. Charles Manning last night shot and killed his wife and her cousin, Mrs. W. R. White, and then killed himself.

Princeton Students Indicted by the Grand Jury.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

TRENTON, Nov. 7. The Princeton students, who recently hazed Robert T. Leopold of Washington, were indicted yesterday, and they will have to stand trial here.

The hazers, who were all members of the sophomore class are David F. Edwards of Jersey City, Wm. H. Fulper of Flemington, N. J; Anselm E. Scaff of New York city; Micajah W. Pope of Annapolis, Md; Harry M. Anderson of Charlestown, S. C; Gordon Johnson of Birmingham, Ala., and Herbert M. Fitzgerald.

They are indicted for assault and battery. Prosecutor Stockton will communicate with them by mail, and if they fail to respond bench warrants will be issued.

Canadian Pacific's New Rates.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7—The new passenger rates made by the Canadian Pacific, applying in both directions between the Atlantic seaboard and San Francisco, went into effect yesterday. The first class rates between San Francisco and Chicago are $40.50; St. Paul and Minneapolis, $30; New York, $49; Toronto, $40.80 and Boston, $50.50.

Many "Seals" Lost Their Skins.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

VICTORIA, Nov. 7.—The statement of the North Pacific sealing catch placing the total at 120,241 is not complete. Instead of 2748 skins, San Francisco took 20,000 skins, but landed nearly all at Bakodate, Yokohama. The exact figures are not known, but it is believed the total will be in the neighborhood of 145,000 skins.

Voting in New York.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6. The election is going along quietly and the indications are those of the usual democratic majority.

MR. LENTHIER'S NAME.

Again Used in a Long Despatch to Hurt His Chances.

Below is given a Washington despatch to the Advertiser relating to Consul Lenthier: Josiah Quincy has got Mr. Cleveland to send to the senate again the name of Benjamin Lenthier, whom he tried so hard to put into the consular berth at Sherbrooke, Quebec. The senate has adjourned without confirming Lenthier, but he is put in for the interval, at any rate. Early last spring, Lenthier's name was sent to the senate and the Lowell man straightway began making preparations for consular service in Canada. But the senate refused to confirm him. It was one of Mr. Quincy's own appointments and the power of the administration was brought to bear upon the side of confirmation. But even then the senate refused to confirm Mr. Quincy's man.

"After the senate adjourned, Mr. Cleveland was prevailed upon by Mr. Quincy to send in Lenthier's name again, and the Lowell editor was given a commission to commence his consular duties until the senate met again. The senate met again, and has been in session three months, but Mr. Lenthier was not confirmed. It is understood that his name cannot be favorably reported upon nor can his nomination receive confirmation at the hands of the senate.

"Now that the senate has adjourned, Lenthier's name is promptly sent in again, as if the president wished him to act as consul.

"It will be interesting to see how long Mr. Quincy can get Mr. Cleveland to uphold his political friend Lenthier in the face of a determined and successful opposition in the senate."

A Point on Winter Cloaks.

When a woman goes to a store for Hair Pins she does not care to see a great assortment for hair pins are but hair pins. But when she wants a cloak it is different. She wants the largest possible assortment to choose from. There is some one in a large lot that suits her better than all the rest and that one garment is the one she wants. It follows that a woman can make the best choice where the largest variety and latest designs are shown and that is at the Beaver Cloak Co.'s new store in the P. O. block. Ladies, misses', and children's garments of all kinds and prices way down.

THE LATEST FIGURES.

Which Show the Plurality of Greenhalge Over Russell.

By Telegraph to THE SUN.

BOSTON, Nov. 8. The complete returns show that Hon. F. T. Greenhalge received 186,006 votes; Russell, 153,505; Banks, 8,053; a plurality for Greenhalge of 32,353.

SOME COMPETENT OPINIONS.

Ex-Mayor Palmer of Lowell.—I have always held that the personal magnetism of Mr. Greenhalge would be a powerful factor and I have believed that he would be the choice of the people whenever placed before them as a candidate for governor. The result is even better than I expected.

For the first time in the history of the commonwealth of Massachusetts a man of foreign birth was elected governor yesterday. The fact that Mr. Greenhalge was born in England does not seem to have worked to his disadvantage.—Herald.

In an interview, Mr. Greenhalge says: "I venture to predict that democratic rule is broken in this state for many years to come.

"The result is a fitting rebuke to democratic tariff principles, the mere threat of whose enforcement has brought such distress to our workingmen and paralysis to business. In my opinion the voice of this state will have much weight with the tariff tinkerers in the next congress.

"The weak-kneed policy of the democratic majority at Washington in regard to sound money had its influence, too, in yesterday's voting. The people endorsed the party that made repeal possible. I may say in conclusion that the democratic attempts to bring personal issues to bear in this campaign failed utterly."

HYMENEAL.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Mrs. Louisa Calef, at 154 First street, last evening. Her daughter, Charlotte Louisa, was married to Mr. Fred Harvey Loverin of Buffalo, Rev. Dr. Dana performing the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Sarah, as maid of honor, and Miss May Calef, Miss Jaques and Miss Swan, bridesmaids. The bride was gowned in white satin and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The maid of honor wore a yellow silk gown and the bridesmaids white crepe de chine. The best man was Mr. Horace Reed of Buffalo.

It was a chrysanthemum wedding, yellow and white prevailing. The American orchestra played the marches from Tannhauser and Lohengrin.

At the reception Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Loverin of Tilton, N. H., assisted in receiving. The ushers were Mr. J.B. Keyes, Mr. Arthur Prince and Mr. W. G. Preston of Buffalo. Mr. and Mrs. Loverin will reside in Buffalo.

IT WILL BE GOV. GREENHALGE.

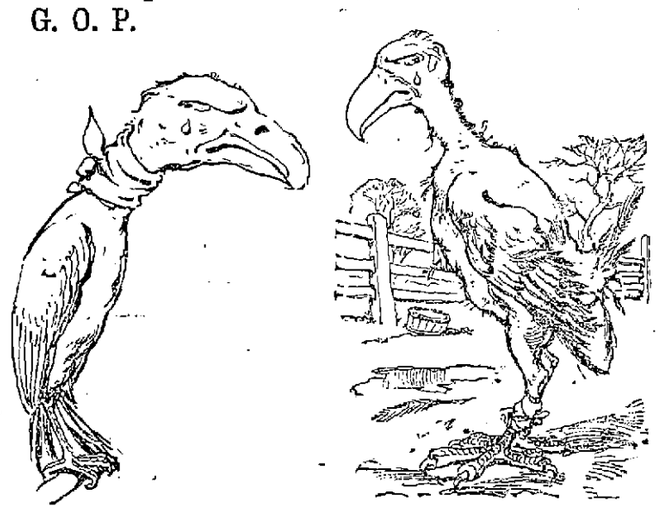
Democratic Party Fought Nobly, But the Calamity Shouters Had Thoroughly Frightened the People into Voting the Ticket of the G. O. P.



Some Cold Facts Which Make Our Birds Feel Sad and Weary.

The election is over and the democratic party has been routed rank and file. From all sides and all cities north, east and west come the stories of a republican victory which is startling in its immensity.

Wise ones will say that it was an "off year" and accordingly a republican year, but the hard pan fact is that the calamity shouters succeeded in frightening the people to such an extent that they thought the country was going to the proverbial "bow wows." It looks almost like a stampede from the democratic banner in New York, and for a reason only time will develop.

To put into a few words the facts concerning the election—and facts which are hard for democratic digestion—is to say that the inflated reports as brought in by the wire show that the republicans have fairly swept New York, Iowa, Ohio and New Jersey.

And as for Massachusetts, Hon. F. T. Greenhalge will be the next governor, sweeping the state by a plurality, which, while only imperfectly completed yet will exceed 21,000.

Nearly all the cities and towns near Lowell have been heard from and the way the small majorities for Mr. Greenhalge came in makes the reading somewhat monotonous for the democrats.

For instance take Dracut which gave last year Russell 182; Haile, 109; this year gives Greenhalge, 224; Russell, 153.

Billerica—Greenhalge, 327; Russell, 148; Below is given a table of the larger towns and cities and those of greatest interest to Lowell readers:

One of the big surprises of the evening was the figures from Leicester, John E. Russell's home, Greenhalge carrying it by 246 to 208, while last year Haile beat W. E. Russell by only 13 votes, 321 to 308.

At midnight 280 cities and towns reported a net democratic loss of 17,860.

Three minutes later 309 cities and towns reported a net loss to the democrats of 18,000, and it was predicted in Boston that Greenhalge would have a plurality exceeding 20,000.

The Prohibition vote did not differ materially from last year's figures, but the Populists managed to increase their total 100 per cent. The Socialist-Labor vote was insignificant.

Hon. John E. Russell retired early in the evening on hearing the news, and declined to be interviewed on the result. He refused all cards.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Returns indicate the election of Republican senators, 18; Democrat senators, 14; Republican assemblymen, 74; Democratic assemblymen, 54; Republican majority in senate, 4; in house, 20; on joint ballot, 24.

One of the most peculiar campaigns in the history of the state was closed at sundown last evening, and it is safe to say that the Democratic managers are not more surprised at the result than are the Republicans. The dominant issue in all portions of the state has been ring rule, and the Republicans in New York city, Brooklyn, Albany and Buffalo have been greatly assisted by the organized efforts of independent Democrats.

Isaac H. Maynard, the candidate on the Democratic ticket for judge of the court of appeals, against whom the independent Democrats have waged most bitter and unrelenting war, has been surprisingly and overwhelmingly defeated. In New York city he ran 35,000 behind his ticket, in Brooklyn over 18,000 and in Erie county several thousands. Almost without exception the returns from every part of the state show that he was heavily scratched; even 10 of "Boss" McKane's retainers at Coney Island scratched him.

The result seems to be that he has been defeated by a plurality close in the neighborhood of 100,000. Practically complete returns from many of the counties of the state and scattering returns from the others indicate that the Republicans have elected their entire state ticket and that they will have a good working majority in the next legislature.

In Brooklyn the local campaign was fought most bitterly. Mayor Boody, who was renominated by the Democrats, was opposed by the Young Men's Independent Democratic club in Brooklyn most fiercely. Candidate Schieren was endorsed with the result that the Democratic majority of 29,000 at the last election has absolutely overturned and a Republican mayor elected by about 15,000.

William J. Gaynor, the prominent Democrat who for the past two years has led in the fight against Boss McLaughlin and his wing, was nominated by the Republicans for supreme court judge in the Second district, with the result of a 20,000 majority in his favor.

The local contest in New York city was very uninteresting, the Republicans making but small effort in behalf of their local ticket. The complete returns for the city show the election of the entire Tammany ticket by majorities ranging between 57,000 and 62,000.

IOWA.

DES MOINES, Nov. 8.—The election in this state closed without any trouble or excitement so far as heard from at either headquarters. Chairman Blythe of the Republican and Chairman Fuller of the Democratic committee are both here. Both Republican and Democratic losses are shown, but the latter is in larger ratio than the former. Jackson (Rep.) has defeated Boies (Dem.) by about 30,000.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

YANKTON, S. D., Nov. 8.—Information received here from the headquarters of the Republican and Democratic central committees assure the election of all Republican candidates for judgeships upon the Republican ticket. The vote cast will be about one-half, or 40,000, of which the Republican candidates will receive 65 per cent. Actual figures will not be available until tonight.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—The latest figures indicate that Governor McKinley's majority over Neal will be, at the lowest estimate, 60,000. The Republicans held jollification meetings here last night in honor of their great victory. Headquarters were turned into pandemonium, and red fire burned with all its usual accompaniments. In a speech here Dolliver eulogized McKinley as the man of destiny. Morrison said they had elected McKinley governor and had nominated him for president. Kemple said that Ohio had recorded herself for protection and the champion of protection, and West Virginia would fall in with her. Bonfires and cannon followed the speaking.

KANSAS.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 8.—Meager returns from Kansas indicate a great falling off in the Populist vote. Cherokee county, which gave 1700 majority for the Populists in 1892, and Sumner county, another Populist stronghold, have been carried by the Republicans. Crowley county, in which the vote was very close in 1892, also has gone Republican.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, Nov. 8.—Returns from the state are coming in slowly. The scattering vote indicates Republican losses on the head of the ticket and Populist gains. The battle between Harris (Rep.) and Holcomb (Pop.) will be very close. The result in this county will determine the outcome in the state, and the vote here will not be counted before this afternoon.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 8.—Advices from the state at large indicate that the usual Democratic majority in the legislature will be slightly increased. In western Kentucky, where the Populists were strongest last year, the Democrats have made gains. The election passed off quietly.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Nov. 8.—O'Ferrall's majority will probably reach 40,000, according to the ratio of Democratic gains on the remainder of the ticket. There is no doubt that Democrats have carried at least 20 out of the 25 senators and have elected eight of the 10 of the house of delegates.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, Nov. 8.—The contest between Griffin (Dem.) and Stone (Rep.) for congress in the First district, as successor to the late J. Logan Chipman, is very close. Fifty-six out of 95 precincts give Griffin 9892, Stone, 9552.

NEW JERSEY.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 8.—The Republicans will surely have a majority in the legislature. Last year the Democrats had a two-thirds majority in the house.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—The Democrats have carried the election in this state by about 20,000.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—The Republicans have carried the state by 75,000 majority.

Quarter of a Mile in 26 2-5s.

HARTFORD, Nov. 8.—The Banker brothers on a tandem broke the record for the quarter-mile flying start, doing it in 26 2-5s. The previous record was held by McDuffie and Clark, 27s. flat, made at Springfield, Mass.

He Left the Window Open.

Triple Tragedy at Halifax.

HALIFAX, Nov. 7.—Richard Savage came here from New York last evening, and this morning visited his wife, whom he had left some months ago, and shot her and her 3-year-old daughter and then himself. The child is dead and the others cannot recover.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Tenney gives the entertainment at the Women's branch of the People's club, Saturday evening.

They Kept Open House.

The Yorick club held "open house" all last night. The members were out in force and a gay time was had at the rooms of the club in Mansur block. Returns were received from all over the state and the club was also in communication with the republican state committee in Boston. When it became apparent that Greenhalge was elected, the affair took the form of a jollification meeting.

This continued during the whole evening and the members celebrated Governor-Elect Greenhalge's victory in grand style.

CLEVER CATCH

GREAT HAUL OF BOOTY IN THE FORM OF VALUABLES.

Men Hail From Different Cities of the East.

Over in Inspectors Laflamme and Allen's office at the police station there is sufficient jewelry to carry on a first class jewelry store.

It is a haul made by the two inspectors about 11.30 this morning, and the capture they made is from all indications an important one. At 9.30 this morning Arthur Staples of the firm of Staples Bros. sent word to the police station that one of his hired men, upon entering his barn on School street this morning found three colored silk scarfs, a fine pair of field glasses and a guitar.

and see if any one would turn up and claim the goods. Of course, from the time the inspectors heard of the discovery in the barn, they made up their minds that the booty belonged to some parties who had slept in the barn during the night and had placed the goods there, supposing the barn to be a good hiding place, until they could return and take the articles along with them. At any rate the inspectors were not far off in the judgment, for they had scarcely taking a view of the surroundings when they saw two fellows walking toward the barn. They watched them to see what they might do The fellows walked along, little thinking, what awaited them. Suddenly one of them caught sight of the inspectors and the two started to run with the inspectors in pursuit. The inspectors watched where their men went and tracked them to the red bridge down back of the Lamson store service company's works. They saw them go along down toward the bridge, and join six more men. Laflamme and Allen then took a roundabout course and coming upon the men from an unsuspected passageway, succeeded in capturing three of them.

These three men were taken to the police station, and the others escaped for the time being, but among the number the inspectors recognized one of the men whom they had seen coming towards the barn.

When the captured men were safely landed at the police station a search was begun for the remainder of the crowd. The two inspectors followed the Stony Brook tracks which cross over the red bridge and run through Middlesex village. On the way Officer Buchanan joined in the hunt, and when the party reached Middlesex village they saw their quarry. The much wanted men were walking along the tracks just as the officers thought they would be. Before they knew it the officers were on top of them and had four of them securely handcuffed, and started with them to the nearest signal box. The fifth man escaped. At the station the men were booked as follows: James Hines, Providence, R. I., Thomas Clarke, Springfield, Mass., James Burke, residence unknown, Henry W. Byrnes, Chicago, Timothy McCarthy, Fenwick street, Lowell, Patrick Cassidy, Providence, R. I. Their ages vary from 17 to 30 years. McCarthy claims that he knows nothing about the crowd, but simply met them and went with them.

Hines, who was one of the first brought in, had a cameo pin, solid gold hair pin, several bunches of keys, containing about 40 keys, several stub tickets on the Boston & Maine road, pair of ladies' garters, two pairs of spectacles, two butterfly pins set with rubies and sapphires, large pin set with brilliants and opal, gold scarf pin, silver cross with ruby settings, a bug pin, with body set with about 30 brilliants, pair of tweezers, candles, box of cartridges, alarm clock.

In Clarke's pockets were found a cluster ring marked "Edward to Flora," amethyst ring with flower leaf setting, one marked "P," gold ring marked "E. to F., Dec. 25, 1891," gold bracelet, alarm clock, brass key, marked "Palace, 1889," two revolvers, knife, souvenir spoon, from Kiko House, Moosehead Lake, Me., and oxidized silver receptacle with gold lining, two small pieces of ivory.

Byrne had in his possession a lock of hair, comb and case, three bladed knife with pearl setting, watch with Columbus movement, razor marked "Byrnes," admission ticket to the World's Fair on Chicago day, fee card issued to D. Wilson, Buffalo Typographical union, No. 993, typewritten letter and a letter to Henry W. Byrnes, Syracuse, N. Y., enclosing a deed of a lot of land, from the W. J. Dolan estate of Syracuse, N. Y., pair of gaiters, books and small scraps of paper.

Some of the men wore two pairs of trousers.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The funeral of Mary M. Graham took place this afternoon from her late home, 58 Willie street and was largely attended. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

Total Gifts of Nearly $250,000.

MIDDLEBURY, Vt., Nov. 7.—Charles J Starr, who died in New York last Thursday, bequeathed $150,000 to the institution. Last year he had handed the college treasurer a check for $69,000, and before that he had given liberally, so that his total gifts have not been far from $250,000.

Attleboro Fair a Success.

NORTH ATTLEBORO, Mass., Nov. 7.—Reports made at the annual meeting of the Attleboro Agricultural association showed that the annual fair last month was a success and cleared $1200. It was voted to hold the next fair Oct. 2, 3 and 4, 1894, and have one day set apart for firemen's contests.

Burned to Death.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Martha Wainwright, 40 years of age, was burned to death in her tenement, at 9 Gilman street, this morning. She was alive at the time, and is supposed to have dropped her lamp. She was suffocated and her body was fearfully burned.

Le Cercle Canadien entertained friends during the evening and exulted over the election of Mr. Greenhalge.

BRADY TO BE OUR SENATOR.

The Single "Brand Plucked From the Burning."

The Glorious Victory That Revived the Drooping Spirits of Our Birds.

It will be Senator Peter J. Brady after January first. He laid Senator Frederick Lawton on the shelf, after a contest which was not determined by figures until the last precincts were in.

Yes, Brady won, and Greenhalge carried the city and state.

From the battle the democrats have only the following successful candidates:

Peter J. Brady, senator, with a majority of 158.

Daniel J. Murphy, representative, from Ward One, re-elected.

Philip J. Farley, representative, Ward Six, re-elected.

Here is what the republicans got:

Hon. F. T. Greenhalge carries Lowell by 441 votes. J. Stuart Murphy barely wins the representative fight in Ward Two; re-elected E. S. Foss, re-elected, F. S. Bennett of Tyngsboro, elected representatives in the 24th district, with Rep. W. H. I. Hayes in doubt as he was fearfully cut throughout the district.

In the balance of the ticket the republicans win as usual, although W. A. Read, dem., for county commissioner ran ahead of his ticket but not so strongly as anticipated. It looks as if the republicans voted nearly straight giving Brady the preference in cutting.

Last year Gov. Russell carried Lowell by 781; the upheaval is something terrible.

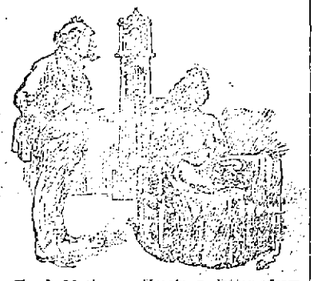
Hard For George.



Fond Mother — Here's a letter from George. He says he hasn't much time to write on account of the severe head work he is doing. Poor boy! I'm afraid he'll study himself to death before he gets through college.

This is George in the striped Jersey doing some of the severe headwork aforementioned.—Puck.

A Woman's Heart.

She (gently)—I am afraid I do not love you enough to be your wife, but I shall always be your friend and sincerely wish for your happiness.

He (moodily)—I know what I'll do.

She (anxiously)—You surely will not do yourself an injury?

He (calmly)—No, I will find happiness. I will marry some one else.

She—Horrors! Give me another day to consider, dear.—New York Weekly.

Villainous.

"John," said De Brook's wife, "I don't know what to do about the hired girl."

"Why don't you fire her?"

"I have, but I can't get rid of her."

"H'm. I'll attend to that tomorrow morning."

"How?"

"I'll get up early and show her how to light the fire with kerosene. Then we'll let nature take it's course."—Washington Star.

Not Prepared to Say.

"You're from Oklahoma, are you?" said the long whiskered passenger on his way to a Populist convention. "Well, what seems to be the situation out there?"

"I couldn't find any," replied the passenger with the frazzled trousers. And the conversation lagged.—Chicago Tribune.

The Strain Soon Over.

"Now, lady, look beautiful and happy," said a William street photographer to the young woman. "So. That's it. There, I have you. Now you may resume your natural expression."—Buffalo Courier.

The Five Great Powers.

Good Advice.

Toper—What shall I take, doctor, to remove the redness of my nose?

Doctor—Take nothing—for three months!—Hallo.

Accomplishments.

"I can dress myself!" bragged Willie.

"And I," said Bobbie proudly, "I can wipe my own nose!"—Brooklyn Life.

At His Word.

A one eyed man with cork soled shoes was vociferously offering to sell 12 lead pencils for a nickel without appreciable effect upon the ebb and flow of trade.

A youth just budding into manhood with every indication of an arrested development turned to the maiden at his side and said:

"Miss Undergore, the least expected always happens."

To which she replied:

"Thank you, Mr. Letherhed. I will take ice cream soda with raspberry flavor, if you please."

There was a quaver in the voice of the one eyed party with the cork soled shoes.

KIDNEY TROUBLE AND Rheumatism Cured!

Read the following wonderful statement from David K. Hill, Newburyport, Mass.

"I was taken with 'La Grippe' one year ago last February, and had been sick about two weeks when I began using and in four days after I began I had a good appetite and commenced gaining in flesh. In three months I increased in weight from 160 to 204 pounds. I was also troubled with Kidney Trouble affecting my legs so that I was at times unable to get out of bed, and I am happy to say gentlemen, that I am entirely cured of the effects of 'La Grippe', Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism by the use of DANA'S SARSAPARILLA."

THE TEST RATE

Just What is Meant By $3 a Month.

Drs. Pearson and Carroll Have Extended the Offer of Last Month to Give the Public an Absolutely Fair Opportunity of Judging Between Them and Other Doctors—No Larger Fee Than $3 Per Month Will be accepted in Any Case Before Dec. 1.

Here is the proposition:

All patients applying during November will receive treatment and medicine for a full month of 30 days from date of application for the one fee of $3 and will be entitled to continue at this rate until cured. This applies to all old patients renewing as well as to new patients. It includes medicines and daily attention—everything necessary to a thorough course of treatment.

Dr. Pearson and his associates determined that the public should have an absolutely fair opportunity of judging between them and other doctors. Hence this liberal offer was made and has been maintained since the first of last month. During this time no patient has been permitted to pay more than $3 for a full month's treatment and medicines, no matter what the disease.

Let this one thing be fully understood, the offer is for a limited time only. It will apply to all who begin treatment before Dec. 1.

Dr. Pearson now extends to every man, woman and child in Lowell an opportunity to test for themselves the superiority of their skill. The newspaper columns have demonstrated the truth of what they say, and under the test rate the public will demonstrate the skill of what they do. The offer as printed above is so plain that no one can possibly misunderstand it. There is now not the least obstacle in the way of anyone, and Dr. Pearson feels that the renewal of the liberal test offer for another month will afford even a more general and more complete demonstration of the superiority of his work.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Drs. Pearson and Carroll will not move into their new offices tomorrow, the 9th, but will remain at their present location, 161 Central Street, until further notice. This change is necessary as the new building is not quite ready. Ample notice of the date of their removal will be given.

RESULTS THAT TELL.

There is No Uncertain Sound to Mr. Norcross' Testimony.

It is from people whom the community know, and know well, that comes this testimony—as to the superiority of Dr. Pearson's work. It is from people that men and women of standing and self-respect may go and consult. Note the significance in the following interview from Mr. A. G. Norcross of 38 Stackpole street. Mr. Norcross is a prominent member of the G. A. R., and has a wide circle of friends in this city. It is the testimony of good men and worthy citizens that marks beyond question the character of this work that distinguishes it in its value to mankind.

A. G. NORCROSS, 38 Stackpole street.

It was no trifling or ordinary form of catarrhal trouble from which Mr. Norcross suffered. He says that the disease had extended to his throat, chest and stomach, and at last developed into bronchial catarrh with alarming symptoms. In speaking of his cure by Drs. Pearson and Carroll Mr. Norcross says: "I had been affected for 6 or 8 years and had spent a good deal of money for remedies and physicians, but had got no relief until I came to Drs. Pearson and Carroll. Under their skillful treatment I have steadily improved until now the alarming symptoms are all gone. My head is clear and free from obstruction. The troublesome cough has left me. I do not have those sharp pains or any tightness in my chest. I have a good appetite, rest well at night and feel stronger and better than I have for years. Drs. Pearson and Carroll have given me such wonderful relief that I am more than glad to have an opportunity of testifying to the skill of these physicians. I will verify in person every word I say in print."

To All Whom It May Concern.

There are undoubtedly many people who feel at some time or another unwell, but really sick but very indisposed. Now, what such persons need at such times, is not medicine, nor high-priced prescriptions, but what is needed is some gentle, but sure stimulant, something to assist and at the same time enrich the blood; nature will do the rest. And the best medical authorities agree there is nothing better than pure wine.

ALL INTERRED

OF THE TERRIBLE SENTANDERS EXPLOSION DISASTER.

Over 1000 Persons Killed by the Shock.

MADRID, Nov. 7.—The latest details concerning the terrible disaster at Santander on Friday last show that the number of dead, missing and wounded is fully 1000. The people have not yet recovered from the effects of the catastrophe, and are entirely apathetic, paying no attention to business, but standing about the streets discussing the awful calamity that has befallen the city.

Men and women living near the water front who providentially escaped from the wreckage of their homes, can be seen in numbers standing near the huge masses of debris that fill the streets, waiting to recover the bodies of those that are known to be under the ruins.

beyond recognition, is removed from the ruins a heartrending wail goes up from the women, who fear that the shapeless mass of flesh may be all that remains of one of their loved ones. There is no doubt that many of the dead will never be identified.

Senor Gamazo, minister of finance, who at once proceeded from Madrid to Santander when the extent of the calamity became known, is doing everything in his power to awaken the authorities to the fact that they must arouse themselves and set about repairing the damage the city has sustained. As soon as he arrived he summoned the town officials and expressed to them the sympathy of the government. He also assured them the

When Senor Gamazo saw how helpless the authorities were in the crisis confronting them, he in a great measure took the administration of affairs in his own hands. He telegraphed to Valladolid, ordering that medical stores, nurses and other helpers be at once sent to Santander.

A subscription for the relief of the sufferers was started, Senor Gamazo heading it with a gift of $5,000 on behalf of the government.

Many of the dead were buried yesterday. Among the bodies interred was the

of the Marquis de Fonba. The services were attended by large crowds of people, and many distressing scenes were witnessed. Many of the fragments of bodies found in the vicinity of the quay were buried in a common grave.

The divers who were employed to recover the bodies in the bay have been so appalled in the number of the dead and gruesome appearance of the corpses that they have refused to continue their work.

SERVICE INEFFICIENT.

People of Madrid Clamor For News, but Messages Will Not Be Sent.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Times' correspondent in Madrid complains thus of the utter inefficiency of the Spanish telegraph service:

The telegraph service fails in a most miserable state whenever a slight extra strain is put upon it. We still are without really trustworthy details of the Santander disaster.

The public besiege the offices begging for news, but the officials sternly refuse to receive or deliver private messages, declaring that the lines are partially blocked or are needed for official messages. A similar state of things has lasted for weeks in connection with events at Melilla.

WANTS HIS MONEY BACK.

Advertised For a Wife and Is Fleeced Out of $630 In Cash.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Paul Hearn, 67 years of age, living in Bergen county, N. J., received from the government several months ago about $1700 back pension money and thought he would advertise for a wife.

One of the many replies he received was signed "Catherine Harrington," and seemed to please the old man. The writer said she was 35 years old, a blonde plump in figure, thoroughly domestic in habits and religiously inclined.

The old man had a personal interview and was instantly enthralled. He invited Catherine to visit his place. She was charmed with everything, and at his request remained several days to arrange the interior of the house, preparatory to the marriage.

The old man received a note from the woman last week saying that she soon would be up and bring her "brother" along with her. When the couple appeared the "brother" said to the farmer:

"We might as well settle this business at once. We've been making love to my wife and trying to steal her from me and I want $1000.

When the dazed old man began to protest the "brother" became violent, and so frightened the old man that he gave up $630.

Old Farmer Hearn now wants to know if there is any way of getting his money back without exposing the fact that he had made "a darn fool of himself."

CUP FOR ISELIN.

No Challenge For America's Cup Expected From England in 1894.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Ex-Commodore Smith, the chairman of the American cup committee, said today that he hardly expected a challenge from England for an international race in 1894, but that it might come before Jan. 1, the limit of time in the present deed of gift.

The next event of interest in connection with the recent international yacht races will be the presentation of a handsome cup to C. Oliver Iselin, by the cup committee, on behalf of the New York Yacht club as an evidence of the club's appreciation of Mr. Iselin's work in building and preparing Vigilant for the trial and the international races.

An order has been given for the cup, which will be completed in about a fortnight. It will be a very handsome and elaborate cup, and a banquet will probably be given when it is presented to Mr. Iselin.

Print Works on Full Time.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—The Clyde print works, one of the largest concerns in the Pawtuxet valley, which have been on short time since last July, have started up on full time.

A Collector, but He Fails.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 7.—William H. Saxton, jeweler, has failed. Mr. Saxton was collector of the port of New London, having been appointed by President Harrison.

LAKE HURON DISASTER.

BY IT TWENTY-FIVE LIVES ARE SENT TO ETERNITY.

Freight Boats Come In Collision During a Very Heavy Fog—Both Go Down in a Very Short Time.

SAND BEACH, Mich., Nov. 8.—The propeller Albany of the Western Transit company, loaded with grain, and the propeller Philadelphia of the Anchor line, loaded with coal and general merchandise, two of the largest freight boats on the lakes, collided off Point Aux Barques, in a dense fog, and both sank shortly afterward in 200 feet of water.

The Philadelphia struck the Albany head-on forward of No. 2 gangway. All hands got on board the Philadelphia and she towed the Albany half an hour, when the latter vessel sank. The Philadelphia went down 20 minutes later.

Both crews got away in two small boats. The second small boat, containing 25 men from both crews, capsized and all were lost.

Life-saving crews were out and found boat No. 2 upside down. They picked up 11 bodies with life preservers on, and it is supposed that the whole crew of 24 men are drowned, eight of the Albany's crew and the balance of the Philadelphia's crew.

The Albany was bound from Chicago to Buffalo with grain and general merchandise, and the Philadelphia was bound from Buffalo to Duluth with a miscellaneous cargo. Both were steel steamers. The Albany was built in Detroit in 1884, and was worth $150,000, and is believed to be partially insured. The Philadelphia was built by David Bell at Buffalo in 1887, and was valued at $80,000.

Eighteen Perished.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—By the burning of the steamer Frazer yesterday on Lake Nipissing, 18 persons lost their lives. The disaster occurred near Goose island, and in spite of the most strenuous efforts to save life the above number perished. Only the most meager particulars are obtainable.

LASTERS LEAVE AUBURN.

They Had Just Been Engaged to Take Places of Strikers.

AUBURN, Me., Nov. 8.—There was a ripple of excitement in the shoe trouble yesterday caused by the arrival on the morning train of George G. Heath, superintendent of the Munroes, Packard & Lincoln shop, with a crew of 25 men from Boston.

The men were taken from the train to the shop, where they worked to the noon hour. Immediately after dinner they were persuaded to go up to the Lasters' union hall, where they had a conference with the union men.

The men claimed that they were induced to come here by the representatives of the manufacturers, who assured them that there was no trouble here, and that everything was quiet. As the result of the conference with the union, 19 of them returned home last night.

Swedenborgian Leader Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Rev. Chauncy Giles, the leader of the New Jerusalem society in this country, died in West Philadelphia. The reputation of Dr. Giles as a writer on religious subjects is world-wide, his discourses having been translated into nearly every language. He was born at Charlemont, Mass., 1813. In 1857 he was elected president of the general convention of the Church of the New Jerusalem in the United States, and this office he held up to the time of his death.

Prominent Bostonians Dead.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—General Samuel James Bridge died at the Norfolk House, in his 85th year, after a brief illness. He was born in Dresden, Me., June 1, 1809. He was never married.

Hon. Alvah A. Burrage, a prominent merchant of this city, an ex-alderman and former member of the state senate, is dead. He was born in North Leominster May 30, 1823.

Captured In Ohio.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Captain Cain last evening received a dispatch from the police authorities of Springfield, O., telling him to send a man to bring back Antonio Sacco, who shot and killed James Squire in this city, May 28. The police have been wanting for Sacco most industriously ever since and hope that the man arrested in Ohio is the murderer.

Canada Looks Toward Australia.

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—The Dominion government has cabled Hon. McKenzie Bowell, Canadian minister of trade and commerce, who is now in Australia, that they will be glad to arrange for a conference in Canada with representatives of Australian colonies to discuss the question of better trade relations between the two countries.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The North Pacific sealing catch amounts to 145,000 skins.

There is doubt about the reappointment of Judge Hornblower as associate justice.

It is now said that the dead, missing and injured in the Santander disaster number 1050.

Hon. James M. Shute, at one time member of the governor's council, died at Boston.

A conspiracy to rob the United States mails at Robert E. Lee, Tex., was unearthed.

A forger got $1500 from the Flower City bank, Rochester, but was captured at Canandaigua.

Two men were killed and two fatally injured by a boiler explosion at Sand Mountain, Ala.

France and England informed the United States that they will not interfere in Brazil's quarrel.

Industrial depression will probably result in reduced help and diminished train service on the Consolidated road.

A passenger train over the Boston and Maine railroad struck and killed an unknown man near Tyngsboro, Mass.

Charles Martin, a young man of wealth, shot Patty Cole three times at Dallas, killing her. He then committed suicide.

English mine owners' proposals were rejected by the miners, and resolutions adopted that all miners should at once quit work.

Arlo Van Volkingburgh and Harry Hort, confined at Deer island (Boston) for picking pockets, walked past the guards and escaped.

The treasury department decided that James Ingraham, detained at Boston as a contract laborer, must be returned to Newfoundland.

Herbert Cudjoe, a boy who was trying to steal a ride on a New England road freight train at Hawleyville, Mass., was run over and killed.

Mulvey Held For Trial.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 8.—Peter Mulvey was yesterday arraigned for the murder of his father, in accordance with the finding of the inquest upon his father's death, and was bound over to the higher court.

AMERICAN SHIP

President Vasquez Threatened to Sink the Ship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald prints the following dispatch from La Libertad, Honduras: By the alleged orders of President Vasquez and by the express command of the commissioner of the port of Amapala, seven cannon shots were fired after the Pacific mail steamship Costa Rica, flying the stars and stripes, as she steamed away this (Monday) morning, because she refused to surrender one of her passengers to the Honduras government.

The passenger about whom the trouble arose is Policarpo Bonilla, who recently led the revolution in Honduras, but was defeated by General Vasquez. He then fled to Nicaragua, and with 300 of his coherents joined the army of President Sacasa, who was engaged in an

Bonilla had decided to leave Nicaragua in order to relieve the government from all responsibility of harboring him. He therefore sailed from Corinto for Guatemala on Nov. 4 on the Costa Rica.

American Minister Baker and more than 100 persons were his fellow passengers. They arrived Sunday morning off Amapala, port of entry of Honduras, on the Pacific coast, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon Commander of the Port Villiri demanded that Captain Dow should surrender Bonilla.

When this request was refused a threat was made to sink the ship, and it was asserted that President Vasquez had given strict orders to that effect. An official protest against the refusal to surrender Bonilla was presented to the captain at 6 o'clock, and clearance papers were only issued to the ship after nightfall, when it was too dark to leave the harbor with safety.

A government officer came on board at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning and stated that new orders had been received from the president insisting on the delivery of Bonilla or

The Bombardment of the Ship.

Captain Dow replied that the commander of the port would receive his answer in half an hour, but before that time had expired he steamed away. Seven shots were fired after the Costa Rica, although she flew the American flag.

None of the shots struck her, however, but it is feared the steamship City of Panama of the same line, which was lying in the port, may have been injured, because the firing continued for some time after the Costa Rica was out of range.

The congress of Honduras has conferred upon President Vasquez full power to make war upon Nicaragua whenever a revolution or an invasion of revolutionists from that republic occurs.

Escaped From Deer Island.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The temporary bridge across Shirley Gut from Winthrop to Deer Island, erected for use while the sewer is being laid this morning, proved to be an easy avenue of escape for two boys who were serving time at the island. Their names are Orlo Vanvolkingburg and Harry Hoyt. They are 15 and 16 years of age. Both lads belong in Lowell, but ran away from their homes in that city some six months ago.

Fitchburg Mills Booming.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Nov. 7.—Jerome Mossman's woodworking shop is now running full blast. He said yesterday that he had large orders conditional on the repeal of the silver purchase bill. The Booli mills are running on full time again, with many orders and good prospects. The Baldo mills began running overtime the day after the repeal measure was passed, and at 9 p. m. has been the closing hour for a week.

Heavy Catch of Seals.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 7.—The statement of the North Pacific sealing catch, placing the total at 129,241, is not complete. Instead of 2748 skins, San Francisco schooners took 23,000 skins, but landed nearly all at Hakodate and Yokohama. The exact figures are not known, but it is believed the total will be in the neighborhood of 145,000 skins.

Johnson's Latest.

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., Nov. 8.—Johnson yesterday made an effort to lower the world's flying start mile bicycle record. He covered the distance in 1:53 3-5, beating Windle's record one fifth of a second. He also beat his standing start record by going a mile in 2:02 1-5. His flying start record is now represented by the same figures as his fast mile here last year, which was not accepted as a record.

Supreme Court Defied.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 8.—There was a good deal of excitement at Gravesend yesterday. Armed with the order issued by Justice Barnard of the supreme court compelling Supervisor McKane to allow the Republican inspectors to watch the voting, a party of William J. Gaynor's supporters left the latter's house in Brooklyn at 4:30 this morning, under the leadership of Colonel Alex S. Bacon. The party numbered about 30, and proceeded in carriages to Gravesend.

They carried with them the order issued by Justice Barnard and entered Gravesend from four different directions, and found McKane and his police force drawn up around the courthouse. They had marked a line 300 feet away from the courthouse. The injunction of the supreme court was set at defiance.

Colonel Bacon tried to serve an injunction on Chief McKane. He told them he had an injunction of the supreme court, and was there under its authority. Chief McKane directed officers to seize Colonel Bacon and take him to a cell, where he was locked up. Nearly all of the men who went down were assaulted in the most brutal manner.

Herbert S. Worthly, a young man who was among them, was struck a violent blow on the mouth. His face is swollen so that he is scarcely recognizable. Dr. Marshall had his whiskers torn off. Rev. Robert J. Kent, who was also one of the watchers, was knocked down and trampled upon, and is missing. Peter Rosenbeck is also missing. The other men got away after being brutally beaten.

Mr. Grout was seized and thrown against the carriage and was severely hurt. Another one had his head cut. All of them have bruises of one kind or another. They were told by McKane to get out of the town as soon as possible. They were hustled and thrown out into the road, and were obliged to take their carriages and go back to Brooklyn. All of these men were volunteers. There were among them two doctors, one clergyman and three lawyers.

BENNETT APPEALED TO.

Tramway Strikers In Marseilles Want the American's Aid.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 7.—A committee from the Tramway company held a conference with the municipal authorities last evening. The committee hinted that the city government sympathized with the strikers and had provoked the riots to bring the company to terms. The municipal councilors used strong language in denying that they had exerted any influence up n the men. A violent quarrel ensued and the mayor left the room in a pet. The conference broke up without reaching any decision. The strikers have addressed an appeal to James G rdon Bennett, begging him to aid them as he once aided the Paris cabmen.

The mayor will prosecute M. Beatmiche, director of the Tramway company, for having accused him slanderously of abetting the rioters. The strikers did much damage yesterday afternoon and evening. Fifty cars were partly destroyed, a great quantity of harness was cut and many horses have been crippled. A car driver who refused to strike was beaten severely and lies unconscious. Sixty-two strikers have been arrested. The men held a tumultuous meeting last evening. Violent speeches were cheered wildly, and the strikers resolved unanimously never to go back to work unless the company should concede their demands.

A LITERARY CURIOSITY.

Peculiar Document Filed In Pension Bureau by Georgia Physician.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The following literary curiosity, purporting to be a certificate of examination by a Georgia physician, was received at the pension bureau yesterday morning:

"I treated him in his last illnes and his deth woz cased bi then deazes been drown a pension four sum time. He deazed November 1 a nobel man who luved thee Onion cbused to pas awa from pane and sorer and has gorn to whear thee wiked ces from trublin and the weecrey are at wrest."

LOVING LETTERS.

Boston Physician Mixed Up In an Actress' Divorce Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The younger of the two Blaucke sisters, now playing in Sol Smith Russell's "A Poor Relation" company at Daly's theater, is defendant to a suit for absolute divorce brought by her husband, James Francis Neil, an actor.

The case was tried before Justice Ingraham, in the supreme court, yesterday. The defendant, who, by the way, did not defend, is known on the stage as Nannon Blancke. Her real name is Annie Helen Neil.

The correspondent in the case is Dr. De Forest W. Cause, said to be a son of Dr Horace Chase of Boston.

Mrs. Wilson, sister of the defendant, identified a lot of letters said to have been sent by Dr. Chase to her sister. These letters were very loving in tone and began with "My own Darling Nannan," or "My own Darling Nan."

One of these epistles reads as follows: "Dear Little Girl—I wonder what I would not give if I could only see you a moment tonight. O, darling, I love you so much, little woman. I do not feel like doing anything but while the time away that will bring you back to me again."

The other letters were written in much the same strain. Several photographs of Mrs. Neil were shown, one in her nightgown and bare feet.

Justice Ingraham said these letters and photographs were all very well, but were no evidence of infidelity. He therefore gave the plaintiff another week to introduce more evidence.

DOWN IN BRAZIL.

Governments of England and France Declare They Will Be Neutral.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald's Rio dispatch says: President Peixoto has received word that the governments of England and France have informed the government of the United States that they will maintain positions of strict neutrality with regard to Brazilian affairs, and not interfere in any way with the progress of the revolution.

President Peixoto's recently promulgated decree regarding foreigners regulates their entrance upon Brazilian territory, their residence there, and their expulsion during the continuation of martial law in the republic. Beggars and vagrants and persons suffering from contagious diseases are prohibited from entering the country. Foreigners may be expelled who, by their individual acts or through the press, ignore or defy the law, incite to insurrection or civil war, stir up ill feeling against the authorities or instigate acts of violence which in any manner endanger the permanence of public tranquility.

The same rule applies to those who instigate the commission of crimes against the freedom of labor, thus causing obstruction to public business and social affairs. The government may change the decree of expulsion to one of imprisonment if it sees fit.

STAGING GAVE WAY.

Three Men Fall Thirty Feet and One of Them Is Killed.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—A staging on which three painters were standing while painting the house 149 Marion street, East Boston, gave away at 11:45 o'clock this forenoon and the men were thrown a distance of 30 feet to the ground. They were: Charles Dickinson, 35 years of age; of 21 Dudley street; William Donovan, 21 New street; Robert Capelo, 105 Brooks street.

Dickinson received severe injuries, which caused his death about 15 minutes after the accident occurred. Donovan grasped a blind in the fall, and by clinging to that escaped serious injury. Capelo was but slightly injured. Donovan and Capelo were taken to their home. After Dickinson's body had been viewed by the medical examiner it was taken to his late home.

MADE GOOD HAULS.

Burglars Successfully Raid Houses In Framingham Centre.

FRAMINGHAM, Mass., Nov. 7.—Burglars entered the houses of Deacon George W. Bigelow and Dr. E. H. Bigelow, on Pleasant street, Framingham Centre, at an early hour this morning. At the doctor's house they secured watches and valuable jewelry. They carried most of Mr. Bigelow's clothes into the kitchen, but failed to find his money, which was in a coat pocket.

At Deacon Bigelow's house the thieves secured a pocketbook belonging to George D. Bigelow, a Boston lawyer, and a watch and jewelry belonging to Miss Fanny Bigelow. Here the thieves were frightened away by the inmates.

HORNBLOWER'S CASE.

President May Not Reappoint Him—The Hawaiian Question.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Your correspondent asked a prominent Democratic orator, who is a close friend of President Cleveland, whether he would reappoint Judge Hornblower as associate justice. He replied that he did not think the president would. The refusal of the senate to act in his case was paramount to rejection therefore, the senator could not see how President Cleveland could conscientiously reappoint him.

WILLIAM B. HORNBLOWER.

Judge Hornblower's friends, however, insist that he shall be reappointed. They assert that he is eminently qualified for the position, and that the non-action of the Democratic members of the senate judiciary was solely on account of Hornblower's politics, he being an anti-snapper and still in full sympathy with that organization.

The representatives of the Hawaiian provisional government here are very much discouraged on account of the delay on the part of President Cleveland in the Hawaiian affairs. One of the main troubles that confront the president now is that the condition of affairs on the island does not correspond with the representations made by Commissioner Blount.

That gentleman assured the president that the provisional government did not represent the respectable people on the island. Reliable information, however, is in possession of the government here which completely refutes that submitted by Blount. The action of the president through the secretary of the navy, in relieving Admiral Skerritt from his command there, who was on excellent terms with the members of the provisional government, is looked upon as being unfriendly to that government.

PRESIDENT CONCERNED.

Wants Democratic Victory In New York and All Along the Line.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Secretary Lamont who arrived from Washington last night registered from the Victoria hotel, and voted early this morning. He told friends last night that he would vote the straight Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

It was ascertained further from Secretary Lamont that President Cleveland is much concerned over the result today, and that in a conversation with Speaker Crisp and others in Washington, on Friday last he expressed an earnest hope for a Democratic victory all along the line.

OUR REPRESENTATIVES.

Sketches of the Political Careers of the Representatives From the Several Wards —Owen M. Donohue and F. S. Bennett the New Men.

Representative Daniel J. Murphy of the 21st district, who has been reelected to the General court, was born in County Cork, Ireland, Sept. 15, 1843. He received his education in the schools of his native country and came to this city in 1867. He was employed successively by the Lowell Foundry and the Locks & Canals company and afterwards opened a grocery store at the corner of Broadway and Suffolk street. He was a member of the common council in '82, '83 and '88, and while a member [illegible] he was noted for his keen [illegible] the excellent judgment he [illegible] all matters pertaining to the [illegible] constituents. [illegible] year he [illegible] excellent record in the legislature, [illegible] particularly interested in all labor [illegible] Mr. Murphy has a strong hold [illegible] people of his ward as was shown [illegible] large vote he has always received [illegible] he declared himself a candidate [illegible] suffrages of the people. This year [illegible] Murphy will serve the interests of his [illegible] dents in a praiseworthy manner, as [illegible] done in the past.

The 25th District.

[illegible] J. Farley Esq., who was re-elected [illegible] ay to represent the 25th district in [illegible] at and general court is a native of [illegible] y, having been born in that section [illegible] ity, known as Belvidere in 1864. [illegible] graduate of the Moody and Lowell [illegible] hools, and was chosen to deliver [illegible] latory address when he graduated [illegible] the latter institution in 1880. Again [illegible] he was called upon to deliver the [illegible] ry address as a member of the [illegible] ng class of 1884. Upon receiving [illegible] ree from Boston College, Mr. Farley [illegible] Boston Law school and also stud- [illegible] e office of Thomas Flatly of Bos- [illegible] 1888 he began to practice his [illegible] n in this city and has met with [illegible] dest success in the pursuit of it.

[illegible] rley has also acquired a reputa- [illegible] orator and for several years was [illegible] service in different parts of [illegible] the Democratic State committ- [illegible] nt, occupies the position of [illegible] be democratic city committee [illegible] en an excellent leader, his [illegible] alding much in steering the [illegible] cracy in the proper channel. Farley's action as a mem- [illegible] ouse will give them no cause [illegible] is a choice they have made.

The 22d District.

Donohue, Ward Three's repre- [illegible] the general court for next [illegible] e of Lowell and is the son of [illegible] Donohue, one of Lowell's most prosperous business men, and the brother of ex-Alderman Peter H. Donohue. He is 32 years of age. He received his education in the public schools of the city, graduating from them with honors. For the past fifteen years has been engaged in business meeting with great success.

In 1875 Mr. Donohue entered the field of politics and was elected to the common council from Ward Three. During his term he proved himself to be a straightforward democrat and was in 1880 re-elected to the council by a fine majority.

In 1890 he gained the nomination and was elected to the legislature and during his term there was ever to be found working in the interests of democracy and the laboring classes although his friends wished him to continue in politics he retired for a few years and when this fall he announced his intention of again seeking the seat in the legislature he received the nomination without much effort and as may be seen was elected.

To private life Mr. Donohue is very popular and has a host of friends, being possessed of the disposition and quality essential to win friends. He is a member of the Hibernians, Foresters and several other social and political clubs.

Ether S. Foss, re-elected, is a prominent and successful contractor, is a resident of the Highlands and a leading member of the Highland club. He served in the legislature with good success from a republican standpoint.

Rep. W. H. I. Hayes goes to the legislature again to make an effort to get the mayorship. He is familiarly known as "Hundred" and cuts quite a figure locally as well as politically.

Frank S. Bennett is a well known Tyngsborough man and is well spoken of.

Ex-Mayor Stuart Murphy is returned to the house by the voters of Ward Two, having served a very acceptable year as a republican in that office.

SOME POLICE NEWS.

How the Day Was Passed by the Blue Coats.

The election passed off quietly in police circles.

Two repeaters, presumably republicans, were arrested in precinct two of Ward Six, where they had attempted to vote more than once.

They gave their names as Daniel Shea and Thomas F. Burns, both of this city.

Burns is said to have voted on his own name and on that of his brother.

Shea is supposed to have voted on the name of a man who was buried but a day or two since.

Both will be arraigned in the police court, charged with illegal voting.

Yesterday afternoon the employes of the Bon Marche noticed a woman making trips to and from the store and acting in a suspicious manner. They notified the police and Inspectors Lallamme and Allen went to the store and watched the woman.

Outside the store she had left a baby carriage in which was a small child. She was accompanied by two other children who walked by her side.

The officers found that her scheme was to go into the store and put some article of dry goods under her shawl and bringing it out deposit it in the baby carriage.

When the officers arrested her she had a number of pairs of stockings in her possession.

It was a pitable sight to see the poor woman leading her children to the police station in company with the inspectors while the little ones trotted gleefully along, not realizing their mother's unfortunate position.

At the police station the woman gave her name as Margaret H. Horne, and upon her were found 15 pairs of stockings, a dozen or more undershirts, a child's hood and some other small articles.

Mrs. Horne has never been arrested before, and has many friends to testify to her previous good character. It is thought by them that the woman through the results of hard times was driven to the act.

She was booked for shoplifting, and was bailed out.

The arrests for drunkenness yesterday were very few, and showed that the day was remarkably dry.

THREE MEN TAKEN INTO CUSTODY FROM WARD SIX.

Alleged Voting on the Name of a Man Who Has Just Been Laid Away in the Cemetery—Two Men Belong in Lowell.

Dennis Shea, aged 27 years years, and Thomas Burns, aged 25 years, were arrested yesterday afternoon for alleged repeating.

Shea says that he resides on Fenwick street, but it is said that he is here today and in Boston tomorow, spending his time between the two cities. It is true, however, that his parents reside on Fenwick street in this city. Burns lives with his folks on Fayette street.

It was a foolish piece of business on the part of these men, if the story is true to attempt to vote on the names of the men they did, inasmuch as the men whose names were given were very well known throughout Ward Six, and the repeaters themselves were well known to the police, and the election officers.

Burns made his appearance in the polling booth on East Merrimack street at 8.30 yesterday morning and gave his name as Bernard Burns, 59 High street. The precinct officers doubted if this was his name, but allowed him to pass. Sometime after the proper Bernard Burns came along and attempted to vote, but found that his name had been voted upon. He insisted that he had not voted and then the precinct officers began to see that their suspicions in the case of Burns No. 1 were well grounded. Bernard Burns was not allowed to vote. Had Thomas contented himself with one vote he would have been all right, but he made a second visit to the polling booth and voted upon his own name. Nothing was said to him by the warden, and he was allowed to depart. After he went, however, a controversy arose between the precinct officers and Officer Lennon, the former alleging that the latter was at fault in allowing Burns to depart, whereas in reality the warden was to blame. Officer Lennon, however, caught Burns later in the day over on Fayette street. Burns run into a house but the officer followed him and captured him. Burns is a brother to the man on whose name he attempted to vote.

Shea was caught in the High street precinct. The police officers over there knew him well, when he came up and gave the name of Matthew Mulvaney, 37 Concord street. Now it happens that Mr. Mulvaney died last Sunday at his residence and was buried yesterday morning. There was no better known man in the ward than the late Mr. Mulvaney and it is no wonder that the man who attempted to vote on his name was caught.

Mr. Greenhalge Gets a Grand Ovation.

Tremendous Cheering—Patriotic Speech by Mr. Greenhalge.

A worthy tribute to an honored son.

That was what Lowell bestowed upon Governor-Elect Greenhalge, last night. Probably he little expected when he left Boston at 11.20, the grand reception that awaited him when he arrived in this city at 12.23, this morning. It was a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm and brotherly feeling to one who had been chosen to the highest position within the gift of the people of the commonwealth.

Democrats and republicans turned out alike, but the parade was made up entirely of republicans.

At Huntington Hall.

Mr. Greenhalge's entrance to Huntington hall was the signal for frantic cheers. He was presented in front of hundreds on the stage and cheer after cheer went up for several minutes before he could obtain a hearing.

Mayor Pickman called for silence and said the great battle has been fought and Lowell's favorite son, Hon. F. T. Greenhalge has been elected governor of the commonwealth. (Tremendous cheers).

One name is subscribed on the banner of our city and that name is Hon. F. T. Greenhalge.

Such an event is unprecedented in the history of Lowell. It is an inspiring sight. I present the governor-elect Mr. Greenhalge.

Bedlam here broke loose and ten minutes were spent in the most uproarious cheering.

Mr. Greenhalge said: My friends this is not late Tuesday night but early Wednesday morning. I have only a single word to say. What can I say after such a demonstration as you have given me?

I said when leaving Lowell this morning that I would sacrifice 5000 votes in the state for the vote of my own city but now I am told I have the vote of my own people without sacrificing a single vote in the state. (cheers.)

What does it mean my friends, my neighbors, my brothers, if my election does not seem good to every mother's son of you, for I see no daughters here? (Laughter.) But I tell them what my election will be to Lowell. Despite the charge of being a partisan, despite what some newspapers have said of me, I have never been a bitter partisan. I have been a friend or tried to be a friend to every man. I have never been illiberal, I never tried to foster animosities but on the contrary tried to crush them out. I tried to bring people together, to bring men of this nationality and of that, of this and that religion all together and to remember that they were brothers. Of course we must differ, it would be a mighty dull country and a dull time if we did not differ. I would hate to live with anybody who agreed with me all the time.

Even my beautiful wife sometimes differs with me. My son and daughter some times criticize what I say and think, but yet we are all one family, so I wish it may be in this city and state. If we differ in the city of Lowell, let us bring the matters up and discuss them in every aspect so as to arrive at right results.

I have tried to carry this campaign, but I have never struck a blow below the belt. I appreciate with my whole heart and soul this overwhelming greeting you have given me this morning. When we are making history for Lowell, I want my city to hold an honored place. I came here and here I stayed. I wanted to remain here among the men who toil for a living. I do not say this in order to win votes, and I may say now that I never asked a man for a vote in my life. (Loud cheers.)

I would rather lose an election than win it by the mean art of the politician. I am accused of being a yearling, but when elected to any office I endeavor to do my duty and let God and the people take care of the second term, (tremendous applause.)

Let us begin a new era in the history of Lowell the grandest industrial city in the world. Fall River may have more spindles, New Bedford may excel in some respects, but Lowell surpasses all. We have French, Irish, English, Scotch, Armenians and men of almost all nationalities in the world. The work of the statesman is to bring them under the grand rule of the commonwealth of the Pilgrim Fathers. Here every man can be a patriot under the stars and stripes.

We have fought a hot campaign and success is not due to my efforts but to the will of the people. They have condemned the policy of the party in power and I will bear their message. We can give a warning voice that we want the grand old policy of Benjamin Harrison to be sustained. You have followed my suggestion made to you a few days ago and my efforts will be to do my duty towards all parties and all citizens whether native or adopted.

After thanking the gathering for their noble and generous demonstration, he advised all to return to their homes as their families would blame him for keeping them out late. The large gathering then cheered again before dispersing.

Grand Demonstration.

The republican city committee had a full delegation in line and the Yorick club turned out to a man, and supplied the music, Post 42 G. A. R. band being at the head of their ranks. Besides these, there were numerous other republicans congregated from all parts of the city. Somehow or other the city committee got the wrong "cue" and believed that the governor-elect would reach Lowell at 11.20. Accordingly they were prepared at the appointed time to meet him, but their hopes were disappointed and they were doomed to delay, for word was received that the governor-elect would not reach here until an hour later.

When finally the train rolled in bearing the new made hero, there was a mighty rush, a crush, and then sinking back as the man among men, made his appearance. But what a shout, rather a roar, a perfect bedlam. "Fred" bowed and tipped his brown fedora, and then when his eyes met the grand feast that awaited him, he was deeply affected.

It was a great night for "Fred," a greater night for Lowell. To imagine that a resident of Lowell—a candidate on the republican ticket—had been raised to the governorship, was sufficient to arouse the greatest enthusiasm on the part of our republican friends.

A carriage, decorated with miniature American flags; was held in waiting by Paul Butler, and attracted to it was a pair of fine horses but there was no need for them; "Fred's" admirers contended that they should draw the carriage and so they did; about 200 of them grabbing hold of the rope, which was attached to the pole. Ex-Mayor Palmer sat upon the drivers' box and looked as happy as he felt. Seated in the carriage beside Governor-Elect Greenhalge were His Honor Mayor Pickman and Larkin T. Trull. Among the body guard marching beside the carriage was Col. Dimon, who on Monday came out for Greenhalge.

The whole line of procession from the depot to Huntington hall was one continual blaze of red fire, in fact at times it seemed as though a large fire was in progress in our city. Charlie Hansen rode on head of the procession and supplied the boys with red fire. Roman candles, sky rockets and cannon crackers were fired off, and in fact everything conceivable was done to add to the enthusiasm of the occasion. At post office square the cheers were loud and hearty and the governor-elect was kept continually raising his hat in response to the grand ovation he was receiving.

Taken altogether Lowell did its duty in showing homage to one who has always been a loyal citizen and in recognizing the importance of the honor conferred upon him.

The Crowds on Merrimack Square.

The interest taken in the returns was phenomenal. There never was an election in which there was more uncertainty as to the outcome before the returns came in and hardly ever one in which the first returns were more clearly indicative of final results. Only a few country towns were heard from when it could be easily seen that Russell was running far behind and that Greenhalge would be the next governor of Massachusetts. The crowd multiplied in front of THE SUN office as town after town was heard from until the governorship and the senatorial contest was practically settled by the returns and cheer after cheer rent the air, but all or nearly all were republican cheers.

There were thousands of Mr. Brady's friends on the street and they cheered every report that showed him to be in the lead. The ardor of the democrats sank with their hopes of victory and after waiting to be assured of Mr. Brady's victory they dispersed for home. At 11 o'clock the streets were abandoned to the republicans who were awaiting the arrival of Mr. Greenhalge from Boston. The Big Twelve, the Yoricks, Miserables and other clubs kept open during the greater part of the night, all in excitement at the news of the great landslide all over the country. The democratic loss in this city, as in the state and all over the country was far greater than even republicans anticipated. It was a regular landslide a reversal of the republican defeat that followed the passage of the McKinley bill.

Everybody was surprised at the result and all agreed in attributing it to the hard times.
